MURDER WILL OUT
As Will Also Robbery—Robber of the First National Bank Probably Found.

The old saying that "murder will out" is again verified in an occurrence which happened in Walla Walla and will no doubt bring to light the identity of a man who has been wanted in The Dalles for about nine years. While it has perhaps almost faded from the memory of a number of our citizens, others will remember that in 1890 a Chinaman tunneled his way from the alley between First and Second streets, and gaining admittance to the First National bank robbed it of about $9000. He escaped and for a long time officers were on his track, but as years passed by vigilance ceased.

Similar robberies have been committed recently in different cities, and the Oregonian suggested a few weeks since that it was not unlikely that the same fellow might be abroad plying his old vocation. A few days ago a man in Walla Walla overheard a Chinaman, who gives his name as Tim Chune, talking of the bank robbery here to another man, and he at once suspected him and reported to the officers. Yesterday Sheriff Kelly received a message from there asking if such a fellow was wanted here. D. L. Cates, having been sheriff here at the time, was 'phoned to and gave as accurate a description as he could, mentioning that he had a scar on his neck, which fact was communicated to the Walla Walla officers, who found the identical mark on the man suspected, and he was arrested. Searching him they discovered $200 and a diamond ring which had recently been stolen from a lady there, and other robberies committed will probably be traced to him.

It is not likely, however, that the bank here will attempt to prosecute him after so long a time, as nothing would be gained thereby, and he will no doubt receive full share of justice for the other crimes committed.

No Assessment for December.

A letter from Francis I. McKenna, Supreme Master Artisan, to J. M. Huntington, secretary of The Dalles Assembly, conveys the welcome announcement that there will be no assessment for the month of December. The United Artisans will be a little more than five years old on the first day of January, 1900, and have called but thirty-one assessments in all. Mr. McKenna says: "We are having a solid growth both in numbers and wealth. We have more money on interest than we have paid in losses. We have more than one hundred assemblies in Oregon, and fifteen in the city of Portland."

In perusing various papers throughout the state we note the interest being taken in the work of the Native Daughters and in instituting cabins throughout the state. Mrs. Edith Weathered, who is grand secretary and also state organizer, will be in The Dalles during the early part of next week and would be glad to meet any native daughters who are desirous of having a cabin instituted here and upon her return in the first week in December would complete the work of organization. It would be well for our ladies to consider the matter and join in the efforts made by this order to build up and develop the land of their birth and adoption.

Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Dr. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Hawsen, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came to see her one day, when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight 50c bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her house-work, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure, 25c, 50c and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., and 4s. 6d. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOVER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
