TRADE IS STARTLED

By this sale. No wonder! Men with clear judgment are hastening by the dozen to our Clothing Department to get $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00 Men's Fall Suits for $8.95.

This is a sale of Broken Lots, with three or four, perhaps half dozen suits of a kind. Every suit is fresh and nobby, being made for us for this season's trade. These suits were good sellers at the regular price, but now they are traveling like the proverbial hot cakes, at Eight Ninety-five.

Better hurry up and get in line. It's like giving you money, to sell these up-to-date stylish Fall Suits at this amazingly low figure, but they must go. Have a few of those $5.00, $6.00 and $7.50 suits left, your choice for $3.95.

Ask to see our line of Gents' Mackintoshes, just arrived.

Harry C. Liebe carries the most complete stock of diamonds, watches, jewelry and Sterling silver novelties in the city, which he sells at a reasonable price. Call and inspect the assortment.

J. A. Borie, for more than seven years agent for the O. R. & N. in Pendleton, has resigned his position and announces that he will go into business there. He will be succeeded by Frank F. Wamsley.

It is to be hoped that the dispatch which announces that the price of whisky has been put up by the United States Spirits Association, will have the effect of inducing fewer people to put it down their throats.

Mrs. J. N. Harney, wife of a former agent of the D. P. & A. N. Co., in Portland, and who is well known in The Dalles, died suddenly last week at Moscow, Idaho, where Mr. Harney is now agent for the O. R. & N. Co.

At the initial party to be given by Prof. Sandvig Thursday evening at the Baldwin, Prof. Birgfeld's orchestra—three pieces—will furnish music, and several new dances will be introduced. The doorkeeper will see that no one enters who is in the least objectionable. Admission will be 50 cents.

Among other pleasing features of the Halloween entertainment at the Baldwin Monday night will be the Indian war dance. It will not be any easier to distinguish who the klotchmen are than to discover the ghosts last year. One who is thoroughly versed in the dance is training the siwashees.

In referring to the exclusion of sheep from the Cascade reserve the Salem Statesman remarks: "Not a foot of it ought to be closed to the sheep; not a single foot. They do no harm to the forest reserve. The 'scientists' of the interior department who investigate the damage from the windows of Pullman cars ought to be turned down and kicked out of the service of the government. It is these fellows who do the harm, not the sheep. The proposition is patenting in the extreme."

The busiest place in town today is the Wasco warehouse, which has hardly room to contain the amount of goods they are receiving, among which are two cars of sugar, one of syrup, one of coal oil, a car of Star Feed Mills and a car of stoves. The force has been on the jump all day.

H. H. Perry, a brakeman on the O. R. & N. train, met with a very painful accident which came near causing the loss of the index finger of the left hand. He was engaged in uncoupling an engine at Celilo about 8 o'clock this morning when the finger got caught and was badly mashed. He came direct to this city, where Dr. Hudson gave the necessary medical attendance.

The cistern at the corner of Third and Langhin streets is to have a new cover, which it is said is a splendid move, as the timbers of the old one were badly decayed. The report that a terrible stench arose from the water therein is said to be a mistake. Those who live in that neighborhood say that they failed to notice any disagreeable odor. However, the suggestion of our contemporary that the water should be changed often is a good one.

Last Sunday the Methodists at Antelope dedicated their new church, Rev. Robt. Warner being in attendance to assist in the service. The building is neat and a great addition to the little city, as well as a credit to the community which responded so generously Sunday, when $1,078 was raised. Much credit is given to Rev. Leech, Wilbur Bolton, W. L. Hinkle and others to whose efforts is largely due the successful erection of the church.

Last evening at 6 o'clock, at the Catholic church, Father Bronsgeest united in marriage E. H. Howell and Miss Mary B. Shannon, two young people who have made their home in The Dalles for years, Miss Shannon having been brought up here. Mr. Howell has been employed by the O. R. & N. Co. for a number of years and is well liked by his many friends, while his bride is an excellent young lady of splendid character. The CHRONICLE wishes to extend to Mr. and Mrs. Howell its congratulations.

