A NEWSPAPER'S "STORMS."

The Louisville Courier-Journal prints this statement about itself and its business:

"Assuredly it (the Courier-Journal) has weathered many storms. In 1896 it lost half its daily and nearly all its weekly circulation, but it got back the daily circulation with some addition the two or three years succeeding, and it is slowly, but surely, getting back its weekly, so that for quite a year the volume of its business has been greater than ever it was before. The campaign of 1896 cost it at least a quarter of a million dollars. Yet it still lives, and neither grudges nor misses the money."

To the newspaper people of the country it is highly gratifying that the Courier-Journal, having "weathered many storms," is weathering this latest one also. In the circumstances it is impossible to blame it for seeking reconciliation with the Democratic party, even under the direction of Goebelism; for "he who stands upon a slippery place makes nice of no vile hold to stay him up." The Courier-Journal is published in a community unworthy of it; and if it has been coerced, so was Galileo. But, like Galileo, it knows that truth remains truth, just the same.

In another article the Courier-Journal says it is "riding on a boom at present, its circulation, large before, having, the last few weeks, actually doubled." It will do good work yet, when the stupidity, intolerance and fury that surround it shall have exhausted their forces.—Oregonian.

The hold which Bryan manages to retain on the rank and file of one element of his party, notwithstanding the fact that every sane person in that party sees overwhelming defeat for him at the polls this year, is one of the marvels of politics, says the Astorian. It is a sort of fatalism which is supposed to be foreign to the American character. Though his overthrow and that of his party are seen by the astute members of it to be as certain to come as is election day, yet there is no movement to defeat him in the convention. If the convention were to meet tomorrow he would probably get the entire vote of the delegates. There is no good reason to suppose that he will be any weaker two or three months hence when the convention meets. Men who are as sure that he will be crushingly defeated in November as they are that the sun will rise tomorrow will cast their votes for him in the convention. The entire Democratic party seems to be hypnotized into a cowardice which prevents it from raising a hand to keep him from the nomination, though that will mean, as all sensible Democrats are aware, a disastrous defeat for the party. The abject fear with which Bryan has inspired the Democratic party workers and bosses is one of the strangest of the political phenomena of the time.

Catarrah Cannot be Cured with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials, free.

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every hand in California. Pientous early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits bountiful and excellent.

Old ocean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Catalina—where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loading may be enjoyed as nowhere else. Quiet little spots, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many hot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated merits; the dry, antiseptic, tonic air of the desert may be enjoyed at Banning, Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful tree commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is here accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generations will see California of the south and prolong life.
