A February White Goods Sale

We can almost hear the mothers in this commonwealth of our say, "bless the man who inaugurated the early selling of

WHITE GOODS

for it gives us a chance to do our

SUMMER SEWING

while the weather will not permit of us doing anything else. Last week proved to us conclusively that people appreciate this sale immensely for they took advantage of the opportunity and bought liberally. But let us state right here that we are better prepared to

during the week than at the commencement of the sale.

LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

Our entire line of these goods are being sacrificed to bring you out and let you enjoy the benefits derived by these

LOW PRICES.

The displays in show windows and interiors will bear evidence that we are giving you just what we claim to do. Excellent values in Sheetings, Muslins, Cambrics, Lawns, India Linens, Dimities, Nainsooks, Piques, Quilts, Towels, Linen Damasks, Napkins, Lace, Embroideries and Lace Curtains.

Portland people get a woolen mill started. Even if they do, there will be plenty of room and opportunity in Portland for a big woolen mill. The Dalles is a most suitable location for a wool-scouring plant, and it would be of much benefit not only to that city but to the many woolgrowers who annually haul some 10,000,000 pounds of wool to that point for shipment. It would save paying freight on some 3000 tons of dirt and grease, amounting to over $100,000 a year.—Telegram.

After holding the attention of the court yesterday afternoon the case of the State vs. J. H. Preston, charged with larceny in a dwelling, came to an end this afternoon when the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Preston was indicted for the larceny of some clothing from the room of E. Jacobsen, and the case attracted considerable attention. Yesterday afternoon was taken up with the introduction of testimony, and in the evening District Attorney Jayne began the argument for the state, being followed by Ned H. Gates, who made the opening speech for the defense. This morning Fred W. Wilson made the closing argument for the defense, while Mr. Jayne closed for the state. The jury retired at 11:15, and at 1:45 returned with a verdict of not guilty.

An Open River.

Steamboating on the Middle Columbia and Snake river will no doubt be suspended within a day or two, according to a report in the Telegram. Zero weather prevails at all points on the Snake and the river is expected to close at any time. Cold weather has prevailed for several days and yesterday shore ice was forming as far down as the Cascades. If the weather continues cold for three days longer there is no doubt but what steamers of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company will be forced to tie up. The weather bureau predicts a continually falling temperature, with no sign of abating for three days.—Astorian.

The Astorian has been misinformed in some manner for there has been no shore ice between this point and the Cascades this winter, and it will have to get decidedly colder than it is at present before there will be any. There is not much danger of the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s boats tying up for they usually find some method of keeping the river open when there is no floating ice, and there has been none this winter.

Unless the unforeseen arises we are pretty sure of an open river the balance of the winter, and of daily boat service as usual.

Register While You Can.

Voters are registering slowly and will likely put the matter off until the eleventh hour. Many say there's plenty of time yet, and so put off and will forget to register until too late.

The law regarding registration will need amending in a few particulars by the next legislature, and it might possibly be well to so amend it as to make it apply only to incorporated cities and towns. Even in a city like The Dalles many voters will neglect to register, but in the larger towns such a law is necessary even if many qualified electors are barred out through their own carelessness or laziness. But in the sparsely settled districts a still larger proportion of votes is likely to be lost, and in such localities there is not so much need of the law.

In a country precinct everyone is known and it is not easy or common for repeaters to operate. But whether any distinction should be made or not it is certain that the total vote this year will be smaller by a considerable per cent than it would be without the law.

Every good citizen should desire to vote once and no more, and ought also to comply cheerfully with the registration law, the object of which is to make honest electors votes effective.

C. A. Rhea, of Heppner, sold 7000 mixed yearling sheep Thursday for $2.35 per head, to be delivered after shearing time.

A splendid chorus of eighteen voices will render Verdi's Song of Niagara at the lecture this evening at the Congregational church.

The Oregonian aptly remarks that, perhaps, if this winter had not been quite so wide open the cold wave couldn't have crawled in.

S. P. Shutt has shipped his printing material to Granite, where he has made arrangements to start a newspaper to be called "The Gem."

The water commissioners met last evening in the recorder's office, but owing to the absence of several of the members, the meeting was adjourned until Monday evening.

Harry C. Liehe, the jeweler in the Vogt Block sells watches and diamonds on easy installments at most reasonable prices. Call and look over his line and be convinced.

Sam Van Vactor has purchased the lot adjoining the Masonic building on Main street of Pat Skelly. Mr. Van Vactor will shortly build an office and later a residence on the property.—Cordon Globe.

The club gave another of their pleasant dancing parties at the Baldwin last night. An exceptionally large crowd attended and as usual the music was par excellence.

Rev. D. V. Poling will lecture on "The Johnstown Flood," this evening at the Congregational church. Admission adults 25 cents; school children 15 cents. The proceeds to be used in purchasing an organ for the church.