The members of Oregon's gallant regiment of volunteers—the justly famous Second Oregon—are each to receive a bronze medal as an evidence of the appreciation of the people of the state for their noble services. That these medals will be manufactured for distribution among the volunteers is now assured, for Gov. T. T. Geer has received from the war department a letter informing him that the department had authorized the purchase of a Spanish gun to be used in casting medals for the Oregon volunteers.

Some time ago the CHRONICLE mentioned the fact that Capt. Waud had visited the schools when he last was in the city and promised a gold nugget to the pupils in Miss Wren's and Miss L. Rintoul's rooms who could answer the most questions regarding Alaska. Upon his return home Sunday, Fred Waud brought with him the promised prizes, one of which was given to Alice Kurtz, of Miss Wren's room, and the other to Eugene Davis, of Miss Rintoul's room. Fred also presented his teacher, Miss Mitchell, with a very handsome nugget stick pin. Captain Waud has always been deeply interested in the welfare of our schools, and the children greatly appreciate this token of his interest in them.

The De Kalb, Ill., Chronicle has the following concerning a Dalles lady: "Mrs. Isabella Rockwell and Miss Nellie Norton entertained a party of ladies yesterday afternoon and to supper last evening in honor of Mrs. Mary French, who leaves soon to spend the winter in Cleveland, Ohio. The hours were very agreeably passed in a social way, the ladies who have recently returned from abroad adding to the enjoyment of the occasion by relating some of their experiences and Mrs. French acquainting the ladies with Oregon life by showing them many views of places of interest along the Pacific."

The grand jury reported a true bill in the case of Frank McDaniel, charged with the murder of Clara Fitch in Portland some months since. A portion of the indictment says: "Frank McDaniel is accused of willfully, feloniously, purposely, and of deliberate and premeditated malice, having killed Claire Adelaide Fitch, by choking, suffocating and strangling her, and by forcibly stopping and closing and compressing the neck and throat of said victim, a more particular description of the way in which said crime was committed being to the grand jury unknown." This, while not so specifically saying in the indictment, is an indictment for murder in the first degree, as the indictment follows the statutory definition of that crime.

A Novel Appeal.

A Mississippi editor makes this appeal to delinquent subscribers: "Fish down in your pocket and dig up dust; the editor is hungry and the paper 'bout to bust. We've trusted you for several months, and did it with a smile, so just return the compliment and trust us for awhile. Our wife she needs some stockings and baby needs a dress; Jimmy needs some breeches, and so does Kate and Bess. Pud is on the hog train and Peggy sick with grief; and good gosh almighty, can't you give a man relief? Shell out those nickels and turn loose the dimes; turn 'em loose and whistle and we'll have better times; there will be fewer patches on the bosom of our pants; and we'd make the paper better if we had half a chance. Don't give us that old story, long gone to seed, 'bout takin' more family papers than the family wants to read; but help to feed the printer, and he'll help our town to grow, and thus escape the sulphur in the regions down below."

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old-time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well-informed. Buy the genuine. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Prof. A. Sandvig announces that his opening dance will be given next Thursday evening at the Baldwin, when the "Bon Ton," a new dance, and the glide dancers will be introduced. Any who may desire private lessons address Prof. Sandvig, Box 536. 21-1f

Press Comments.

In reviewing the performance of "My Friend From India," lately given by a specially engaged company at Hoyt's Theater, New York, the Evening Sun of February 26th, says: "In one or two respects the new cast of 'My Friend From India' is an improvement on the original. Mr. Perkins, who was the original barber, still holds his laurels undisturbed, however. The gentleman who now plays the part does not come within a thousand miles of him artistically." And that has been the verdict all over the country where there has been an opportunity to compare the work done by others in the part made famous by Walter Perkins.

It is the latter gentleman who heads the company announced to appear on Tuesday night at the Vogt, and from the many who have essayed the different roles the best have been chosen and are now in support of Walter Perkins, and constitute what is now known as Smyth & Rice's Comedians, so a performance of a marked degree of perfection can be reasonably looked for.

To quote again from the Evening Sun article: "There seems to be no earthly reason why one should have the blues as long as 'My Friend From India' remains in town."

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.
