ENGLAND AND HER FOES.

England is fighting not alone the Boers in this South African war. In one way and another, she is fighting all Europe. It is notorious that the Boer armies are directed by the military genius of France, of Germany, of Austria and other continental countries, and it is known that a large part of the rank and file of the forces of the Transvaal and of the Orange Free State are composed of adventurous and mercenary spirits gathered from all parts of civilization.

England is fighting Europe in other ways. Her foes are eager to pounce upon her, and are only constrained from doing it by the menacing power of the British navy. France knows, for example, that if she went to war with "perfidious Albion," the British navy would seek and engage her navy, and bombard her coast cities; and that thought, and the knowledge that England, with her tremendous weight of ships, guns and metal, would stand a good chance of destroying the French fleets as the United States destroyed the Spanish squadrons, restrain the French longing to fight the hereditary enemy of France. Like considerations of prudence restrain Germany, Russia and other European powers.

Europe hates England because British commerce is taking profits wanted by the merchants and traders of European countries, and also because British influence has erected barriers against the colonization projects of the European powers. If Europe could crush the British empire, she would do it, and when it was done, she would direct her envy and hatred against the United States, because the United States, with its Monroe doctrine, is holding the continental powers out of South America, and because our foreign commerce has grown to be second only to that of England.

These were the motives that engendered for us the ill-will of Europe when we were at war with Spain.—Spokesman—Review.

The quarterly dividend of the Standard Oil Company, declared a few days ago, was 20 per cent on a capital stock of $100,000,000. At this rate the stockholders would be paid dividends aggregating $80,000,000 a year. The price of oil was raised three cents a gallon in December, as the poor stockholders were rather hard up for a little cash for the holidays. As the Rockefellers and a few associates own nearly all the stock, the head of the trust can easily afford to give another million to the Chicago university, and hire another trust professor or two. But however richly endowed, the institution will always smell of oil.—Telegram.

Five carloads of 3 and 4-year-old oysters will be brought from the Atlantic coast, mostly from Long Island sound, and planted in three or four locations on Puget sound to be selected. A hatchery, something on the line of the salmon hatcheries, will also be established, where the fertilized eggs of the oyster will be placed in water under the most favorable conditions for propagation. "No better water exists anywhere for the propagation of oysters than Puget sound," says Professor Doane, of the agricultural college, "and it is proposed to develop this industry along with the development of the fisheries."

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Honlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The date of the fight between J. J. Jefferies and J. J. Corbett has been fixed at May 14. George F. Considine and W. A. ### A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

JAPAN'S GREAT NAVY DISPLAY

Government is Preparing to Exhibit It—Enormous Emigration to Hawaii—Affairs in China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—Advices from Yokohama to January 31 are as follows: The coming naval maneuvers of the Japanese fleet are attracting great interest. The display of Japan's increased naval power, which will make a most imposing spectacle, will undoubtedly tend to increase the war spirit of the nation.

Much interest is taken in the enormous emigration to the Hawaiian islands. More than 10,000 contract laborers and 3000 free emigrants have left between May and December of last year. This large increase is said to have resulted from the laxity with which the immigration laws have been administered by the Hawaiian authorities. It is probable that, owing to reports of trouble given to Honolulu by the large number of Japanese loafers, something will be done to check the tide of immigration.

The news of the court intrigues in China excite the liveliest interest. The relation between the Japanese government and the empress dowager's regime are undoubtedly of an intimate character, and something in the nature of an accord of the two governments causes all movements among the Celestials to be regarded with the liveliest concern.
