

White Winged Carnival!

Our Spring Offering of White Goods will commence February 7th, 1900, and be the most complete offering in this particular line yet inaugurated by this house. It will consist of Dimities, Lawns and organdies, Laces and Embroideries, Ladies', Misses' and Children's Muslin Underwear, Table Linens, Napkins, Towels and Towelling, Muslin, Sheeting, Sheets and Pillow Cases, Lace Curtains and Curtain Material.

Gent's Furnishing Goods Department.

If you want the best you have no other choice; we don't make it so, but people who like up-to-date wearables, just prices and fair treatment do. Not a hundred years, not fifty, nor even one has elapsed since the clothes we are showing were made. They were made this season and in this season's style. This not only applies to our Men's Department but to the Children's as well, and there's a style about them that's exclusive. Isn't it worth something to know that you are in style, especially when it costs you no more?

Our advertisements are our letters to you, written, signed and backed up by a house that has always been jealous of its reputation and business integrity.

All Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Sheriff Kelly has turned over to the treasurer $7761.44, taxes collected during the month of January.

"I was at the head of my class today, Pa." "That's good." "Yes, teacher was illustratin' what it says in the Bible about th' last being first."

Prof. Sandvig announces that his dancing classes and regular soirees on Wednesday and Saturday nights will be held as usual this week, the company which was to occupy the hall failing to fill their engagement.

They're buying them in batches of four. Every man seems to realize the great snap A. M. Williams & Co. are offering in Manhattan shirts at a dollar. They're going—going, and the first thing you know—they'll be gone. Catch on?

Dalles people are constantly clamoring for good plays, and now that one of Frohman's companies is to present such a play as "The Little Minister" in our city, they should show their appreciation by giving it such a house as few companies are greeted with.

Eight hundred delegates attended the League of Republican Clubs in Portland yesterday, which, with the large number of spectators present, made an enthusiastic gathering of Republicans. The Dalles, however, did not loom up very conspicuously, although she is not lacking when it comes to politicians of that popular faith.

Arthur Creighton, of 3-Mile, will probably be laid up for a month with a lame foot, caused by a bad cut which he received yesterday afternoon. While cutting the limbs off of some trees the axe slipped and struck his right foot, inflicting a severe wound. The young man was brought into the city and Dr. Logan found it necessary to take about a dozen stitches.

An immense crowd attended the Midwinter Campmeeting last night to listen to Rev. D. V. Poling, who spoke on "The Glory of the Physical and Spiritual Life." His address was most effective and at the close of the service four persons were converted, making fifteen converts since the meetings began. Rev. Hawk and the young people of the Epworth League will be at the campmeeting tonight.

If the CHRONICLE force isn't clean it will not be through any neglect of D. C. Bowers, who called this morning and left us a generous supply of the Columbia Star Mfg. Co.'s soaps of all kinds. A printing office is a splendid place to test anything in that line, and having had previous experience with this particular brand, (since which time our devil has found it necessary to use no other) we can recommend it.

Mrs. Robert Lowe, of Fairfield district, has many friends in The Dalles, who will be pleased to learn that Mr. Lowe returned last night from Portland bringing word that the physicians now give the most encouraging reports concerning his wife's condition. Mrs. Lowe left for Portland about a month ago and entered the Good Samaritan hospital. A week ago she underwent an operation for a tumor, and is now in a fair way to recovery.

In Idaho a unique suit for damages has been filed by a hobo against the Oregon Short Line. The hobo recites that he was stealing a ride, being located on the brake rode underneath a car, that he sustained the injuries received owing entirely to the fact that servants of the corporation knew he was there without right and did not put him off as was their duty, and that through their gross negligence he sustained the injuries for which he claims damages. Owing to the peculiar claim the attorneys of the road are deeply interested in the case.

To the already large assortment of books in the public library the following have recently been added: "Red Potage" by Mary Cholmondeley; "Cyrano de Bergerac" by Edmund Rostand; "In Connection With the Willoughby Claim," Frances Hodgson Burnett; "Janice Meredith," Haul Leicester Ford; "The Workers," (two volumes) Walter A. Wyckoff; "Friend Olivia," Amelia E. Barr; "A Knight of the Nets," Amelia Barr; "Pembroke" Mary E. Wilkins; "Fables in Slang," George Ade; "The Abbe Constantine," Ludovic Halevy.

If the order of the Artisans were not benefited by the address of Rev. G. W. Grannis in his behalf last night at the Congregational church, it would be unaccountable, for a more effective and fascinating speaker would be hard to find. While leaving out not a jot or a tittle of the facts necessary to a thorough understanding of the workings of the order, he clothed them in such an attractive manner that the triteness of the bare facts and figures was lost and the audience was interested throughout. Mr. Grannis is witty and at the same logical. The audience should have been much larger to do justice to the speaker.

As a preliminary to the work which the ladies of the W. C. T. U. are about to enter upon and as a means of becoming better acquainted, a reception was held at the Christian church yesterday afternoon, a large number being present. A short program, consisting of a hymn by the Union; a graphophone solo by "Nearer My God to Thee;" recitation, Miss Maud Dustin; solo, Edna Barnett, and a coronet solo by the graphophone occupied the early part of the afternoon, and a reception followed. Banded together, as they are, in such a noble work a feeling of sympathy existed which made their first social session a most happy one.

