If you want to make a success of a business proposition let people know it through the newspapers. If you want people to know anything is going on advertise it in your city papers, or they'll never find it out.

Saturday at Berkeley, Calif., the University of California football team defeated the Oregon university boys at football by a score of 12 to 0. Two thousand people witnessed the game and said it was the best football played on the coast this year.

The dancing party given by Prof. Sandvig Saturday night, was perhaps the most enjoyable yet given. About seventy couples were present, and dancing was kept up until the midnight hour. All were much taken with the Wentworth, the new dance just introduced by him.

The prevailing warm weather and rains have produced an unusual growth on the range making it uncommonly good for the season of the year. The new green grass is from 2 to 4 inches high and still growing rapidly. This incures stock going into the winter in good condition.—Crook Co. Journal.

Visitors returning from Portland report the weather most disagreeable; worse, if possible, than in The Dalles. Saturday, in connection with the pouring rain, a stiff breeze came up and made things fly for a time. The barometer here today indicates continued rain or heavy wind storm.

In a telephone message to S. L. Brooks today, B. S. Pague informs him that he will leave for Chicago the 21st of next month to remain for about six months. He has been called there by the weather department. What arrangements he intends to make in regard to Oregon's weather during his absence we have not learned.

Gov. T. T. Geer has received a remittance, from the war department at Washington, D. C., for $3,044.22, as a partial reimbursement to the state of Oregon for the amount expended in bringing about the mobilization of the Oregon volunteers. The state's claim was for $5,162.51, and the amount still unpaid consists of several items, rejected by the war department, and a number of items suspended until more definite information can be secured.

Permanent organization of the Ministerial Association was consummated this morning, when the pastors of the Baptist, Congregational, Christian and Methodist churches formed themselves into a society for the purpose of receiving mutual benefit thereby, promoting the spiritual welfare of their congregations by general discussion as to the means to be employed to such an end; also to foster a unity of effort among the various denominations represented.

Deputy E. J. Glean, of Antelope, arrived in the city on yesterday's stage, having in charge Alva Simmons, who is charged with having robbed Thos. Burgess of $100 in money at Bakerson on the night of the 10th, and also having in his possession other articles supposed to have been purloined. These consisted of gents' furnishing goods, novelty goods, etc. It was proven that $430 of the $900 found in his trunk, belonged to him, but there seems to be little doubt that he is the party wanted for the Burgess robbery, he being employed by Mr. Burgess at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rice, having disposed of their farm near Enderby to Johnston Bros., of Dufur, came in the city today and will leave tomorrow for California, going first to Los Angeles. It is not unlikely they may decide to remain in that state, making their home there, but those who have known them so long in this section venture the hope that they may see fit to again cast their lot among us. Mr. Rice has been a subscriber of THE CHRONICLE since its first publication and we regret very much to lose him from our list, as well as from Eastern Oregon.

A bold burglary occurred at the office of William McGuire, representative of the Wasco Warehouse Co., at Columbus on last Friday night, the 10th inst., the thief or thieves getting away with $300 in money. The money was locked in a drawer and was all safe up to Friday noon when Mr. McGuire counted the same. The drawer had been pried open with a chisel. Mr. McGuire and two other men were sleeping in the building at the time and heard no noise during the night. It is possible, however, that the robbery was committed Saturday morning while all hands were at breakfast. It was a very bold affair and Mr. McGuire is well convinced that it was done by parties in that neighborhood—Agriculturalist.

One would hardly suppose that a hobo dare make his appearance in these times when work is so plentiful and it is impossible to secure laborers; but nevertheless an occasional one looms up and demands a "hand out". Last evening Phirman ran across such a one and "handed him in." This morning Recorder Gates fined him $20, which he is now working out on the new grade being built on the hill. The "weary one" seemed to think his sentence is tough one considering his standing, and remarked "I wish you wouldn't be so hard on a feller. I got good recommendations. Was in jail seven months in Montana, and the sheriff gave me a good send off." But Recorder Gates didn't seem to go much on recommendations and sent him up—on the hill.

It must be that the American people do enjoy being flim-flammed; it certainly looks like it, else they would refrain from putting their trust in every man they come across. A few nights since two men went down to the D. P. & A. N. dock and inquired regarding the fare to Portland. The man addressed said he was nightwatchman there and would see that they got down for seventy cents. The men, nothing daunted, paid over their seventy cents and returned in the morning expecting the fellow to keep his promise; but his work was night work and he failed to show up with the transportation or the seventy cents, so the trip cost them that much more than the regular fare. The "nightwatchman" proved to be a hobo, who concluded that would be an easy way to make $1.40, and he made it.

