A JUST DECISION.

The Kentucky courts have saved the reputation of that state, and proven themselves to be in fact what a court is in theory—a temple of justice. The supreme court of the state, affirming a lower court, has decided in Taylor's favor as to a large number of votes manifestly cast for him, but which the Goebel machine attempted to throw out because there had been a mistake—probably one "done a-purpose"—in the initial letter of Taylor's middle name. The Kentucky judges are presumably Democrats in politics, but on the bench they are judges, not partisans; and looking solely to the merits and justice of the case, they promptly rendered a just decision. With these votes counted in Taylor's favor, his election is so clearly manifest that it is improbable that even the Democratic legislature will attempt to count him out, especially as a good-sized minority of the Democratic members have no love for Goebel and his methods.—Telegram.

In the fiscal year covered by the report of Quartermaster-General Ludington, the thirty-seven vessels of the United States transport fleet plying between the ports of the United States and those of Cuba, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines, have transferred 202,587 persons without the loss of a single life by accident, says the Oregonian. These vessels have also carried between these ports 27,353 animals and 86,150 tons of freight. In addition to this, the bodies of over 1200 soldiers and civilians who died in the government service in these diverse and far-distant islands were returned to the United States for burial. When it is considered that this transport service sprung up, as it were, in a night, and was pushed in the face of great obstacles, including lack of wharves and landing facilities, and in the presence in many instances of hostile natives and armed Spaniards, the record may well stand for one of enormous energy and effectiveness.

The Umatilla county wheat growers are in about the same frame of mind as the Willamette valley hop growers. Some of them have held onto their wheat, hoping something would happen to make a better market. But ocean freight rates rule high, and the indications are that there will be no change in this regard. It costs so much to get the wheat to market that the allowance to the producers is lowered below the point of profit. Too much wheat. Too much hops. Too high freights. Too much short selling.—Statesman.

The waiting country will welcome this, the latest reliable news from

Colonel Bryan, from the columns of the New York Sun: "Col. Bryan has been having high sport and joy in Col. Wetmore's Taney county game preserve. Col. Mose brought a chef from St. Louis so that the great foe of plutocracy might be nourished suitably, and the Jefferson of Nebraska did wondrous execution among squirrels, quails and the small game, but he doesn't have much luck when he goes forth to bag the leviathan of imperialism and the octopus of monopoly."

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed. 3

Used by British Soldiers in Africa. Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Galishe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
