The Charleston is the first vessel lost by our navy since 1894, with the exception of the Maine, whose destruction was a mystery. The record speaks well for the efficiency of officers and men.

General Ludlow says Cuba's greatest needs are a stable government under the protection of the United States and good schools. The first secured, the second will follow as a matter of course.

Arkansas Jones says "the Ohio election speaks volumes for the Democracy." So it does, but Jones does not seem to see what it tells. It warns the Democracy that, as expansion was a winning issue this year, it will be much more effective for the Republicans next year if the Democratic bosses are mad enough to put it into the canvass. The fact that Nash got twice as large a plurality as Bushnell received two years ago means something which Jones evidently misses. The intelligent newspapers of Jones' party, however, are not making any mistake about the returns from Ohio and the other states. They are showing their readers that the drift is steadily against the Democracy, and that the chances are that the Republican majority in the electoral college in 1900 will be much bigger than it was in 1896.

Aguinaldo predicted victory for his friends, the Democrats, in the recent elections, and, of course, he feels as badly about the result as does Bryan or any of the other American Tagals. What Aguinaldo wanted the Democrats to win for was his belief that this would compel the government to withdraw the troops from the Philippines and allow him to murder all the American civilians in the islands, and start a dictatorship, with himself as the dictator. The recent defeat of the "great party" which Aguinaldo prayed for was nothing, however, to the crushing which it will get twelve months hence, but Aguinaldo will be as dead politically before that time as Bryan will be immediately afterward.

Cotton is touching the highest figures reached in a long time, says the Globe-Democrat. The planters, like the rest of the agriculturists, are experiencing the Republican prosperity. Most of the cotton growers doubtless voted against the Republicans in 1896. A large part of them will probably vote the same way in 1900. Yet the Republican party will win just the same, and the prosperity which its victory three years ago brought to the country will be still farther extended by the triumph in 1900. This prosperity, too, will be shared by the Democratic masses just as it will be by the Republicans. The Democrats will get a little better fortune than they deserve, but the Republican party makes no preferences in the distribution of such favors.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well. —ADOLPH L. MILLETT, Manchester, N.H. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Galla. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
