THE FARMER EXPANDS.

California has begun a movement for interchange of views among the agricultural classes of that wonderful state, the scheme providing for lectures by the most noted professors at her universities and colleges. This in a state where agriculture in all its phases flourishes as in few other lands under the sun, California believes in nourishing her industries, not the least of which is tilling the soil. After years of experiments, where the farmer knows by experience nearly everything there is to be known of the capabilities of his land, he finds it to his profit to keep abreast of the times and learn by meeting with his fellow laborers in institutes and conventions.

The activity of Eastern Washington this winter along these lines has been marked. In nearly every section where farms are tilled there have been well attended gatherings, scientific men to address them, practical men to contribute without pay the result of their experiments, and the result has been to weld together the workers who a few years ago were confined to the narrow bounds of their little communities for education in their particular science.

Agriculture is destined to remain as much of a science in the northwest as mining. In the long run it will become far more important, for there will be money made from farms long after the mineral fields have been exhausted. Hence the farmer who fails to attend these winter schools is not keeping abreast of the times. He will find himself left behind in the race for wealth and will struggle along with the antiquated methods which marked the efforts of the first settlers.

The rise of the farmers' institutes gives additional dignity to the calling. They will furnish the incentive for more young men and women to adopt that honorable means of earning an independent livelihood.—Spokesman-Review.

The two million and a half mortgage given by the Sunset Telegraph and Telephone company to the Old Colony Trust company, of Boston, is filed at Tacoma. The mortgage is given on property in Washington, California, Nevada and Arizona to secure bond issue and is made a record in each county in which the company has property.

It is estimated that there are from 100,000 to 150,000 acres of hops of the 1906 crop in Washington county, Wash. The majority of these are not of the quality that some have of good hops. The quality of the hops is of great importance in determining their price.

which the growers think they see in prospect. The top price now is said to be a fraction under 9 cents.

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every hand in California. Plentiful early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits bountiful and excellent.

Old ocean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Catalina—where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loafing may be enjoyed as nowhere else. Quiet little spots, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many hot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated merits; the dry, antiseptic, tonic air of the desert may be enjoyed at Banning, Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful trees commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is here accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generations will see California of the south and prolong life.