Wm. Vanbibber, who is out at all times of the night with his milk wagon, says the storm of Monday night was the most severe he has ever encountered in The Dalles, compelling him at one time to stop his horse and get out of the wagon until its furor ceased. It seems that the storm was general, as a Spokane paper says: "For eight hours last night a terrific windstorm raged all over eastern Washington. It increased in violence until its velocity was over thirty miles an hour. Every wire connecting Spokane with the outside world was prostrated by 2 a. m. West of the mountains the wires east, west, north and south went down before 1 o'clock and news reports were shut off at that hour. Telephone lines were seriously interfered with in Spokane, and there were few connections able to communicate with "central." The wind was from the southwest. Pedestrians on the down town streets found locomotion difficult. It was warm work making one's way before the fierce gale, while traveling with the gale it was still more difficult to prevent a record breaking gait."

Short Council Meeting.

The councilmen have commenced another series of meetings, the second taking place last evening, when, beside Mayor Kuck, there were present Councilmen Clough, Gunning, Johnston, Wilson, Stephens, Shackelford and Kelly.

At the last meeting the petition of G. F. Guinther and others was introduced, asking for a sidewalk on the west end of Ninth street. Last night James Leary and other property owners on that street entered a remonstrance against the same. On motion of Kelly it was referred to the committee on streets and public property, which committee decided not to take action until the next regular meeting on the 3d of March.

On motion of Johnston it was determined by the council that the city will hereafter pay expressmen the sum of $4 for hauling either the chemical engine or steam engine to a fire, and $2.50 for the hose cart.

The committee on health and police, to whom was referred the petition of citizens asking that Chas. Alisky be appointed a special police, recommended that the petition be denied, which recommendation was adopted.

In the matter of the petition from East Enders for the appointment of W. O. Johnston as a special police, the committee asked for further time.

No particular phase of the sewer question was brought up, the committee continuing in their work of making valuation of the property to be benefited thereby. It was, however, decided that as soon as the task was accomplished an expert would be employed to attend to the clerical work. Council adjourned to meet on Saturday evening.

FIRE DEPARTMENT RULES.

Read Them so That You Will Be Posted Thereon.

The following rules will govern the fire department of Dalles City under the new alarm system:

First district will comprise all east of Laughlin street.

Second district all west of Laughlin to Union.

Third district all west of Union to Fourth street bridge.

First alarm of bell will be answered by company in whose district it is situated.

Second alarm calls company from adjoining district.

Third alarm calls the entire department at once.

At the first alarm all companies will hold themselves in readiness to answer second or third alarm, except those that are required to answer the call until such time as the second and third alarms are sounded.

Two taps of the bell will be a recall for all companies that are not needed at a fire, which will be a signal that their assistance will not be needed.

Three taps will be sounded each day at noon.

The chemical engine and hook and ladder company will answer to all alarms that are turned in.

Keys for the alarm boxes are at the following places of business:

- Electric Light Plant,
 - Gunning's Blacksmith Shop,
 - L. A. Porter's stable,
 - Midway saloon,
 - Stabling saloon,
 - Simoneon's grocery store,
 - Chas. Frank, saloon on second street,
 - Sinnott & Fish,
 - Engine House,
 - T. J. Seuferts, house on third street,
 - F. Hill, corner third and Lincoln,
 - Geo. Ruch, store,
 - A. M. Williams & Co., store,
 - Mays & Crowe, store,
 - Father Brongest,
 - Dan Baker, saloon,
 - Ben Wilson, saloon,
 - L. S. Davis, feed yard,
 - Wasco Warehouse Co.,
 - August Buchler, brewery,
 - Saltmarsh feed yard,
 - Pease & Mays, store,
 - Blakeley & Houghton, store.
- All alarms for fires outside of the districts mentioned should be turned in at the engine house.

PEOPLE YOU ALL KNOW.

A. J. Brigham is in from Dufur. O. B. Hartley, of Hood River, is in the city.

Mrs. W. A. Johnston left today for a short visit in Portland.

A. M. Kelsay returned last night from a short trip to Portland.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Black and family left The Dalles today for Roslyn, Wash., Rev. Black having accepted a call from the Baptist church at that place.

Mrs. N. M. Eastwood and son, Bert Pruyne, returned last night after a month spent at Modesto, Calif. They stopped over in San Francisco going and coming.

Charles Reed, of Portland, a former Dalles boy, who has spent the past few months with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Johnston at Dufur, has been visiting friends in The Dalles since Monday.

Rev. G. W. Grannis, who came up from Salem last night and spoke in the interest of the Artisans, left this morning for Goldendale, and will probably return tomorrow, speaking in the Methodist church tomorrow night on temperance.

Miss Minnie Lay returned last night from St. Louis, Missouri, and Columbus, Ohio, where she has been spending the past few months. She was accompanied by Miss Dennis, of Columbus, Ohio, who is a friend of Mrs. Logan. The latter met them in Portland, returning with them on the boat yesterday.

BORN.

In this city, this afternoon, Feb. 7th, to Capt. and Mrs. Chas. Alden, a son.

Be a friend to your purse. Buy shirts, and plenty of them, when you can get Manhattans at a dollar. Williams & Co.'s the place.
