

OWING TO OUR

Enormous Success

We have decided to continue our Sale of

BOYS'

CLOTHING

AT

1/2

PRICE

To the end of the month.

Our piles of Clothing must be reduced.

All Goods Marked In Plain Figures

PEASE & MAYS.

THANKSGIVING WEEK SPECIAL.

Feast your eyes as well as your stomachs. A perfect zone of beauty. This you will see in our store this week.

SILKS SILKS

A simple piece of dainty silk, A modest bunch of human grace. Combine the two with expert hands Will make the lady of the land. —"Kidling."

For this week we have on sale every piece of silk in our establishment at prices that will justify you in looking at our beautiful line. It is complete in every detail and warrants us in making the assertion that it surpasses anything ever shown in The Dalles.

Ladies' Handkerchiefs.

Ladies' pure linen, hemstitched and scalloped, hand drawn work, reversed block, hemstitched and embroidered handkerchiefs; worth from 4 1/2c up to $4.50 each Neckwear.

We have just opened a choice line of the very latest styles in ladies' fashionable and popular-priced Neckwear

Shopping Bags.

A magnificent new line of novelties in ladies' leather and silk shopping bags, ranging in price from 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75

Petticoats.

Nearsilk Petticoats in all colors; umbrella flounce, fluted, two small ruffles, strapped seams; from 98c to $4.50 each

Silk Petticoats, assorted styles and colors, ranging in price from $5.00 up

See Show Window.

Grace Kimsey, 50 cents; Charles Reese, 25 cents; Miss Brogan, $1. The Wamic school contributed 45 cents. Miss Hester Kent, of this city, closed her first term of school November 24th in district No. 25, at Dutch Flat.

A chiropractor by the name of McPherson, who was doing the city yesterday, got mixed up with the wrong kind of foot and got hold of tanglefoot instead of "corns, bunions and ingrown toenails." Phirman ran across him and when he attempted to take him he didn't use a razor, but struck the officer with a valise. He lodged in the jail and today was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly, in default of which he languisheth and will no doubt work on feet of earth for a few days.

Pease & Mays' force certainly has not one artist, but many among its number from the appearance of the show windows at present. Taken as a whole, the most beautiful display of goods we have yet seen is that which now is contained therein. Even the articles which in themselves alone have no particular beauty, are so arranged as to produce a handsome effect. From the plain white shirts and cuffs and collars in the clothing department to the most beautiful silks of the dry goods department, all are gracefully draped and festooned so as to attract the eye. They surely have some professional window dressers among their clerks.

There is a shortage of bacon and lard all over Eastern Oregon. Why this should be there is no explanation, save the sloth and want of enterprise and industry on the part of Oregon farmers. Oregon can never expect to be permanently prosperous so long as it is continually sending out of the country large sums of money for bacon and lard and butter and other such food products, all of which should be produced at home. To depend altogether upon one crop, and that crop wheat, means constant uncertainty, with ever recurring periods of prosperity and depression, with plenty one year and a hard month existence another.—W. W. Statesman.

Still another young man well known in The Dalles will be numbered with the "great majority" tomorrow in Portland, when Mr. A. L. Mackintosh, of Prineville, takes as his bride Miss Cowles, of Portland. Gus Bonn left the city this morning to act as best man at the ceremony. While not acquainted with the bride, the friends of the groom in The Dalles extend their congratulations, feeling that a young man of such sterling worth as Mr. Mackintosh would not fail to choose a wife fitted to be his companion. The newly married couple will visit the old home of the groom in Scotland before returning to their future home near Prineville. They have the good wishes of many Dalles people.

Mrs. Edyth Wetherred, state organizer of the order of Native Daughters, will arrive in the city this evening and desires to meet every native daughter in the city over 18 years of age at the Umatilla House parlor tonight at 7:30 o'clock. While she does not desire to organize a cabin tonight, she will be pleased to meet the ladies and discuss the advisability of such a move upon her return from Huntington and other places in Eastern Oregon. The lady is a particular friend of the CHRONICLE reporter, and we assure the ladies they will be repaid in meeting Mrs. Wetherred though they may not see fit to take part in the work of the Native Daughters. We believe the native sons are also invited to be present.

Max Vogt, Jr., and Alfred Huot, who were passengers on the wrecked train Sunday night, are positive in the assertion that one wreck is more than any human being cares to be in or to view. When the accident happened at 9:15, although the passenger cars were not derailed they were jerked by the momentum about three car lengths and thrown from their seats. Rushing from the car they beheld an awful sight—the engine and cars thrown over the bank almost into the river and mashed all to pieces, while in the debris were human beings, they knew not how many. Work of rescue was difficult and Miller was first taken out, but was dead. At about 1 o'clock the injured brakeman, W. F. Herzinger, who had been to Portland and was on his way to his home at La Grande, was released badly injured, and 'tis said he died last night at the hospital in Portland. Poor Hunter was the last to be removed about 2 o'clock. His groans were continually heard during the work of rescue and when taken out he was hardly recognizable, having also been badly burned about the face. He died a very short time afterward, and from all indications died at his post. He was secretary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, having taken Ready's place, who died in a like manner. The passengers were taken down to Troutdale about 1 o'clock and brought back at 11 yesterday, where they remained until they could be brought on, arriving at 5 o'clock last evening.

PEOPLE YOU ALL KNOW.

