A goat chews anything, but you should choose the latest. See that new line of neckwear at Pease & Mays.
Another drunken Indian named Sam Spoli, was "run in" by Phirman last evening and this morning paid his $2 fine.
That new fall overcoat you promised yourself this week is waiting for you at A. M. Williams & Co's. Nowhere else such good coats at prices so moderate.
Saturday evening Thos. J. Burford, of Centerville, and S. E. Thompson were married in this city, and they left on the boat this morning for a wedding trip to Portland.
Harry C. Liehe carries the most complete stock of diamonds, watches, jewelry and Sterling silver novelties in the city, which he sells at a reasonable price.
Call and inspect the assortment.
There will be a special communication of Waseco Lodge No. 15 A. F. & A. M. this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock.
Work in the third degree. All members and visiting brethren are invited to be present. By order of the W. M.
The date for "My Friend From India," which was to have been played at the Vogt next Monday, has been changed until Tuesday night, the 31st. T. W.
Caldwell, the manager, is in town today making arrangements for their date here.
Like Pague and the rest of the weather prophets, THE CHRONICLE sometimes makes mistakes in its prognostications as was proven yesterday when the sun shone most of the day. The frost last night was slight, doing little if any damage.
Prof. A. Sandvig announces that his opening dance will be given next Thursday evening at the Baldwin, when the "Bon Ton," a new dance, and the glide lancers will be introduced. Any who may desire private lessons address Prof.
Sandvig, Box 536. 21-1f It is encouraging to sit in our office and see improvements going on about us, even if it is nothing but a new sidewalk going up in front of Waggener's shoe shop. Had the shoemaker an eye to business he would have induced Mr.

Ruch to leave the old one down, with its fringe of nails protruding.
Ex-Governor W. P. Lord has accepted the appointment as minister of the United States to the Argentine Republic.
The appointment is the highest honor yet conferred on a citizen of Oregon by the administration and carries with it the title of envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States.
The Albany Democrat states that the Metropolitan opera troupe failed to meet their engagement at that place and that it was reported at Albany that the gay singers were walking into Portland from Hillsboro, pedestrianism being enforced by a shortage of ready coin. At Mc-Minnville they played to an audience of sixteen.
The city reservoir received a good cleaning out today, being entirely emptied and thoroughly cleansed. For a time trout fishing was splendid in those quarters, almost a hundred being captured, and several who happened to be watching the job had trout for dinner. If there were any eels no report was given in.
James Jordan, who owns one of the finest stock ranches in the Saddle Butte country, has just got back from a trip to The Dalles, where he spent a few weeks visiting. He formerly resided at that place, but he says it has made wonderful progress since he saw it last and has now the appearance of a flourishing and progressive little city.—Burns News.
The Inland Flyer is becoming very popular these days, particularly with the ladies, who are all anxious to travel on the little steamer. She is doing herself proud and since she has been on the route has not varied three minutes in making the trip; but every trip down has beat her schedule time by an hour and a half and in coming up a half hour.
News from Starbuck says: "Fireman Otto Piper expects to go to housekeeping soon, but it will be with his parents, who will probably move from The Dalles." The CHRONICLE force will vouch for the fact that Otto will not soon go to housekeeping as a benedict, unless he has gotten over the aversion which he had for "troublesome girls" when an employe of this office.
Speaking of the death of Mrs. Henry Hewitt, mother of Judge Hewitt, the McMinnville T. R. says: It is claimed that Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt came through with the first wagon train, and that Mr. Hewitt drove the first wagon down the western slopes of the Blue mountains, and the second into The Dalles.
He would have driven the first wagon into The Dalles but another man happened to get ahead of him. Before this train of emigrants came with wagons it is claimed that the running gears of a wagon were brought across the Rocky mountains, but that was all.
Bowling is reviving again and will soon be in full blast. Wednesday night a team from The Dalles will play the Arlington Club team in Portland. Fred Houghton has requested Secretary Mallorry to arrange a four cornered match tournament, to take place the early part of January, between teams from the following named clubs: Illihee, of Salem; Y. M. C. A., of Portland, Commercial, The Dalles, and the Astoria Football Club. The preliminaries are being arranged, and the conditions and schedule will be announced some time during the coming week. All the clubs mentioned will enter this event, so there will be tournaments to burn this winter.

