Thomas Harlan, late of Mosier, in this county, who joined the Populists in 1896, after a series of unsuccessful attempts to obtain office at the hands of the Wasco county Republicans, has flopped again and landed this time plump in the camp of untried Democracy. The old man is out in a circular admonishing his late Populist confederates that "there is no place for the Populist party in the present contest" and that the only result of their existence as a separate party will be "to afford aid and comfort to the Republican party." In his new-born zeal Mr. Harlan pretends to believe that the Democratic party, which has not a single cohesive element in its make up except opposition to everything Republican, is "the only party sufficiently organized to be potent for public good." Roaringly sarcastic as this must appear to every man who has an ounce of memory or perception Mr. Harlan gives it to the world with oracular solemnity, and it is a touching sight to see Tony Noltner, the veteran war horse of the Multnomah Democracy, metaphorically patting the bald spot on his new-born brother's pericranium and with tears in his voice tenderly whispering in the old man's ear: "Correct you are, Brother Harlan."

The Oregonian prints another long installment of Senator Simon's speech on the Quay contest which is simply a defense of the methods employed at the legislative session of 1897 to defeat Senator Mitchell. Better a thousand times the Oregonian had "killed" the entire speech. It may do for foreign consumption but it is not adapted to Oregon stomachs. Mitchell held up the legislature and prevented its organization! Corbett never spent a bean to defeat Mitchell! Bah! Who furnished the money to buy the entire Populist delegation? U'Ren openly owned that every man-jack of them, himself included, was bought and paid for "by the enemies of Mitchell." Who furnished the funds to run the harem for the grosser beasts and all the other stimulants and concomitants of royal revelry and debauch? Bury this old stench out of sight for ever, Mr. Oregonian. The more you and Mr. Simon stir it the more it pollutes the air.

President Hammond, of the Astoria & Columbia River railroad, says he knows the men whom Paul Mohr claims to be his backers in the Central Navigation Company's project on the other side the river and he believes "they are recognized as having a good financial standing." An impression of this kind seems to have percolated through the dull brains of us Dallesites for some time.

Mr. Mohr is spending money on his road like water, and if he is not tapping his own barrel he must have easy access to a tolerably big one of somebody else.

Cotton touched nine cents a pound in New Orleans a few days ago. This is an advance equivalent to $20 a bale over the values that ruled a few years ago when the mesmerized cohorts of Bryanism were swearing by all the stars in the firmament that nothing but free silver could save the nation from commercial bankruptcy. It is thus that the accursed gold standard is everywhere getting in its deadly work.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
