You see a Man losing his pocketbook

you feel justified in telling him about it, even if you haven't been introduced. We possibly don't know you personally, but we do know you are losing money in buying your clothing, at any rate you are not making all the money you could which is just the same thing. The way to make all the money there is in that line, is to buy your clothing of us.

PEASE & MAYS

We have been offering you black and colored dress goods remnants for the past week and perhaps all of you have bought, but still we have a few left, and in conjunction with those remnants that we have on hand, we will offer you a choice lot of

at a much lower price than you ever purchased anything to compare with them before in your life. This is a broad assertion to make and a hazardous thing to do when you know full well how fabrics of all kinds have advanced in the past couple of months, and yet they have not reached the elevation they will eventually attain.

Silk, Satin and Velvet Fancy Waists

WOOLEN MILL AGAIN.

Another Opportunity Will Be Given Our People to Secure a Mill.

So often have the newspapers of The Dalles urged upon the citizens the woolen mill question and such a continued story has it become, with no further results than a short conference with various representatives who have come here with propositions, that we almost hesitate to again broach the subject. However, having referred to it yesterday by way of warning, we feel encouraged to proceed.

Whatever may have been the defects in previous propositions, which have caused our people to refuse to consider them, the very fact that this is not a new enterprise but one which has been successfully carried on in another locality to such an extent that they now seek a broader field of trade, should incite the business men of The Dalles to give it more serious consideration than any previous proposition.

For some time the secretary of the Commercial Club has been in correspondence with a number of persons to whom the promoters referred them, and very satisfactory replies have been received as to their reliability and business character. As a result, in a short time they will visit the city to determine what is the sense of our citizens concerning it. It is sincerely hoped that this will be an exception to the general rule, and that instead of allowing one or two citizens to throw cold water on the proposition from the first, the matter will be thoroughly investigated and all have a "finger in the pie."

The idea of the company is to double the capacity of their mill, making it a six-set mill, employing at least 125 men. Imagine the advantage to The Dalles of having a pay-roll each month of $3,500. At least 2,000,000, and perhaps 3,000,000 pounds of wool will be handled each year.

No idea has been given as to what will be expected of our citizens, but it has been surmised that no subscriptions will be taken, as heretofore in such cases, a certain amount of stock being taken in the enterprise. If the proposition be at all reasonable, it is hoped it will be looked upon with favor in The Dalles, and that before they arrive a disposition to do what is best for the city's interests will have been engendered.

The Bowling Contest.

"Turn about is fair play," so evidently thought our bowlers when they beat their Illihee guests three straight games last night. It did not, however, look encouraging for a change in luck when the visiting team came out so far ahead in the first game, nor anything to brag of in the second; but the two last told the tale, and showed that Dalles bowlers had not lost all of their cunning. D'Arcy, of Salem, was high man and did "handsomely;" Kurtz high for the home team.

The audience was not so large nor quite so enthusiastic as that which witnessed the games last year, and yet there was a good attendance and interest in bowling was somewhat renewed.

Somehow the Salem and Dalles bowlers affiliate remarkably well, and a lasting friendship has sprung up between the two teams which will be carried into every day life and prove most pleasant for all concerned. Beside this, Dalles people have a very kindly feeling for the Salem team, which somehow comes naturally, and their visits are always enjoyed.

At the close of the games all repaired to the Baldwin and joined in the dancing, after which the team was entertained at the Umatilla House.

The scores by games were as follows:

	1st	2nd	3d	4th	Total
McNary	44	39	39	27	149
Hughes	23	30	35	33	121

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every hand in California. Plentiful early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits bountiful and excellent.

Old ocean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Batavia—where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loafing may be enjoyed as nowhere else.

Quiet little spots, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many hot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated merits; the dry, antiseptic, tonic air of the desert may be enjoyed at Banning, Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful tree commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is here accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generations will see California of the south and prolong life.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Geo. F. Hall At the Baldwin tonight, "Happy Homes—How to Get Them."

Go where you can get the worth of your money. A. M. Williams & Co. are selling their entire stock of ladies' flannel waists at a fourth off the regular price.

The meeting of the Students' Literary Club cannot fail to be interesting tonight, as this is the date set for the moot senate. They invite all interested to be present.

The following books have been added to the library: "Ten Thousand a Year," by Warren; "Astoria," Irving; "The Adventures of Francois," Mitchell; "Blitz," Norris.

You may now select any child's jacket from A. M. Williams & Co.'s stock worth $5, and they will wrap it up for you for $2.50. Any other jacket the same way; just half price.

Tomorrow afternoon the taxpayers are to hold a meeting at the brick school house on Court street for the purpose of levying a tax to run the schools for the coming year. The room should not be able to contain the crowd.

Have you been one of those who have registered a kick regarding the taxes you pay and do you now care to improve the opportunity afforded to have your say in the matter of school taxes? If, so, go to the meeting tomorrow and express your opinion, or forever hold your peace.

The tax levy for 1900, as determined by the county court is as follows: For state, 6.3 mills; school, 5 mills; G. A. R., 1.10; county, 11.35; state bounty, 1/2 mill. Making a total of 23 mills. It is estimated that a levy of 11.35 will raise sufficient funds for the running expenses of the county, which are $30,000 a year.

