 Miss Emma Rosecoe, who has spent the past five weeks visiting friends in The Dalles, left this morning on the boat for Portland and will proceed to her home in Victoria, B. C., tomorrow. Her friends have greatly enjoyed her visit, and trust it will not be another eight years before she again visits them.
 A Fine Musical Show.

The very best musical show that Ottumwa people have witnessed for years was presented at the Grand last night to a crowded house. The features of the Beach & Bowers presentation are all perfect. The negro conversations and dialogues are all new, original and funny; the singing is as nearly perfect as is heard in the very best of opera companies; the specialties cannot be beaten; the pantomimic and other features are decidedly laughable and intensely interesting, and there was never any better dog show on any stage than was presented at the close of the evening's entertainment. The dogs are the most thoroughly educated ever seen in this city, and they are made to do some entirely new and astonishing tricks. It would be folly to attempt to make the management of the Beach & Bowers company believe that it does not pay to give a first-class show. Every seat was sold long before dark and many people paid willingly for standing room. Immediately after the show ended hundreds of people flocked to the Ballingall pharmacy and reserved seats for this evening's performance. Beach & Bowers could pack the Grand every night for a week.—Ottumwa Daily Republican.

Your Face
 Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and Skin Eruptions. Admiral George Dewey
 Will receive the most royal welcome on Oct. 1st next, that was ever accorded to an American citizen.
 You will find a complete biography of this great hero, including his brilliant victory over the Spanish fleet in the great, authoritative and up-to-date work of reference, the
New Werner Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica

This is the only encyclopedia on the market that mentions Admiral Dewey. It gives the date of his birth; how he spent his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 23rd he left Hong Kong with his squadron, found and destroyed the Spanish Fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Admiral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Admiral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey.

Governor Theodore Roosevelt
Admiral Schley
Admiral Sampson
Capt. Clark of the Oregon and scores of other noted personages not even mentioned in any other Encyclopedia receive the same attention in this edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica

It speaks of General Wood as Governor of Santiago; of General Henry as Governor-General of Porto Rico; of Aguinaldo's declaration of War against the U. S.
