THE CLARK CASE.

Senator Clark, of Montana, has given damaging testimony against himself—enough to shut him out of the senate, and not set the standards very high either. Of course the Montana millionaire did not deliberately go to members of the legislature and say, "I will give you money for your votes." Only a dolt would do that, and Clark is nobody's dolt. Senatorial bribe-giving is never managed in that way. The coarse work is done by agents, and usually the transaction is so shuffled around that men having consciences elastic enough for that sort of work can testify on oath that votes were not bought, and not suffer qualms of remorse in doing it.

No, Senator Clark was not raw enough to go around the lobbies with his check book sticking out of his pocket. But his own statements before the investigating committee make it plain that he all but did that. He caused the dissemination of the belief that it was his political maxim to "stand by his friends," and reward those who did anything for him. On his own statement, he checked out between $100,000 and $200,000 in the campaign which led up to his election, and other enormous sums were checked out in his interest by his son and others. As Senator Burrows aptly interjected, he was bound to purify Montana politics, regardless of cost.

After his election, so he testifies, he gave Representative Day $5000 as a present. He bought timber lands from Representative McLaughlin, and negotiated various other deals at times which were either singularly opportune or amazingly inopportune—opportune, if the purpose was to swing the votes of members; inopportune, if the deals were made entirely from business considerations.

The truth, as disclosed by the investigation, and admitted by Senator Clark himself, is that he went into the fight to down Daly and advance his own political ambitions, and was not over-scrupulous about the means employed to do it.—Spokesman-Review.

Dr. Leyds, who has been visiting Berlin, is thus described by Dr. Paul Forster: "His figure is tall, slender and flexible. Two dark, intelligent and friendly eyes look out from a sharp, well-cut, expressive and energetic face. In his black or dark-brown hair there is no trace of old age. He appears not more than forty years old. He has the manners of a complete man of the world." Dr. Forster discerns beneath a rough style of speech the qualities of a diplomatist, and a considerable amount of diplomatic reserve.

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every band in California. Prolonged early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits beautiful and excellent.

Old ocean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Catalina—where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loafing may be enjoyed as nowhere else.

Quiet little spots, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many hot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated merits; the dry, antiseptic, tonic air of the desert may be enjoyed at Banning, Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful tree commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is here accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generations will see California of the south and prolong life.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore.

Notice to the Public.

The Columbia Southern Railway Company will complete its line and be ready to receive forward freight and passengers from Shaniko not later than April 15, 1900. Large warehouses and stock yards will be erected and ready for wool and stock by the above date. Freight rates will be considerable lower than by team from The Dalles. Regular tariff will be published shortly.

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled to Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.
