REBUKED BY ORGANIZED LABOR

The Boise Typographical union has done a very sensible and very meritorious thing in refusing to remove from its roll of honorary membership the name of Gov. Steunenberg. Prior to his election as governor Mr. Steunenberg was a wage-earner and a union man, being a member of the Boise Typographical union. By association, practice and interest, his sympathies were therefore with law-abiding organized labor; but his oath of office, his duty to the state of Idaho, and his sense of right and justice forbade any catering to or weakness with the lawless band of Molly Maguires who were terrorizing the Cour d'Alenes, murdering inoffensive citizens, blowing up mills and concentrators and committing countless other atrocities under cover of masks. These murderous organizations had no more right to fly the flag of law-respecting labor unionism than a pirate ship would have to fly the flag of the United States, and when brought to account for their crimes were entitled to no more consideration from law-abiding workmen than a pirate crew to the protection of the flag they had falsely flaunted.

The Boise union, after making a thorough investigation through a committee, has adopted resolutions which are a stinging rebuke to Boyce and his lawless followers in the Cour d'Alenes. It says:

"Resolved, That Boise City Typographical union, No. 271, has made such investigations as satisfy it that the said action of Governor Steunenberg was necessary to secure the protection of life and property and to the maintenance of peace in the Cour d'Alenes, and for the punishment of those responsible for murder and the destruction of property in the said Cour d'Alene section. Therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Boise City Typographical union, No. 271, declines to remove the name of Governor Steunenberg from its roll of membership."

To this conviction will come any law-abiding labor union which will search out the facts and compare them with Boyce's false statements.

Postmaster General Smith complains of the second-class mail matter service. The government is carrying at second-class rates tons upon tons of matter which should pay third-class rates. As a result the department has to report a deficit every year. The increase in second-class has been such that the government has practically assumed the functions of an express company in addition to those of a mail carrier.

The Evening Telegram says: Tomorrow the regular comments will begin. All the Republican organs will say in substance: "The president's message is one of the ablest and most comprehensive state papers ever presented to congress," etc., etc. The Democratic and Populistic papers will all run it down as weak, washy, verbose, and no good. And all of them will express these opinions without having read it.
