HOAR'S COMPLICITY.

More information than they called for is breaking in upon the Tagal assistants in the senate. Mysterious incidents were connected with the sudden breaking out of hostilities near Manila last February, but the administration was not connected with them. As the treaty drew near a vote, Agoncillo kept the wires hot with Hong Kong and Aguinaldo's camp. It seems that Senator Hoar's violent argument against the policy of the government was telegraphed to the Tagals at unusual length and heavy cost. Great restlessness and an aggressive spirit was the result among the Tagals. Before the treaty vote was taken they crowded upon our outposts and firing began. Knowing what would happen, Agoncillo hurriedly left Washington and went to Canada over the shortest route. The offensive Tagal tactics were based on the news received from the United States. They knew perfectly well that the orders of Otis were to keep the peace if possible. The speech of Hoar turned the scale at the critical moment and the war began two days before the vote that ratified the treaty.

It is a striking case of retribution that Hoar and Pettigrew, while calling upon the government for documents relating to the era when hostilities with the Tagals began, should be confronted with the proof that the assistants of Aguinaldo in the senate are responsible for the opening battles around Manila last February. The administration has nothing to hide. Its instructions to the commanding general were to strike only in self-defense. Its vital duty in both the national and international sense was to perfect the treaty with Spain and carry its obligations into effect with justice to all and charitable consideration for the Filipinos. But, inflamed by the speech of Hoar, the Tagal leaders decided to push on their forces at once. No doubt they thought this would help defeat the treaty, for their knowledge of this government, and of all free government, is limited. Hoar is getting the light he needs, but not the kind he asked for.

South Carolina, it is estimated, ranks next to Massachusetts in the number of its cotton mills, and expects to lead Massachusetts by the end of 1900. This is not exactly the sort of a future for that locality to which Calhoun, McDuffie and the rest of the Palmetto State's representatives in congress looked in the old days. Yet nobody in South Carolina regrets the change in the conditions in that community. South Carolina is larger, greater and wiser than some of her distinguished citizens of half a century ago supported she would be by this time. The change in her condition is one of the marvels of the century.

An officer on the battleship Oregon writes from Dagupan, the railway terminus and port north of Manila: "In two hours and twenty minutes over 2000 troops were landed. It was simply beautiful to see horses and mules brought ashore with harness and wagons waiting, and with 200 Chinese coolies ready to land stores." Yellow critics of "Grandma Otis" never mention such circumstances.

Our army losses in the Philippines covering the whole period back to the beginning of hostilities with Spain are 365 killed, 203 died of wounds and accidents, 783 died of disease, and 1892 wounded. The total is 3242, or about one-third of the British losses from bullets, disease and capture in South Africa.

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every head in California. Plenteous early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits bountiful and excellent.

Old ocean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Catalina—where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loafing may be enjoyed as nowhere else. Quiet little spots, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many hot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated merits; the dry, arid, tonic air of the desert may be enjoyed at Banning, Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful tree commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is here accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generations will see California of the south and prolong life.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and pained me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton."

J. L. Bvry, Loganton, Pa., writes, "I am willing to take my oath that I was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure after doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it.

Floral lotion will cure wind chapping and sunburn. Manufactured by Clarke & Falk.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 59 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
