You see a Man losing his pocketbook

you feel justified in telling him about it, even if you haven't been introduced. We possibly don't know you personally, but we do know you are losing money in buying your clothing, at any rate you are not making all the money you could which is just the same thing. The way to make all the money there is in that line, is to buy your clothing of us.

All Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

We have been offering you black and colored dress goods remnants for the past week and perhaps all of you have bought, but still we have a few left, and in conjunction with those remnants that we have on hand, we will offer you a choice lot of

at a much lower price than you ever purchased anything to compare with them before in your life. This is a broad assertion to make and a hazardous thing to do when you know full well how fabrics of all kinds have advanced in the past couple of months, and yet they have not reached the elevation they will eventually attain.

THE KEY TO THE SITUATION.

A Call Made for Postoffice Keys and Receipts.

The postoffice department has directed a general redemption of all outstanding keys for postoffice boxes at The Dalles office. You will please to present all keys held by you, together with the receipt issued to you for the key deposit, to me within thirty days from the date of this notice. Boxes will be closed against all key holders who fail to comply with this call.

H. H. RIDDELL, P. M.

Such was the notice found today in all boxes at the office, surprising those who received them and calling down upon the head of the guileless postmaster a storm of indignation from those who fail to realize that he is only executing orders and that the key business will fall so heavy on his shoulders that it would drive a weaker nature to take refuge in whis-key, and eventually resort to the Key-ley cure. Yet this is but a single example of the red tape measures employed by the department. The postmaster deeply regrets the fact that such an order has been issued, and would gladly overcome it if possible; but a perusal of the following, received some days since, will give his orders regarding the same:

"SIR—You are hereby instructed to call upon all key holders at your postoffice to present their keys and key deposit receipts to you for examination. You will close boxes against all key holders who fail to comply with this call for keys within thirty days from the date thereof. At the expiration of that time you will carefully prepare a record of each key by its distinguishing number, the name of the holder thereof, and the amount deposited therefor. You will return keys and give receipts for deposits to all who are found to be entitled thereto. You are not permitted to return a deposit for any key nor to allow credit therefor until the identical key for which it was paid to the postmaster and the identical receipt issued therefor by the postmaster, are both returned. You will declare all deposits not represented by keys forfeited, and transfer the amount thereof from the redemption fund to the forfeiture fund.

Respectfully,

PERRY S. HEATH,
First Asst. Postmaster General.

The idea is to establish a key record. But as the law has never been enforced here, it is safe to say that out of the 1000 keys outstanding, not fifty receipts therefor will be found and the owners will be compelled to pay twenty cents a piece for keys or forfeit their boxes.

While all will feel the injustice of compelling them to pay double for the keys; yet the only alternative seems to be to accede to the request (or command) and thus cause as little difficulty as possible.

At The Congregational Church.

The attention of the members of this church and congregation is called to the announcement of the annual business meeting of the church to be held in the auditorium of the church tomorrow evening. All who worship with this church are invited to be present. The business session will be called at 8 o'clock sharp by Deacon S. L. Brooks. A short musical program will be rendered at the close of the business session, after which the ladies will serve a lunch in the lecture room of the church.

Cash in Your Checks.

All county warrants registered prior to April 1, 1896, will be paid at my office. Interest ceases after Jan. 31st, 1900.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

License to wed was today granted to Z. Kelly, of Chicago, and Mrs. Isabelle Reed, of this county.

Yesterday Dawson & Co. disposed of their stock of groceries to Pease & Mays and closed their store doors on Washington street.

The members of Columbia Dancing Club have decided to give their next party on Thursday evening of this week, the hall being occupied on Friday evening for the lecture.

A. T. Flinders and N. C. Jorgensen, of the Latter Day Saints, announce that they will hold services in the K. of P. hall next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. No collection will be taken.

While the ladies are not to have the privilege of witnessing the bowling contest Thursday night, they will be given an opportunity to assist in the entertainment of the guests at the club dance following the game.

Workmen began refitting Max Vogt's building, on the corner of Third and Washington street, this morning, and on the 1st of March H. Glenn will commence business there, putting in a full stock of paints, oils, glass, doors, windows, etc.

It is seldom that Dalles people are privileged to hear so good a speaker as Dr. Geo. F. Hall, of Decatur, Illinois, who will be heard at the Baldwin Friday evening, taking a subject in which all are interested, "Happy Homes and How to Make Them."