W. R. Winans is up from Hood River. G. E. Thompson, of Grass Valley, is in the city.

A. H. Stark, one of the prominent men at Columbus, is in The Dalles on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bolton were passengers this morning for Portland on a short visit.

H. Clay Myers returned home last night after a six months' stay at his mines near Sumpter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McCune left on this afternoon's train to attend the funeral of Robert Hunter tomorrow in Portland.

Mrs. H. E. Warren will leave tonight for her home in Heppner, after a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler returned last night on the Regulator from Portland, where they went to attend the wedding of Miss Nellie Butler and Dr. Niskern.

Mrs. D. D. Clark, sister of J. M. and B. S. Huntington, accompanied by her two sons, arrived in the city yesterday from Portland and will spend Thanksgiving with them.

J. W. Moore and little son came in yesterday from Nansene and were visitors at this office last evening. Mr. Moore brought in a large drove of hogs, which he sold to C. M. Grimes.

P. D. S. Olney, president of the board of fire underwriters, is up from Portland on business connected with the new chemical engine and fire alarm system about to be put in in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickson are in town today from their home at Enderby. Like the rest of the farmers, Mr. Dickson is rejoicing over the splendid rains we are having. They have been subscribers of THE CHRONICLE since its first issue and gave us a pleasant call.

M. B. Potter, one of the oldest residents of Hood River valley, is in town today and called to pay his subscription to the CHRONICLE. Mr. Potter is in very poor health and in a short time he and Mrs. Potter will leave to spend the winter in California.

Closing of Five-Mile School.

The closing exercises of school district No. 13, (Miss Rowe, teacher) on Five-Mile creek near Mr. Benson's place, was held Saturday evening, Nov. 25. In spite of the inconvenience of traveling, a large and attentive audience was in attendance, many coming from quite a distance.

The program was very interesting and entertaining. While quite impossible to make particular mention of the speakers, dramatic ability and grace marked the efforts of the pupils, and others taking part, whose efforts were greeted with bountiful applause. All went to show the careful training the pupils had received from their teacher, and too much praise cannot be given to Miss Rowe for the pains she has taken with her pupils.

After the close of the exercises a good cause was helped. The means for having a school library were raised by auctioneering lunch baskets. Bids went high by the good natured audience, and there was much amusement on opening the baskets to see who their partners were to be in eating an excellent repast. Twenty-five dollars was realized from the sale, and with ten dollars received from the district, a good start is made for a library.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

Smoke to Your Own Profit.

As well as ours. 'Tis not how much you smoke, but how you enjoy it. Try our Mascot—ten cents—a real product that beats the world. Ben Ullrich.

THE GENUINE Wilson Air-Tight Heater OUTSIDE DRAFT LIKE THIS:

There are other AIR-TIGHTS, but none that equal the WILSON.

...SOLD ONLY BY...

MAYS & CROWE, Sole Agents.

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

Telephone No. 1.

TUESDAY - - - NOV. 28, 1899

Oysters

Served in every style by A. KELLER.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Students who use tobacco will not be admitted to the Tacoma academy after January 1.

Tomorrow night is the date of the firemen's ball. Arrange to go and enjoy yourself.

A few choice chrysanthemums for sale tomorrow (Wednesday) at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

There will be a called business meeting of the Epworth League tonight at the close of class meeting in the Methodist church.

It is an assured fact that there will be a large crowd at the ball tomorrow night at the Baldwin. Everyone is anxious to help the fire boys out and all are bent on having a good time. In mentioning the dance in a previous article we said Birgfeld's orchestra would furnish music instead of Bettingen's. The latter has been engaged for the occasion.

Some one reported yesterday that they are having a dust famine in Sherman county. What about Wasco county, with 1.32 inches of rain in The Dalles from Saturday night until this morning?

The young ladies; in fact, all who are to take part in the Jubilee carnival, are requested to be at the Vogt opera house Friday evening for rehearsal. It has been decided to give the carnival on the night of the 11th at the Vogt.

Engineer Brown has moved the East End cart and hose down to the engine house and is busily engaged in drying it out and otherwise refitting it. The old racing cart has been taken to the East End house in case of its being needed.

There is talk among the property owners along Tenth street regarding the grading of the street from the High school to Wakefield's property, near the old fair ground. This would be all right, for while it is the best road in the city, the west end of it might be improved by grading the part mentioned.

Yesterday afternoon while at James Simonson's place on 3-Mile, John Parrott suffered a painful accident. He slipped and fell full weight on the right hand, splitting open a wound between the thumb and first finger, which had been sewed up some years since. The cut is a 'bad one and had to be re-sewed, so that he will not be able to use it for some time.

A telegram was received by G. T. Parr this morning announcing the death of D. V. B. Henzie, president and second largest stockholder in the Eastern Oregon Land Company. He was an elderly gentleman and had been ailing for some time at his home in San Francisco. He died this morning. His loss will be keenly felt by every branch of the company wherever found.

Word received this morning from Portland stated that the funeral of Robert Hunter and L. D. Miller will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All employees of the company who may desire transportation to Portland to attend the obsequies have been provided for, also their wives. No doubt many from this city will be present, at least as many as can be well spared.

Miss Katherine Brogan closed a successful term of school in Lower Antelope district November 24th, and mailed to the county superintendent contributions to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society as follows: T. Brogan's children, $1.50;