WHIPPED BULLER AT TUGELA RIVER

Their Victory on the Modder Grows Greater.

ATTEMPTED TO CROSS THE RIVER

Methuen Has Added Over One Hundred to Casualties of Monday's Battle: Boer Reports Say That It Was a Sad and Terrible Slaughter.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The war office has received a dispatch announcing that General Buller has met with a serious reverse, losing eleven guns. General Buller was attempting to cross the Tugela river. Finding it impossible to effect his object, he ordered a retirement in order to avoid greater losses. He left eleven guns behind. The losses in General Buller's brigade were very heavy. The Fourteenth and Sixty-ninth field batteries also suffered severe losses. Buller has retired to the camp at Cneveloy.

PRETORIA, Wednesday.—Advices from Mafeking say an attack on a small British fort has been made with good results. The fort was demolished. Heavy cannon firing is proceeding. Colonel Baden-Powell has sent the Boers a notice, advising them to lay down their arms and return to their homes, promising protection as soon as Great Britain has taken over the Transvaal.

PRETORIA, Friday.—An official dispatch from Modder river says: The Boers captured a great quantity of loot, including 200 Lee Metfords, cases of cartridges, and hundreds of bayonets. Great numbers of the British forces have retired in the direction of Belmont. The loss of the British was very great. There were heaps of dead on the field. The wounded are being attended to temporarily at Bissel's farm. The Sappers and Miners must have suffered severely. The Boers suffered heavy losses in horses and I cannot otherwise describe the battlefield than a sad terrible slaughter. Monday was for us a brilliant victory. It has infused new spirit in our men and will enable them to achieve greater deeds.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—A revised list of British casualties at the battle of Magersfontein shows the total to be 963, of which number seventy were officers. The Black Watch were the heaviest sufferers. Of the rank and file, 42 were killed, 182 wounded and 111 are missing.

Stock Wintering Well.

BAKER CITY, Or., Dec. 16.—It is stated by stockraisers, who are in this city today, from various parts of Baker county, that cattle, sheep and other stock are wintering well, all agreeing on the statement that there is plenty of hay for feeding throughout the winter, even if it should be an unusually long and severe one. Thousands of head of stock are being fed, and a leading Upper Burnt river stockraiser says that over 10,000 head of cattle have been taken off the ranges and are in winter quarters in his section.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

In the Jury's Hands.

PORTLAND, Dec. 16.—The trial of Frank E. McDaniel, for the murder of Claire Adelaide Fitch, was finished tonight and at 11 o'clock the case was given to the jury.

Each side occupied four hours in the argument today, and Judge George delivered an exhaustive charge to the jury. At midnight the jury was locked up and instructions given the foreman to seal the verdict if the jury should agree before morning.

Claire Fitch, a girl of 19, was murdered by strangulation in Cycle Park, on the night of July 19th, last, and her sweetheart, Frank McDaniel, a young truck driver, about 19 years of age, was arrested the next night and charged with the crime.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and painful me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton."

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—THOMAS C. BOWEN, Glencoe, O.
