"In Mizzourt."

The house that greeted the Shaw company last night was enormous. Since the previous night the management had feb21-1mo a gallery built in the rear of the hall to accompdate the immense throng which this popular troupe attracts.

The play "In Mizzouri" is a peculiar one, depteting life in the rural districts of Pike county, Mo. The backwoods dialect, the make-up of the characters, and the situations proved that the Shaw company had all the details down to a fine point. The stage settings, while of course were not handsome, were in taste with the play and could not have been improved in any manner. Each character proved to be just the right person in the right place. Sam T. Shaw as "joe Vernon," the village blacksmith, was indeed as clever as could be desired and brought forth much applause. Louise Carter as "Mrs. Vernon" was a "powerful good character," and portrayed her part in a pleasing manner. Mrs. Nellie Maine Shaw, as "Libette Vernon," brought down the house on numerous occasions by her easy and natural manner upon the etage, considering the difficult role she played. M. J. Hooley as "Dave," the lover of "Libette" and the man who was chicken feed. looking for "a steady job," was one of the best characters in the piece. H. W. Gilbert, as "Jim Radburn," made a for $1 per 15. clever sheriff, while Jennie Kelton as "Kate Vernon," the seminary graduate, was all that could be desired. Al Hallett as "Robt. Travers," the villian, had fittle to do, but did that little well. The other characters were of minor importance, but were up to the standard and did their turns in such a way as to impress the audience with their ability.

The orchestra of the Shaw company is one of the best we have had the pleasure of listening to in the city. The music me, a few bottles cured me." It digests is classical and up to-date, and most what you eat and cures dyspepsia. pleasing. To listen to it is worth the price of admission alone.

Bled Quarts at a

"I am aknife maker and worked for a number of years in the New York Knife Co.'s factory at Walden, N. Y. First thing I knew I commenced to bleed from the mouth. Sometimes as much as a quart of blood would come up from my lungs at a time. Every time I coughed the blood spurted out. It was in the fall I got so bad, and the church people told me I had better make my peace with the Lord and prepare to die, for I would not live till spring. My home doctor couldn't do me any good, but advised me to get to New York City for examination. They finally took me to a medical college, and a whole lot of physicians made what they called a diagnosis. There were several students looking on. One professor had a little ivery hammer, and with this he pounded my chest and held his ear close to listen. After a while the professor looked at me solemnly and declared. One of your lungs is about gone and the other is affected. There may be a slim chance for life if you quit working in that knife factory.' I went back home, but didn't improve. One day I saw an advertisement of free samples of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, being given away by our home druggists. Walker & Eaton. I got one of these bottles, and it relieved me. Then I bought more of the regular size, and my improvement was continuous, although slow. My doctors were astonished and so was I. After dark I hated to spit, because I was afraid it might be blood, and I wanted to know for sure. I have no fear now, for at last I am a solid man again. Although one lung is gone, the other is as sound as a dollar, and answers as well as two lungs, so far as I can see. I want everyone to know the facts and that is why I tell them here," (Signed) A.
