Mr. Charles Frohman presents
the success of the century,

THE LITTLE MINISTER

300 NIGHTS IN
NEW YORK CITY.

By J. M. Barrie. Founded upon his novel of same name.

"The Little Minister" is a triumph for purity in theatricals.—New York Herald.

PEOPLE YOU ALL KNOW.

J. W. Moore is in from Nansen today.

M. T. Nolan left this morning for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilleary and family came over from Grand Dalles yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Seal and little daughter left on this morning's boat for Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Burgess are in the city from Bakeoven as witnesses in the Simmons case.

Hamilton Campbell arrived from Portland last night, where he has been visiting his parents.

E. J. Glisan is in from Antelope attending court, being a witness in the Simmons case.

John Fender came up from his place at Husum yesterday, and will remain over until tomorrow.

A. Lyle, one of our leading stock men, is in from Cross Keys on business, arriving this morning.

G. W. Phelps came down from Heppner yesterday and although, but recently married, Bert is again courting.

Henry Smith, who has been in the city to attend his grandmother's funeral, left on last night's train for his home in Condon.

Benton Mays, of Swamp creek, was in town last Saturday. Mr. Mays reports stock as going through the winter in better shape than he has ever witnessed before.—Enterprise Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Simpson and little sons will leave this afternoon for Portland. They are on their way to California to visit Mr. Simpson's relatives before returning to their home in Chicago.

Hon. James Van Kleeck, one of the noted attorneys of Michigan, and other friends are the guest of O. D. Taylor. The party reached Portland Sunday evening, where they were met by Mr. Taylor, accompanying him home yesterday on the Spokane Flyer.

"Oregon Weekly."

Among our exchanges this morning we find the first issue of the "Oregon Weekly," which is published in the interest of the state university at Eugene. It is a neat and newsy little journal, filled with news concerning happenings at the university and will undoubtedly be of untold benefit to the institution. Speaking of the annual local oratorical contest, in order to determine who will have the honor of representing the university at the state inter-collegiate oratorical contest, it says:

Miss Daisie E. Alloway, of the senior class, delivered a strong oration on the following theme:

"As I note how nobly nature forms
Under the war's red rain, I deem it true
That he who makes the earthquake and the storm,
Perchance makes battles, too."

"Purposes justify or condemn wars. When wars relieve the suffering or give freedom to the enslaved they are justified. Epochs of national greatness in literature, commerce and politics follow periods of national struggle. Oregon, as well as the rest of the nation, may expect great benefits from the baptism of patriotism and the purification by sacrifice which it received in the Spanish war. War such as this brings opportunities and responsibilities. Oregon made the sacrifice and shared in the victory; how will she meet the responsibilities? When we see the purified social conditions, the new sense of dignity, the awakening of literature and art, we then believe that 'He who makes the earthquake and the storm, perchance makes battles, too.'"

Why suffer with kindly or rheumatism when it can be positively cured by the use of the "Oxygenor King." No medicine, no electricity, but pure Oxygen instilled or absorbed through the pores of the skin while yet asleep. No need of going to the hospital for medical treatment when you can be cured at home by the use of the Oxygenor. No matter what the ailment or disease the Oxygenor will diagnose the case and proceed to cure. For further particulars call on or address J. M. Filloon, The Dalles, Or. phone 369. feb10 2wk

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and paining me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton."

Proposals for Refunding Water Bonds, Dalles City Oregon.

Sealed proposals will be received by the board of water commissioners of Dalles City, Oregon, at said city until 8:30 o'clock p. m. of the 26 day of Feb., 1900, for twenty-five thousand dollars; and twenty thousand dollars of refunding water bonds of said city, as it is not settled as to whether the total amount of bonds will be $25,000 or $20,000; authority is extended to the said board to issue refunding water bonds in the sum of $25,000, but if found not to be necessary, the issue will be for no more than $20,000; and at a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent per annum payable twenty years from date of issue, interest payable semi-annually, principal and interest payable in gold coin of the United States, at any city therein, at the option of the buyer.

The bonds mentioned will be issued under the provisions of the several legislative acts of the state of Oregon, approved Feb. 26, 1885, Feb. 19, 1889, and Feb. 14, 1895, and in pursuance of an ordinance adopted by the common council of Dalles City, approved January 25, 1900. The proposed refunding water bonds are intended for the redemption of outstanding water bonds in the sum of $25,000; but in case the board of water commissioners prefer, it will issue refunding bonds for $20,000 only, therefore bidders may make proposals for both $25,000 and $20,000, and in the denomination of $500 each.

No bid will be entertained for a rate less than par value of the bonds. Premiums and rate of interest will be taken into consideration in passing on the value of all bids.

Bidders must deposit with the president of the board a duly certified check on some responsible bank equal to 2 per cent of the amount of bonds bid for, or accompany his bid with cash of such amount as will equal such per cent of his bid, and such certified check payable to the president of the board of water commissioners of Dalles City, Or., as liquidated damages in case the bidder shall fail or neglect to receive and pay for, at the office of the city treasurer of said city, the bonds awarded to him on his bid, on or before the first day of March, 1900.

Attention should be given the fact that the board will not issue and dispose of more than $20,000 of such refunding bonds, unless it shall be deemed necessary to do so, but otherwise, if the board shall find that it is necessary to issue bonds in the sum of $25,000, it will then offer and issue the full sum, ($25,000).

The right to reject any and all bids is reserved by the said board of water commissioners.

Bids should be addressed to the president of said board, or to the city recorder, Dalles City, Wasco county, Oregon, and noted "Proposals for refunding water bonds."

By order of the Board of Water Commission, by and with the consent of the Common Council. This 25th day of January, 1900.

T. J. SEIFERT,
President of Board,
NED H. GATES,
Recorder of Dalles City.

Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Dr. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Hawson, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came to see her one day, when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight 50c. bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was so near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her housework, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England 1s. 2s. 3s. and 4s. 6d.
We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOPER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
