Ed Griffin, of Nansen, spent last night in the city the guest of Will Cates.

H. J. Palmer, a prominent citizen of Prineville, arrived here today from that city.

Geo. T. and Mrs. Prather came up today from Hood River and were guests of the Umatilla House.

Jayne Blodgett, of the Ochoco Gold Mining Co. of Crook county, is registered at the Umatilla House.

Mrs. W. C. Latham, of Dufur, brought to town today her little son of five years to consult a physician about his health.

Robert Snodgrass, an old and respected resident of Boyd, is in the city accompanied by John L. Hadley of the same place.

Dr. V. Gesner, of San Jose, late a well-known resident of Prineville, arrived in town today on a business trip to his old home.

M. J. Anderson, the village blacksmith and erstwhile Populist statesman of Dufur, spent last night in the city. M. J. is making money so fast on his new weed-destroyer and cultivator that he pretends to have abandoned politics for good.

BORN.

Yesterday afternoon at the Cushing farm east of town, to the wife of Wm. Cushing, a daughter.

Homicide in Klickitat County.

George R. A. Ferris, a Klickitat farmer, shot and killed a man named Warrell last Monday afternoon on Ferris' farm east of Goldendale. Warrell had rented the farm of Ferris and the latter surrendered himself to the Klickitat sheriff Wednesday and claimed he killed Warrell in self-defense.

The evidence at the coroner's inquest showed that five bullets had entered the dead man's body, and that after the killing Ferris had hitched up a team and dragged the corpse to a place of hiding. Ferris was bound over without bail. The slayer of Warrell is an old offender. About ten years ago Judge Sol Smith, of the superior court of Klickitat county, sentenced Ferris to ten years for horse stealing. Judge Smith was blamed for the sentence on the ground of severity, and after serving seven years in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, on petition of the people of Klickitat county, Ferris was pardoned. The pardon was one of the last official acts of Governor McGraw and was generally approved. It would now appear that Judge Smith decided better than he knew. Public opinion is much incensed against Ferris and this last scrape is liable to send him to the gallows.

Love laughs at county clerks as well as locksmiths. James Withart, of Hood River, and Clara Woods were united in wedlock at Stevenson, March 7, as we learn from the Glacier, and hereby hangs a tale. Jim brought his intended bride here about that date and applied to the county clerk for license. The lady was under age, but Jim had provided for that contingency by obtaining proof of the consent of her parents. Jim, however, thoughtlessly gave in the lady's residence as in Washington and the clerk refused to grant the license. Judge Mays was appealed to but declined to interfere. Jim said he was going to get apliced that very day if he had to go to Portland. He and his intended took the first train for the Locks, crossed over to Stevenson and had hardly struck earth in the metropolis of Skamania before the knot was tied and Jim was as happy as a clam at high tide.

Drying preparations simply developed dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Advice of a Druggist

"It is proper, I think, to let others know about the popularity and virtues of Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. From the moment I began handling it, it sold rapidly, and the sales keep growing all the time as fast as people find out what a remarkable preparation it is. The satisfaction it gives is universal. Our best citizens use it and say it is the best thing for throat and lung troubles they ever saw. Mr. S. H. Culver, one of our prominent townsmen, says Acker's English Remedy is the only medicine that helped his chronic cough of many years' standing. At first it gave relief, and now, after taking a few bottles, he is wholly cured. I buy it by the gross at a time, and my sales are larger up this one medicine than any other in my store. It is a great pleasure for me to feel that while I am prospering I am also doing so much good to the community in selling such a grand medicine." (Signed) R. R. DOUGLAS, Westfield, N. Y.
