THE SENATORS ARE SATISFIED

Want No Change in Manner of Their Election.

HOUSE FAVORS POPULAR VOTE

Amendment to Constitution Will Be Introduced This Session, But Cannot Pass the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 .- A canvass of congress made by the New York Herald upon the question of the election of senators by direct vote of the people shows that the senate is much opposed to the proposition, while the house is in favor of it. A bill for such a constitutional amendment will no doubt pass the house by a large majority, but there is no possibility of it getting through the senate. The canvass includes opinions from nearly all favor the charge, especially stitution.

FALL OF LADY-SMITH EXPECTED

Inmates Have Been Short on Rations for Nearly Two Months.

LONDON, Jan. 29 .- There is comment in London on the discrepancy between the Boer account of the recapture of WITH JAPAN Spionkop and that sent by General Buller. The latter says not a word about the Boers scaling the hill and attacking the British trenches, and capturing 150 men who had hoisted the white flag, as at Majuba hill. Instead, he spoke of the maintenance of "the best traditions of Guarded Against America, England the British army." There is not much doubt that the Boer account is correct. It is by no means boastful.
