WOLSELEY'S BAD JUDGMENT.

"What is being forced on the war office," says the London correspondent of the Associated Press, "is that 100 colonials, accustomed to bushwhacking, cow punching and scouting, are worth 1000 English clerks and farmers."

More than any other man, Lord Wolseley, commander-in-chief of the British army, is responsible for the ill advised contempt in which the English army, the English people and the London war office have held the Boer soldiers and the colonial militia. It was Lord Wolseley who penned these snobbish words for publication:

"Military students in Europe do not pay much attention to the battles of the American war because battles conducted by undisciplined and hastily raised soldiers have no interest for the military student of nations with great regular armies highly trained to the service and art of war."

Wolseley has been sifting that idea into the British mind for more than a decade, but his false teaching is vanishing at express rate since the campaign opened in South Africa. "Battles conducted by undisciplined and hastily raised soldiers" have taken on profound interest "for the military student of nations with great regular armies highly trained to the service and art of war."

It appears, from the same correspondent's report of the situation in England, that two rival factions have sprung up in the British army. On one side are Wolseley, Buller and their admirers; on the other are Roberts, Kitchener and their friends. Wolseley and Buller are in bad repute with the country, and the war office has sent Roberts and Kitchener to South Africa to undo the evil wrought by Wolseley's stupid contempt for the Boer soldiers.

EXPANSION IN THE SOUTH.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph—by the way, an excellent journal—makes a summary of the attitude of the leading Southern newspapers touching expansion, and concludes as follows:

As to the Telegraph, although we favor making Cuba independent according to promise (unless a majority of the people freely vote for annexation), and, although we believe that the question of the retention of the Philippines should be left for decision until the people are heard from in the elections next fall, our sympathies are strongly enlisted in behalf of every honorable means whereby trade expansion for the South and the whole country can be secured. And we think that this sentiment is now shared by a large majority of Southern people. The prospect of large gains for this section through the increased export of our manufactures and otherwise is engaging the minds of all classes. The commercial and progressive South is fascinated with the vision of empire to come through an isthmian canal and Asiatic trade.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. 5

Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c and $1. DR. GUNN'S IMPROVED LIVER PILLS
ONE FOR A DOSE.
Remove Bile, Prevent Biliousness, Purify the Blood, Cure Headache and Dyspepsia. A movement of the bowels each day is necessary for health. They neither grip nor sicken. 10c per bottle. They are sold by druggists, or full box for 50c, sent by druggists. DR. GUNN'S CO. Phila. Pa.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c size. Ely Brothers, 59 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
