favor and will be most beneficial to Antelope and the country tributary. Another advantage which is set forth is that the mail received from Mitchell and other places in that section will not lay over at Antelope to be taken over on the branch road to Bakeoven, but be delivered about ten hours earlier. Should the change be made it would necessitate the stage leaving here an hour earlier, or at 5 o'clock, and work a hardship on the postoffice force; but in this, as in everything else, our postmaster is anxious to do everything which is the greatest benefit to the greatest number, and will not complain as to that.

It is said that one-half the pleasure of life is in anticipation, but there is also great satisfaction in retrospection, and reunions are the occasion of much happiness to all. Such the camping reunion which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Thompson last evening proved to be, when the joys of a month spent in camp at Lost Lake, near Mt. Hood, were recalled by the families of A. R. Thompson, B. A. Gifford and J. M. Huntington. At 5 o'clock a dinner was enjoyed which would have appeared even the hunger engendered by the bracing air and health-giving vigor of camp life. There were sixteen seated at the table, and the remainder of the evening was spent most happily by all. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson expect to leave Saturday for Los Angeles, where they will spend a month with his parents.

The house that Jack built isn't in it with the house that Dewey got as far as publicity is concerned, and before the great hero hears the last of that house, he'll wish he'd have chosen the right course in the first place and refused it. Strange that one who is said, never to have made a mistake in the great undertakings of his career should have made such an error in disposing of the gift of the over-zealous people of the United States, and caused them to exclaim, there is none perfect, no not one. Hobson's greatness waned because of his propensity for speculation, and now the first flaw in the present hero of the nation is found when he transfers a gift which carried with it the gratitude of those who could find no other means of expressing their appreciation, to his son, who has rendered no public service and to whom the country owes nothing. And so Dewey, like other poor mortals, makes mistakes occasionally.

The presence of Capt. Ormsby, superintendent of the forest reserve, in our city for the past few days, brings anew to our minds the question of the proposed addition to the Cascade reserve, which comprises T 1 N, and 1, 2, 3, and 4 S., R. 11 E., W. M., and upon the investigation proves to include land not such a great distance from The Dalles. The superintendent has been looking up the names of settlers on the proposed extension and will probably look over the townships. He states that the petition asking for the extension contained about 1000 names, but all were not from Wasco county. It just occurs to us that while a certain amount of interest is being taken, it can hardly be said to be as widespread as the results which would follow such a move; for while all industries will necessarily be effected thereby, the sheepmen seem to be the only ones who are taking part in the effort to prevent it. Is it not time that the matter be thoroughly sifted and every citizen of our county take part one way or the other so as to bring it more fully before the people?

This morning Mrs. C. J. Crandall received a telegram from Mrs. Grover Simpson, of Chicago, announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Beezley, at the home of her daughter in that city, with whom she has made her home since she left The Dalles about six years ago. For many years she was afflicted with cancer of the nose, which, however, caused her little trouble before leaving here. For some months past she has been unconscious, and prior to that time suffered greatly, through all of which she was tenderly cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Alma Simpson. Her death will be regretted in The Dalles, for while having been away from here for some years, there are yet a great many of our people who were intimate friends of Mrs. Beezley, who, with her husband came here in the early 70's, settling first on 15-Mile; but whose family was brought up in this city and occupied a prominent place among the leading families here. Joseph Beezley died about six and a half years ago, and was buried in the Masonic cemetery. The funeral will take place Saturday in Chicago, the remains being interred in a vault there until such a time as they can be removed to this city, to rest by the side of her husband. Mrs. Beezley was 79 years old.

TO PROTECT OUR MERCHANTS.

An Ordinance Passed Last Night Regarding Licensing the Sale of Bankrupt Goods.

At the last regular meeting of the council, the question of licensing parties who come into the city to dispose of bankrupt stocks or to remain a short time for the purpose of closing out stocks of goods was brought up, and wisely too, for, in justice to the merchants here, the matter should be looked into and our substantial business houses protected. At a special session last night, when Councilmen Stephens, Johns, Keller, Gunning, Johnston, Shackelford, Kelly and Wilson were present, Stephens introduced ordinance No. 306, which was adopted by the council and is as follows:

An ordinance entitled an ordinance to provide for licensing the sale of bankrupt stocks, the sale of second hand goods, and closing out sales and to repeal general ordinance No. 295.