He may visit The Dalles so we advise people to look out for the fellow referred to in the following article from the Oregonian: "People with no more money than they need for their own use should look out for a smooth operator who is endeavoring to dispose of 'fony' jewelry by a method which is new in Portland. This fellow yesterday approached a woman on a principal street, and holding out a handsome emerald ring, asked her if she had dropped it. She truthfully replied that she had not. 'Well,' he said, 'I just picked it up. I can't afford to wear such a fine ring, and if you'll give me $5 for it, you can have it.' The woman was suspicious of the man, and although the ring appeared to be a fine one, she restrained her desire to buy it, and thereby escaped the possession of a worthless piece of jewelry."

A Missionary Tea.

The ladies of the W. F. M. S. gave their annual Missionary Tea Friday evening at the M. E. church. The Epworth hall was filled completely with a very appreciative audience.

After prayer by Mrs. Hawk, the Misses Willerton sang a duet "I'll Tell Jesus—He Will Know." Miss Bertha's clear, sweet voice was a surprise to her many friends, few having heard her before. Miss Grace sang exceptionally well and her singing is always enjoyed. Next, the High School Quartet gave "Hasten the Joyful Tidings" a solo and chorus, in a very pleasing manner and elicited hearty applause. Miss Bess French recited "A Legend of the Mazian," a very pathetic, touching and true recital of the conversion of a beautiful heathen girl wife to christianity. "If I become a christian what would you do My Lord?" "Kill you," he replied. Unmoved she answered, "I cannot deny my Jesus," and he strikes her to the earth, and as her soul passes on to the higher life, she opens wide her eyes and murmurs "How beautiful! How glorious!" Miss French recited in her usual engaging manner, and the truth was fastened in many hearts that Jesus is able to save.

Prof. Landers sang with great expression, "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters." He refused to reply to an encore, saying he was not prepared. Miss Randall accompanied the singers in a very agreeable manner.

Refreshments were served by the young ladies of the Y. W. F. M. S. in their own inimitable manner, and so concluded a very enjoyable evening.

Bounty on Scalps.

And now the county clerk and his deputy, as well as the sheriff and his deputy, are offering a bounty on scalps. They are becoming savage and nothing less than the scalps of two men who called upon them this morning will answer the purpose.

It has never been thought necessary to explain that a coyote scalp must be brought minus the remainder of the animal to be eligible to receive a bounty. So this morning two men took advantage of the situation and walked into the clerk's office leading a live coyote and demanded a $2 bounty. Kelsey looked somewhat disconcerted and explained that they could not pay bounties on live animals, while Bolton attempted to lock himself in the safe.

Having been given a tip, the sheriff and his deputy waked in to see the fun, just as cue of the men said "Fork out your bounty or I'll let him loose." at the same time cutting the ropes and giving him his freedom. The two latter visitors were right in the arena and started to play pussy warts a corner, while the clerk and deputy each reached in their pockets for the $2. Apparently taking in the situation and concluding the whole crowd were chicken hearted, the coyote was just preparing to carry away his prey, when the men captured him and concluded they didn't want the bounty. The officers are somewhat quieted this afternoon, but have pasted a sign on the door which will no doubt keep coyotes out in the future.

At the Opera House.

The Edison Waragraph Company under the management of Fleming Bros., who have won the confidence and praise of the public by their excellent exhibitions, will be in The Dalles Nov. 21st at the opera house and with the most wonderful moving picture machine of the age. Will show the most realistic prize fight ever produced; a ten-round fistic contest between McCoy and Sharkey from commencement to finish and knock-out. Also the naval battles in Santiago harbor, the destruction of the Spanish fleet, return of Roosevelt's rough riders, landing horses in Cuba and one hundred others of marvelous accuracy and beauty.

The entire program will be assisted by the Edison Mechanical Opera—the renditions as loud as a brass band and the softness of the human voice. This alone is worth the price of admission. Don't fail to hear this—Edison's latest achievement. You are guaranteed satisfaction. General admission, 35 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents; general admission for children, 25 cents. Seats on sale at Clarke & Falk's.

Circuit Court.

Court proceedings are about at an end for the November term. Saturday afternoon the jury brought in a verdict of guilty in the case of State vs. Joseph Ganteman, charged with uttering a forged check, and Tuesday at 9 o'clock is the time set for passing sentence. This morning Moore & Gavin, attorneys for the defendant, filed a motion for a new trial.
