A Grocer Says

"I guess everybody in Bellevue, Ohio, knows O. B. Callaghan, the grocer. I am in his employ, and am about as well known as he is. A grocery is a place where you have cold gusts of wind coming in every time the door opens, and there is a good deal of running about out-doors too. Anyhow, I catch cold very often, but the minute I begin to sneeze I reach up on the shelf and take a dose of Acker's English Remedy. I tell you it is wonderful how quickly it stops a cough or cold. I have used it myself, and in my family for a number of years. It works like a charm. I suppose some of the folks would have run into consumption before this if I had neglected to keep a bottle ready all the time for immediate use. I wouldn't think of using anything else for throat and lung troubles. I know what Acker's Remedy actually does, so what sense is there in experimenting? Certainty is better than chance."
(Signed) JOHN HARR.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 2d., 3d., 4d., 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

afternoon to stay over Sunday with Misses Josie Jenkins and Eda Fisher.
Judge Bradshaw and F. L. Houghton returned from Portland yesterday afternoon. They haven't the countenance of conquerors, but they don't look badly beaten.
Mrs. D. M. French returned on last night's train from Seattle where she has been attending the W. C. T. U. convention. She reports a most pleasant trip and a splendid meeting of these noble workers for humanity. Mrs. S. French remained over in Portland until tomorrow visiting her daughter.
"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Ravages of Hog Cholera.
WALLA WALLA, Oct. 25.—Genuine hog cholera and plague are making big inroads in herds of swine in this country. State Veterinarian S. B. Nelson, of Pullman, is in the city, and has been advising with owners of swine. Schock & Epply, near the city, lost 300 in the past three weeks. J. G. Thomas in a few days lost fifty-five, and others have lost many. The state penitentiary herd is infected, and twenty have died. All the rest are sick.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, "Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Remains Will be Brought Home.
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A special to the World from Washington says: D. H. Rhodes, an employe of the quartermaster's department, who superintended the removal of the dead soldiers from Cuba this spring, has departed for Manila to make arrangements for bringing to this country the bodies of the boys in blue who have fallen in battle or died of disease in the Philippine islands.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle Rive, Ill., says: "After suffering from bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Butler Drug Co.