Section 1. Any person, person, firm, company, or corporation who shall within the limits of Dalles City, deal in bankrupt or second hand stocks of goods, wares or merchandise, or shall bring any stock of goods, wares or merchandise into Dalles City for the purpose of closing or selling out at reduced prices, or who shall temporarily open any store in Dalles City, for the purpose of closing out any stock of goods, wares or merchandise, or who shall conduct any closing out sale of any goods, wares or merchandise, now in said city or hereafter brought therein, shall pay a monthly license of $50 for the first month and $10 for each month thereafter for a period of six months.

Section 2. Any person desiring to carry on or conduct any business mentioned in Section 1 of this ordinance shall pay for and secure the license therefore in accordance with the provisions of general ordinance No. 272, entitled "An ordinance to improve and regulate licenses upon certain trades and callings and regulating the manner of leasing licenses," which ordinance passed the common council of Dalles City May 4, 1893.

Section 3. Any person or persons, who shall, as owner or agent, or as representative of any person, firm, company or corporation, carry on or conduct any business mentioned in Section 1 of this ordinance, without first obtaining a license therefor as herein provided, shall on conviction thereof before the recorder be punished by a fine of not less than $5 or more than $50, or by imprisonment in the city jail for not less than three or more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 4. That general ordinance No. 295 be and the same is hereby repealed.

Passed the common council of Dalles City, Nov. 22, 1899.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

Millions of dollars, is the value placed by Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., on the life of her child, which she saved from croup by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. It cures all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles.

Turkey shoot.

There will be a turkey and pigeon shoot on the beach Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 29th and 30th, conducted by A. Y. Marsh and Isaac Joles. td-daw

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Last night two carloads of hogs were received at the stock yards and shipped to Troutdale by C. M. Grimes.

All members of Jackson Engine Company are requested to be present at a meeting to be held this evening in the city hall at 7:30.

In mentioning the sale of pastry by the ladies of the Good Intent next week, we should have given the date as Tuesday instead of Wednesday.

This afternoon the outfit belonging to the Central Construction and Transportation Co., consisting of two cars of horses and three cars of tools, camp outfit, wagons, etc., were ferried across the river and will be taken east about ten miles, where camp will be pitched and everything prepared to begin work in a few days.

A Missouri editor, in an account of the wedding of a couple in his town said: "They were married at the home of the bride's parents, where they will remain until the groom gets a job."

We understand that Rev. Jos. De Forest, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, has received a call from a Denver church. We have not learned as to his intentions in the matter, but, his many friends here, in and outside of the parish, trust he will not see fit to accept.

This morning at 11 o'clock Wm. T. Young and Minnie B. Miller were married at the residence of the brides father on Five-mile. Rev. Robt. Warner officiating. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Portland where they will reside in the future. Mr. Young is interested in mining and will study mineralogy and prepare himself to become an assayer.

On October 22d, Ruth Inman, a 2-year-old child, whose parents live in Lincoln county, disappeared from home, and since that time a continuous search has been made for her. A few days ago portions of the body and some of the child's clothing were found three miles from the place where she was last seen.

There can be little doubt that she was devoured by wild beasts.

Interest in bowling is reviving at the club and before many days Dalles bowlers will be rolling 'em as high as ever. The first game in the three-cornered tournament for the pin took place on the alleys last night, and the team composed of Schmidt, Schanno and Houghton were the winners. Our bowlers have a reputation to sustain throughout the state, and they intend to sustain it.

A large number of first-class dancers will soon be added to the list of the devotees to that popular amusement in The Dalles, judging from the number who are receiving instruction in the art from Prof. Sandvig. There are many others who would do well to improve the opportunity offered, for he and his assistant are proving themselves to be the best of instructors. It would also be a good idea for the older dancers to take this means of learning the new dances, as such instructions have long been needed here.

A move is on foot to make a slight change in The Dalles-Princeton stage route, and instead of going by way of Ridgeway to pass directly through Antelope. While this is said to add six miles to the distance now traversed, its projectors claim there is much in it