This morning the case of the State vs. Larry Maloney, charged with assault and battery against Tim Healey, came up in Justice Bayard's court, Dist. Atty. Jayne appearing for the state and Judge Wilson and Judge Gates for the defense. The defendant entered a plea of guilty and was fined $10.

Tygh Valley is the next on the list of districts where smallpox has made its appearance, a report reaching here today that a genuine case of smallpox has developed there. The residents are much exercised over the fact, and vaccine virus is in demand. Still the disease comes nearer to The Dalles.

J. C. Johnston came in this morning from Dufur. He seems to have recovered from the effects of a mistake which he made a week ago yesterday in taking 7 1/2 grains of corrosive sublimate instead of a quinine tablet which he went behind the prescription case at the drug store to help himself to. It came near causing his death; but taught him a lesson, and in the future he will take his medicine according to a doctor's prescription.

Rev. Frank Spaulding is in the city and will speak at the Methodist church tonight. Mr. Spaulding has many friends in The Dalles who will be pleased with an opportunity to listen to him. The meetings continue to be well attended by interested audiences, the singing being a great feature of their success.

Roy Williamson, one of the men held as a witness against John Carey and Frank Quinlan, who were bound over for holding up Williamson and another man a week ago, furnished $100 bail and was released from the county jail. His brother, who lives in Baker City, being advised of the circumstances, furnished the money.

Those who saw G. M. Cornet, the Prineville stage driver, come in last evening came to the conclusion that there had been a transformation scene on the road, in which the stage came out second best; which was the case. Near Nansen the stage broke down, spilling out the occupants and the mail bags, but injuring no one. Calling on a near neighbor, Mr. Cornet secured a rig and succeeded in getting into town, though somewhat late.

Is the report confirmed that The Dalles is about to take up the matter of bridging the Columbia and having this city made the terminus of the portage road? If not it should be. If Dalles people let this opportunity for benefiting the city pass, then do they deserve to be passed by on every occasion. Surely we cannot afford to overlook such an opportunity for the upbuilding of our city. If 'tis to be done, then 'twere better 'twere attended to quickly and not end in reports.

Chaplain Gilbert's last visit to the city assured him a good audience last night and a very attentive one it proved. None could listen to a recital of experiences in the Philippines as given by him, and not be highly entertained. His manner at first attracts and in conjunction with his happy choice of subjects which are most interesting to his listeners, holds his audiences during his entire lecture, and makes them feel enlightened and thoroughly pleased.

The many friends of Friendship lodge No. 9, K. of P., who enjoyed their hospitality last night at their hall, were particularly fortunate, so happily had the evening's entertainment been arranged. The hours were mostly devoted to dancing, the Bettingen orchestra, accompanied by Miss Sampson on the piano, furnishing the music. Interpersed with the dancing was a short musical program consisting of a solo by Miss Cushing, a duet by Mrs. Jayne and Mrs. Groat and a solo by Will Frank, encores lengthening out the program somewhat and greatly pleasing the audience.

Roberts may not be permitted a seat at Washington, but just the same a large number of the same ilk are seating themselves throughout the United States with the intention of staying and converting to their faith as many as possible. Every few weeks a number of these missionaries make their appearance in The Dalles, and under the appellation of Latter Day Saints hold meetings, and no doubt there are always a number of susceptible ones who are influenced by their teaching. They may claim they do not believe in polygamy, but for the good of the country at large, any faith which has even the slightest connection with such a belief should be avoided. True, this may be a land of religious liberty; but at the same time it is not a land where any practice however objectionable and detrimental can be carried on under the name of religion. There may be no law to prevent these people holding forth wherever they may choose; but individually the residents of the city may use their influence against their teachings and should do so.

PEOPLE YOU ALL KNOW.

R. J. Staats, of Dufur, is a visitor in the city.

Henry Menefee, who is now editor of the Dufur Dispatch, spent yesterday in this city.

W. R. Barrett left the city last night for that Mecca for all ambitious men—Sampter.

Miss Lora Remington is in the city from Lewiston visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Geisendorfer.

Alf Allen passed through the city yesterday afternoon on his way from Portland to his home in Prineville.

Dr. and Mrs. James Sutherland arrived in the city on the early morning train, and will spend a few weeks visiting relatives here.

P. A. Worthington, deputy sheriff of Multnomah county, is in the city today on business connected with the settlement of the Rose Leaf cigar store affairs.

George Boryer, agent for the "Human Hearts" company, arrived in the city yesterday to make arrangements for the appearance of his company at the Vogt next Monday night.
