BREAKING FROM BRYANISM.

Idaho's secretary of state, M. Patrie, who is one of the silver section of the Republican party which seceded at the St. Louis Republican Convention of 1896 and went over to Bryan, says the time has come for all his element to return to the Republican party. Ex-Attorney General G. M. Parsons, another Idaho silver Republican leader, takes the same view. "The conditions that caused us to leave the Republican party no longer prevail," he declares. "Prosperity is strongly in evidence throughout the nation. The cry of silver has lost its force and power to rally men under strange political banners."

This talk is significant. The men who are taking this view live in the silver mining region. Naturally they would be expected to cling to the silver idea with more tenacity than would those who reside outside of the mining quarter. When they begin to abandon the free coinage propaganda and come back to the Republican party, as they are doing in large numbers throughout the entire mining locality, it is plain that the Republican party will have a large number of votes in 1900 that were cast against it in 1896. The Salt Lake Tribune, one of the ablest and most conspicuous of the silver Republican papers of the country, foretold more than a year ago the return of its element to the Republican party. The movement is now under way, and will grow in volume as the time for the election approaches.

It was made plain by the elections of the past year or two that the drift of the silver Republicans back to their old party had begun. This is the reason why Washington, Wyoming, Kansas and South Dakota, which went to the Democrats in 1896, have come back to the Republican side in the canvasses of 1898 or 1899. Colorado and the rest of the Western states which went to Bryan on the silver issue in 1896 will do this ultimately. There is a chance that several of them which have not yet left the Bryanite side will do this next year. Senator Teller himself, the leader of the seceders, is likely to be back in the Republican party in 1900 or 1901. The Teller faction of the Bryanite coalition were the one ingredient which gave that aggregation respectability. But Teller and his followers can no longer remain in this fellowship. They are Republicans on protection, expansion and all other issues except silver, and, as silver is being dodged now by the Democratic leaders, and would be abandoned altogether were it not for the fear that this would repel Populist and silver Republican support, the latter element can no longer be held in line with its yoke-fellows of three years ago. That was an unholy alliance, and was bound to fall to pieces quickly. It is clear that the Democratic vote will be much smaller in 1900 and the Republican vote larger than each was in 1896.—Globe-Democrat.

This is the only encyclopædia on the market that mentions Admiral Dewey. It gives the date of his birth; how he spent his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 27th he left Hong Kong with his squadron, found and destroyed the Spanish Fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Admiral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Admiral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey.
