THE HEARING IS CLOSED

Final Arguments in The Roberts Investigation.

DENOUNCED CRUSADE AGAINST HIM

Taking of Testimony Begun in the Case of Senator Clark, of Montana.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—When the Roberts committee resumed its session today, Roberts went on with his argument, begun yesterday. He reviewed the action of the constitutional convention of Utah, urging that this carried out the requirements of congress for the admission of Utah as a state, namely, that polygamous marriages should no longer be contracted. In particular, Roberts contended there was no requirement by congress or in the constitutional convention that previously contracted matrimonial associations should be interrupted.

In the course of his argument, Roberts said he had observed that the ladies involved in this question of plural wives were quite generally received in the circles of Gentle ladies of Utah. He vehemently denounced what he characterized as the sensational crusade made against him, and also the effort to arouse public feeling by saying the American home "was in danger." "If necessary," he exclaimed, "I could call attention to ten thousand evils which threaten the country without going to the state of Utah."

In closing, Roberts said that the patriotism of the Mormon church toward the country could not be questioned. When a fund was raised for the survivors of the battle-ship Maine, the Mormon church had contributed one fifth of the entire amount. When the country's authority in the Philippines was questioned, "Utah's guns, handled by Utah men, had been in the fore-front of the fray."

Schroeder, the Gentle representative, stated that no further point would be made on Roberts' naturalization papers, as it was desired to exclude him from congress specifically and solely on the ground of his being a polygamist. After the arguments closed, members of the committee attached some importance to the question asked by Chairman Taylor, of Roberts, relative to the latter being amendable while in the District of Columbia to the Edmunds act. It is understood special attention may be given by the committee to this feature.

At 12:30, the arguments on both sides were closed, and the committee went into executive session. At the executive session it was decided to close the hearing and the testimony, unless ex-Secretary Carlisle decided to be heard further. The committee then adjourned until 10 a. m., next Wednesday. There was no vote or other action on the final disposition of the case.

AGREED ON A JUDGE

Oregon Delegation Indorses W. C. Hale for Alaska District.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Members of the Oregon delegation today united in unanimously recommending the appointment of Judge W. C. Hale, of Eugene, Or., as district judge of Alaska, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Johnson. Judge Hale was once judge of the first district of Oregon, and has strong indorsements from the circuit judges of the state, as well as the judges of the supreme court, and from prominent Republicans. He was a candidate for the office at the time Johnson was appointed, and was then supported by the delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. Although at present this judgeship pays but $3000, there are very good indications that the salary will be increased to at least $5000.

Moreover, should Judge Hale fail to secure this appointment, he will stand a very good chance of securing one of the new judgeships, as it is almost certain that at least one, and perhaps three, new districts will be created in Alaska by the present congress. Senator McBride thinks it is very likely that the territory may be divided into four districts, as this number is really essential to an efficient judicial system, and is recommended by Governor Brady. With the Oregon delegation a unite for Hale, his chances of success in one of these offices are very bright.

Big Chinook Salmon Wanted.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 6.—S. Schmidt & Co., the cold-storage handlers of salmon in this city, have received a novel order from London, England. The firm of Anderson & Colman, one of the largest dealers in food products of that city, wants a Royal Chinook salmon, weighing eighty pounds or more, frozen in a cake of ice, just as it comes from the water. The purpose is to exhibit the fish at their place of business, and attract attention to it, so that the merits of the Columbia river salmon may be practically demonstrated. The cold-storage firm will freeze and ship the first large salmon that they get possession of.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to the disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Suicide of a Newspaper Man.

St. PAUL, Jan. 6.—A man, believed to be Charles Sutton, editor of the Logansport, Ind., Daily Reporter, committed suicide tonight by shooting himself in the head. He was en route home from a trip to the Pacific coast. No reason is known for the suicide.

Went Out of His Way.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Senator Hoar is being quite severely criticised on account of his speech in favor of the seating of Senator Quay. Those who are opposed to Quay, and especially a large number of senators, think the Massachusetts man went outside his position as a senator in declaring himself, and that it was unwarranted to make a statement and partial argument in favor of seating Quay before the case actually came before the senate. The excuse which he made to get his remarks before the people is said to be altogether too lame, as petitions upon one side or the other have been pouring in upon senators ever since Quay was appointed.

Railroad Name Changed.

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 6.—General W. D. Washburn, president of the Bismarck, Washburn & Fort Buford Railroad Company, has filed with the secretary of state notice of a change of name to the Bismarck, Washburn & Great Falls railroad, the intention being to make the line more extensive than at first expected, and to build to Great Falls, Mont., through the Judith basin.

General Buller's telegram caused many later calls at the war office in expectation of the receipt of additional news. The officials stated at midnight, however, that nothing further would be issued during the night.
