A JONES WHO HAS SENSE.

Arkansas has one conspicuous Jones who has placed himself in touch with the times, says the Salem Statesman. This is not James K. that state's senior senator, but is Dan W., its governor. Gov. Jones says he has been "investigating the expansion question," which means, of course, that he has become an expansionist. "I consider the acquisition of the Philippine islands," he remarks, "to be most unfortunate, for the reason that it furnishes us a permanent foothold near the Asiatic coast, which will protect our commerce with Asia."

This is the view which almost any sane person will take who has studied the question. Senator Jones would talk just like Gov. Jones if he knew as much about the expansion issue. The question does not require much study, either, to be mastered. A few hours' intelligent investigation of the matter would show almost anybody that the policy which the country, under the guidance of the McKinley administration and the Republican party, has started out upon will increase the nation's power and credit, expand its commerce, give employment to a larger number of people, and add to the wealth, prosperity and happiness of its inhabitants.

At the outset Gov. Jones was a contractionist. He took the same position on the question of territorial accession that the other Jones and Bryan hold. He doubtless believed, as they do, that the country already had enough territory, and that a further expansion would make it land poor. But he has recently, as he says, and as reported by an Eastern exchange, been "investigating the expansion question," and this has brought the change in his views.

Not far from half of the Southern Democrats of ability have in the past ten or twelve months come over to the expansion side. This does not mean that they will join the Republican party. Senators Morgan, Tillman, Caffery, Sullivan and the many other Southern statesmen who are on the Republican side on this big issue are not likely to vote the Republican ticket in 1900, but they represent an element of dissent from the bourbonism of Bryan, Senator Jones and the other anti-divisions which will make trouble for the Democracy next year when that party, in its national convention, demands that the flag shall be pulled in Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines.

Col. Bryan has a bouncing rubber temperament that is really beautiful. The New York Sun reports him in Texas, predicting that "with a continuation of such an increase on our side for the next twelve months, it will not be a question of whether or not the Democrats can win, but how large the majority will be." Thus hope springs eternal in the colonel. Two years from now he will be carrying the elections of 1904 with the same mental ease. The colonel's hopefulness must be a little discouraging to those Democrats who are looking to the elections of next year for a final discharge from Bryan and Bryanism.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mother. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Experience is the best Teacher. Use Acker's English Remedy in any case of coughs, cold or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded, 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Mrs. R. Churchill, Berlin, Vt., says, "Our baby was covered with running sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." A specific for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits.

Admiral George Dewey

will receive the most royal welcome on Oct. 1st next, that was ever accorded to an American citizen.

You will find a complete biography of this great hero, including his brilliant victory over the Spanish fleet in the great, authoritative and up-to-date work of reference, the

New Werner Edition of the Encyclopædia Britannica

This is the only encyclopedia on the market that mentions Admiral Dewey. It gives the date of his birth; how he spent his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 27th he left Hong Kong with his squadron, found and destroyed the Spanish fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Admiral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Admiral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and a huntman, and socially a good club man and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey.

Governor Theodore Roosevelt
Admiral Schley
Admiral Sampson
Capt. Clark of the Oregon and scores of other noted personages not even mentioned in any other Encyclopedia receive the same attention in this edition of the

Encyclopædia Britannica

It speaks of General Wood as Governor of Santiago; of General Henry as Governor-General of Porto Rico; of Aguinaldo's declaration of War against the U. S.