Last Wednesday morning in Portland Miss Winetta Champlain and Albert Cousin were united in marriage. Miss Champlain formerly resided in Hood River, and has many friends in The Dalles. Another marriage in which Dalles people are interested is that of Miss Laura McCoy, and Logan Black, which took place in Prineville on the 10th. Miss Laura made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson for some time and attended school here.
The dead body found near Scott last week has been identified as that of Bert Whitney, who was drowned in Snake river during the summer. Mr. Whitney went to Scott, with a number of buttons from home, such as were on the clothing of the young man when he left home, and as those on the clothing corresponded, Mr. Whitney was satisfied that it was his son. The corpse was accordingly boxed up and shipped to St. Helen's, Oregon, where the parents reside, for interment.
I. F. Toby, superintendent of the Oregon Children's Home of Portland, is in our city today in the interest of this grand institution, which is working in twenty-seven states of the union and has placed 10,000 homeless children in good homes in the past sixteen years.
He has a number of children between the ages of 1½ and 7 years for whom he is desirous of finding homes. Judging from the photographs he carries they are fine-looking children, and he comes here for the purpose of eliciting the sympathy of the community in securing them home protection. He will remain here for two days and anyone who desires to adopt a child may consult him or address him at 603 Marquam building, Portland Or.
The "Breezy Time" company, eighteen in number, arrived on last evening's train from Portland, where they have played for two weeks at Cordray's theater. At noon they gave a very pleasing band concert on the street, when the lady cornetist, Miss Mattie Smith, gave a solo. Their band is a good one, and if the company plays to "beat the band," they'll be all right.
While we cannot speak personally regarding their merit, others who have seen them in Portland say if you want to have a good laugh, be sure and hear them. We can't get too many good hearty laughs in this world, and a good, clean, mirth-provoking show ought to be good medicine.
A week ago Hon. W. H. Dufur, of Dufur, met with a serious accident, which will confine him to his bed for a long time. While riding in the barn above White river his horse fell over a log crushing the rider beneath it. He was rescued from his perilous position by Archie Moad, one of the rangers who accompanied him, revived from his unconscious state and took him to Barrow gate where he suffered great agony.

He was taken to his home near Dufur Tuesday. Dr. Dodd's, who has the case in charge, reports two ribs broken and his patient suffering very much from the crush but the injury not necessarily dangerous.
From J. O. Mack, who has just returned from attending the fair at Antelope, we learn of the success of this year's meeting. Barring the rain, Mr.
Mack thinks it is the most successful yet held, particularly as regards the stock exhibit. Wednesday and Thursday night the amateurs gave a minstrel performance in the new hall, in which two Dalles young men took part, and Mr. Mack says Bert Baldwin as pianist and John Hampshire in his Irish sketch captured Antelope, and he doubts if they will be allowed to return or want to since they are having such a time.
Other reports coming from there were to the effect that the two young men had been placed in a side show, where Baldwin was doing the playing and Hampshire the dancing, while Wilbur Bolton acted as barker and ticket agent and Newt Burgess door keeper. The same joshier said that C. L. Gilbert had been captured as he was returning from visiting a district school, and having improved so much in health they had attempted to have him join the aggregation as fat man. No doubt the remainder of the Dalles crowd were posing as "African dodgers."

A DALLES WEDDING.
Mary Driver and Jas. Kennedy Married at High Noon Yesterday.
At high noon yesterday a very happy but quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Driver, on Third street, when Recorder N. H. Gates united in marriage their eldest daughter, Mary Alfarettah Driver, and James Kennedy, of Wamic.
At the close of the ceremony when congratulations had been offered, a wedding dinner was served, which was not lacking in quantity nor quality, being bounteous and most tempting. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in a pleasant manner, the following beside the immediate family being present:
Mrs. Otis Patterson, Mrs. O. S. Waud and children, Chas. Twineham, T.
Batty, J. Straus.
Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left on the Astoria train for a trip to Portland, Astoria and Salem, and upon their return will make their home at Wamic, where Mr. Kennedy is a very prosperous farmer, and an enterprising business man, having graduated from the Portland Business College in the same class with her who is now his wife. She is a young lady of splendid education and fine character, well suited to make a helpmate of whom the groom is justly proud.
THE CHRONICLE joins in congratulations.