Sheepmen of Enterprise are refusing $4 a head by the band for good ewes, says the Pendleton Tribune. One man refused $3.50 for spring lambs, and another paid $5.50 for fifty head of first-class sheep. Goats sell for $5 a head.

The Students' Literary Club held a very pleasant meeting last night in the city hall. They have arranged to have some very prominent speakers talk on the subject of "Socialism" next Friday night, when the public will be welcome to attend.

After the entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Catholic church on Tuesday, the floor will be cleared and those who wish may dance, and we will add that Birgfelds orchestra will furnish the music which is sufficient to say the majority of the audience will remain.

The children excluded from the public schools for having come in contact with the Mullican family who are down with the smallpox, will be admitted to their respective rooms Monday, the danger line being passed and no symptom of the disease having made itself manifest.

The entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Catholic church next Tuesday evening promises to be exceptionally fine. The best talent of the city has been engaged and a splendid program arranged. Reserved seats on sale at Clarke & Falk's, without extra charge. The nominal admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

Friday being the fourth birthday of Kenneth Clair Farley, Mrs. Farley prepared a party for him and his little friends at the Kindergarten. The afternoon was a happy one for the little ones and all departed wishing Kenneth many happy birthdays. Each child received as a souvenir a small cake with his name on the top in red candies, the gift of Mrs. Farley.

The school patrons of Hood River are showing an unusual interest in all that pertains to a common school education. Questions were mailed to the Barrett school district from the county superintendent's office for eighth grade final examination for a class of eighteen. Each pupil passing a satisfactory examination will receive a certificate from the county board of examiners showing that they have completed the grade work.

Members of the K. of P. will bear in mind that Friendship lodge No. 9 will celebrate the thirty-sixth anniversary of the order in Castle hall next Monday evening. Members of the order and their friends are invited to be present. Visiting brothers will be welcome. A pleasant program has been arranged, after which dancing will be indulged in, and undoubtedly those who attend will be well entertained and have an enjoyable time.

Yesterday when the Regulator reached the locks she had but little trouble in going through, although the canal was frozen over and the boat had to cut her way through the ice. However, today the ice has packed in and closed some of the valves and it is doubtful if our old reliable will be able to reach her harbor of safety tonight. If she does it will be late, but if she is unsuccessful she will attempt it again tomorrow and in all probability be ready to leave here as usual Monday morning.

A telegram was received today by the Misses Flynn from their niece Miss Mamie Helen Flynn a prominent eloquentist of Huntington, saying she would arrive Monday and will assist in the entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Catholic church on Tuesday evening. Miss Flynn has received some flattering comments in the press of Portland, Baker City and other places. She is an exceptionally fine speaker and to hear her, will alone be worth the price of admission.

Brown and Wilson who were sentenced to serve eight years in the penitentiary were taken to Salem this morning by Deputy Sheriff Sexton and City Marshal Hughes. The guards took no chances with the horse thieves, and they proceeded on their way well skaked and handcuffed. By the time their sentence expires they will probably have decided that it is better to keep in the straight and narrow path, than to wander in the highway of lawlessness.

Telegraph, telephone and electric light companies have appealed to the authorities of Pendleton to protect them from the tin-sign takers, who persist in defacing their property by tacking their advertisements on the poles in the street. It would be a good thing for the companies in The Dalles to emulate the appeal made by the owners of property in our sister city. The poles in our streets are covered with tin signs, posters, cards and advertising matter of sundry and diverse kinds, that is anything but beautiful although we suppose it answers the desired purpose for it surely attracts the eye.

This morning Alva Simmons was arraigned before Judge Bradshaw upon the charge of larceny in a store, he being the man accused of stealing some articles from Thos. Burgess at Bake Oven. Simmons pleaded not guilty and his attorney, Huntington & Wilson filed a demurrer to the indictment. The question is an interesting one as it involves in a measure the procedure under the new law allowing the district attorney to file information against suspected parties instead of having them indicted by the grand jury as formerly. D. J. Malarky, of Portland, is assisting Dist. Atty. Jayne.

In case of fire of course all should do their best to subdue the flames or give their help in any way necessary. However, firemen as a rule go immediately to where their apparatus is housed and place themselves in readiness to lend assistance. When yesterday's alarm was sounded a number of the firemen belonging to companies be'on the bluff got a team and ran to the Mt. Hood Hose company's house, got out their cart and went to the scene of the conflagration without even a member from the company mentioned. Quite a number of the boys were laughing about the incident and remarked they remembered hearing "Better late than never" but in this instance the Mt. Hood company was—well, "out o' sight."

People of The Dalles are contemplating the establishment at that point of a wool-scouring mill, and they are likely to have it erected and in operation before
