AN OLD SLAVERY DOCTRINE REVIVED.

Mr. Bryan, it is said, comes here to teach us that the constitution follows the flag. What Mr. Bryan means is that the constitution of its own force—ex proprio vigore, as the lawyers put it—operates in all United States territory apart from any act of congress. This was the old contention of John Calhoun. It was the doctrine of the Dred Scott decision which led up to the civil war. It was invented to deny the right of new territories to legislate against slavery. The slaveholders contended that the constitution, which protected slavery in the Southern states, followed the flag, just as their lineal descendants do now. The Republicans met this contention in the platform on which Abraham Lincoln was first elected in these words:

"The new dogma that the constitution, of its own force, carried slavery into any or all of the territories of the United States is a vicious political heresy, in variance with the explicit provisions of that instrument itself, with contemporaneous expansion and with legislative and judicial precedents, and is revolutionary in tendency and subversive of the peace and harmony of the country."

Whatever standing the decision of Judge Taney had in constitutional law that decision was reversed by the guns of Grant at Appomattox. And the sum of the whole matter is that we can govern our new possessions in any way that justice, humanity and prudence may suggest.

A thoroughly responsible citizen of The Dalles informs THE CHRONICLE that while in Portland a few days ago a Democratic friend of pronounced ascendancy in Democratic councils informed him that the Multnomah county Democrats were seriously thinking of running Thomas Harlan, the ex-Republican ex-Populist and pro-tem Democratic statesman, late of Mosier, for congress to succeed Malcolm A. Moody. Old Tom has assured his Multnomah brethren that he would go to the Democratic state convention with a solid Wasco county delegation at his back. And why not? To be sure the old man isn't much of a sprinter but he has a record as a flopper that would capture the cake from General Weaver. Our Dalles friend earnestly seconded Mr. Harlan's nomination and predicted that the ex-Mosier statesman would sweep this congressional district like a Kansas cyclone and carry all his old political conferees over to the camp of Bryan. That settles Malcolm's fate, sine die, as it were. We advise him to throw up the sponge.

Col. Bryan is billed to make five or six speeches in this state commencing at Albany March 28th and going from there to Salem, Portland and Pendleton, and, after speaking at several points in Washington, returning to Portland and winding up at Eugene. It will be seen The Dalles is left out in the cold and the more is the pity. There are dozens of things we should like to hear the colonel explain, in view of the fact that there is not a single prophecy he made four years ago that the logic of events has not knocked higher than Gilderoy's kite.

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every hand in California. Pioneers early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits bountiful and excellent.

Old ocean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Catalina—where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loafing may be enjoyed as nowhere else. Quiet little spots, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many hot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated merits; the dry, antiseptic, tonic air of the desert may be enjoyed at Banning, Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful tree commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is here accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generations will see California of the south and prolong life.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore; every bottle guaranteed.

Startling Claims.

Eighty-five per cent of all persons declared incurable or given up to die by physicians can be cured, or their lives greatly prolonged by the beneficent powers of the "Perfected" Oxygen King. This startling assertion is susceptible of proof. We have it in the form of letters from all classes of people "residing far and near" who are delighted to testify to the marvelous curative powers of this latest and most perfected home oxygenating instrument.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Wait, of Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip, and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

"I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my family with wonderful results. It gives immediate relief, is pleasant to take and is truly the dyspeptic's best friend," says E. Hertzgenk, Overisel, Mich. Digests what you eat. Cannot fail to cure.