John Myers, who died in Portland Wednesday, was a brother of Clay Myers, of this city. As his illness was of short duration, his brother knew nothing of it until he received a telegram announcing his death. Mr. Myers was a pioneer of 1860, and a man highly respected in the community where he lived.

Wm. McCorkle, of Tygh Valley, who is a staunch friend of THE CHRONICLE, hastens to inform us by letter that we are mistaken regarding the case of smallpox at Tygh. He says there is not a case of sickness of any kind in Tygh. No doubt the two cases at Wamic are responsible for the error, the names of the places being confused.

In spite of the beautiful weather which Dalles people are enjoying today, the presence of J. P. Jones in our city, advertising the Southern Pacific, the Sunset route, cannot fail to entice one to enjoy the beauties of the Southern California climate by taking a trip over that line and stopping here and there as they journey.

A very large crowd attended the club dance last night at the Baldwin, and the presence of many visitors, including the Salem bowling team, added much to the pleasure of the evening. The guests were enthusiastic over the music and highly pleased with the party. No other dancing parties are given in any city of its size, than those which Dalles society people are enjoying this winter.

Miss Anna C. Smith gave a "Hearts" party to a number of her friends Monday evening, in honor of her visiting friend, Miss Virginia Marden, of The Dalles. Mrs. M. Reed received first prize for the best player among the ladies, and Wm. Davidson first prize for best player among the gentlemen. Supper was served at 10:30, after which dancing was enjoyed for a couple of hours.—Glaicler.

The Rathbone Sisters had a pleasant session last evening, when the following officers were installed: Mrs. T. Driver, M. E. C.; Mrs. Nellie Waud, E. S.; Mrs. Clark, E. J.; Mrs. Stubling, M. of T.; Minnie Gosser, M. of R. and C.; Mrs. Gavin, M. of S.; Mrs. Chrisman, P. O. T.; Mrs. Patterson, G. O. T.; Mrs. Phillips, Trustee. The installing officers were Mrs. Crossen, Mrs. Vause and Mrs. Thompson.

Every one who happened to turn the eyes toward Mt. Hood Wednesday evening of last week is ready to testify that the pride of Oregon was really the act of smoking. For more than half the hour before dark, smoke, or thick vapor streamed out to the westward, undulating and dissipating in the atmosphere like smoke from the stack of some large factory. Dark came on and closed the scene, which was truly interesting while it lasted.—Glaicler.

An exchange truly says: "Every pound of print paper, every pound of job stock used in a newspaper office is costing today 25 per cent more than it did eight weeks ago, and there is no prospect of a reduction. Yet newspapers neither ask nor receive one cent more for their production in any of its forms. The price of the paper to readers remains the same, advertising rates always low, remain low, and cut-throat competition makes profit to job work exceedingly problematical."

Last night about 9 o'clock S. Bolton received a telephone message from the doctor at Antelope, saying that he feared Miss Maggie Gilmore, who was burned so severely the night before, would not live through the night. This morning another message told of her death at 4 o'clock this morning. Mr. Gilmore arrived at her bedside about two hours before she passed away. Although suffering terribly at first opiates were administered, and she was not conscious of pain toward the last. Later this morning Mr. Gilmore started for the city with her body, and the funeral will take place at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon.

Would you breathe the air of Arkansas hills, and mingle with the simple honest folks who live there among and sympathize with the afflictions that fall on the home of Tom Logan, an honest but much wronged blacksmith. If so, attend the performance of "Human Hearts" at the Vogt opera house Jan. 22. Not alone sorrows mark the play, there are tears in plenty, but also a generous supply of incidents which provoke hearty, healthful laughter. All who have seen the play will welcome its coming and all who have heard of it—for its several successful seasons have made it a popular favorite—will await with eagerness the performance of next Monday night.

Rev. Jos. De Forrest's Success.

The Denver "Eye" has the following article concerning the success of Rev. De Forrest in his new field of labor: "The new rector of St. Peter's church on Second avenue is doing a splendid work. He is fast removing the obstacles which have in the past stood in the way of the growth of the church and brought the society into a cheerful present with a prospect for a more hopeful future."

"Rev. De Forrest came here from Portland, Oregon, a short time since on account of his wife's health. He has taken charge of St. Peter's church and is well liked and his good work thoroughly appreciated. Mr. De Forrest is assisted in his church work by his wife, who has for years sang in her husband's church, and Miss Adele, a talented soprano, formerly a student of the celebrated George Sweet of New York, and later of Fisher Powers, of Denver.

"The hope is generally expressed among the members and friends of the church that Mr. De Forrest and his charming family may remain long among them and continue their good work."

New School Term.

Classes will be organized in the first primary grade at the Court Street and Academy Park schools at the opening of the new term, Monday, Jan. 22. It is desired that, as far as possible, all beginners enter at that time and start with the new classes, as no other classes for pupils first entering school will be organized this year.

Owing to the crowded condition of the rooms there will be no new class started in the East Hill Primary school this term. It will be better for first primary pupils in the eastern division of the district to wait until next September to enter. Or if parents deem it best they may come down to the Court street school or Academy Park school.
