KENTUCKY'S WOES.

Kentucky is today little nearer a solution of the problem of who is governor than she was when two legislative bodies held sessions in different cities and two gubernatorial claimants had headquarters far apart. Taylor has rectified one error in his campaign by guaranteeing safe conduct for Democratic legislators in the capital, but he has announced that he will not surrender his office at the mandate of a board of election commissioners or a legislative body which he declares is illegally constituted. Beckham meanwhile insists he is the executive. In the meantime Kentucky is laying up endless trouble for herself in the doubtful constitutionality of any laws passed by the legislature and signed by either Beckham or Taylor. But there is reason to believe the sessions beginning today will not lead to unfortunate circumstances such as surrounded the death of Goebel. That assassination has brought the decent people of the state to their senses and they will not countenance the further use of knife or revolver.—Spokesman—Review.

It is a significant fact that nobody thought it worth while to mention that the gold reserve in the treasury in the past few weeks was going downward, and that it had dropped more than $20,000,000 below its previous high-water mark. It is now on the increase again, but the circumstance attracts no attention. The reserve was so much higher, even when at its recent lowest, than it was until the past year or two, and the certainty is so strong that the gold standard bill will pass and the Republican party remain in control of the country that nobody troubles himself to glance at treasury statements. All the gold which will be needed to meet the government's requirements will be in the treasury so long as the Republican party remains in charge of the government, and, happily, Republican tenure of power for a long time in the future seems certain.

The young Republicans of Missouri made a splendid demonstration at Kansas City Thursday, says the Globe-Democrat. Every section of the state was represented, and the enthusiasm shown was full of high promise for the future. These earnest and intelligent young men are resolved that there shall be a new era for the fifth state in the Union. They look over the roll of great commonwealths at the head of the list, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio, and realize that the next in order, Missouri, needs a political rebirth. Missouri is great through its unequalled natural resources. Its politics is a drag and a reproach. The state is weighted down and kept back by Bourbonism. To overcome this incubus the young Republicans have met and organized, and they will press on with the fight unflinching until the state is redeemed.

It is no exaggeration to say that the war departments of the world are going to school to the Boer militia. The burghers have shown that the military science of the past is no match for the common sense of the present.

When Jefferson bought the great region west of the Mississippi it never occurred to him to ask the consent of the inhabitants. He took it for granted that the change would be greatly to their advantage, and it was.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

A Convincing Answer.
"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

"After doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles of it cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. It cured my grandchildren of the worst cases," writes Jno. Berry, Loganton, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. Children always like it. Mothers endorse it.
