Council Meeting.

An adjourned regular meeting of the common council was held last night. All the members were present except S. S. Johns.

A petition, signed by T. J. Driver, T. H. Liebe, J. P. McNerry and about thirty others, praying that the license on male dogs be reduced to one dollar and on females to two dollars, was read and referred to the finance committee.

A petition was presented, signed by six barbers of the city, asking the council to pass an ordinance providing for the closing of the barber shops on Sunday. The prayer of the petition was granted and an ordinance ordered to be prepared for submission to the next meeting of the council.

Marshal Hughes and Councilmen Johnston and Kelly were appointed a committee to secure, if possible, a gravel bed for repairing the streets of the city.

The final ordinance for "determining and declaring the property to be benefited by the sewer system heretofore determined upon and the proportionate share of the cost to be assessed to each of said properties," a document of forty pages of foolscap was brought up and submitted to earnest and protracted discussion but with out result. In the absence of a full board it was finally decided to defer further consideration of the ordinance till the next regular meeting.

Recorder Gates informs us that the estimated cost of the contemplated sewer system—the highest, that is to say, that has been made—is $30,000.

"I Told Him So."

The following letter appeared in yesterday's Times-Mountaineer. Its contents are precisely in line with what THE CHRONICLE has already told our contemporary. Somebody had led the brother astray:

PORTLAND, Or., March 19.—[To the Editor.]—My attention has just been called to your recent editorial entitled "Moody or McCamant," in which you compliment me by the mention of my name in connection with the republican nomination for congress in the second district this year. I desire to say that I am not, have not been and will not be a candidate for this nomination, nor do I think that there is or will be any rivalry between Portland and Eastern Oregon on the subject. I am of the opinion that the Multnomah delegation will be unanimously in favor of Mr. Moody's re-election.

Perhaps I may be permitted to add, that so far from criticizing Mr. Moody for his vote on the Puerto Rican bill, I am in accord with the position he has taken on that measure, and have written a letter expressing my approval of his action.

WALLACE McCAMANT.

Not a "Promiscuous Candidate."

"I will not allow my name to be used by either side or by any factions, and will not allow the subject to take a particle of my time or thought," said Governor Geer to the Salem Journal in answer to a question as to his candidacy for United States senator to succeed Senator McBride. Continuing he said: "The people have elected me governor, and have not asked me to run for senator, and it would be unfair for me to do so, or to do anything else than give them the best service I am capable of in the position to which I was elected." That's the kind of a governor Oregon has. He still insists on not being a "promiscuous candidate."

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I could not even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore; every bottle guaranteed.

Rev. W. E. Sitzer, W. Canton, N. Y., writes, "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat.

Did you ever hear how Mr. _____ of _____ street came to buy a wheel for his wife? Well, he came home one evening, and saw her sitting on the bicycle of the porch, as shown in the picture. He made up his mind then and there that she would look just too sweet for anything on a bicycle. And she does. But the kind of bicycle has a good deal to do with looking sweet. So if you want to look sweet, buy your wheel (as did Mr. _____) of the agent for

Mr. S. S. Harkness, holding ticket No. 10, was the winner of the handsome home altar raffish last night for the benefit of the new St. Peter's church.

Hon. J. H. Welch, of Astoria, was circulating a paper in that town last Monday to find out how many persons wanted to participate in the projected excursion to this city.

The N. Harris dry goods store will soon have a new up-to-date plate glass front. The old unsightly porch in front of the building has been torn down and new awnings will take its place.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce has sent Senator Simon a letter indorsing the stand the senator has taken in opposition to the Puerto Rico tariff bill and trusts. The senator is exhorted to stand fast.

The concert at the Congregational church last night again drew a full house whose appreciation was evinced by their insistence that nearly every piece on the programme should be encored. The net receipts were over $20 in spite of the low price of admission.

We regret to record the death of Albert Frederick Bettingen, the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Al Bettingen, of this city. The deceased was seven years old. The cause of death was meningitis.

The funeral will take place from the Catholic church next Friday at 11 a. m.

It is a safe bet that the sheep are going to vote in Eastern Oregon this year. Said a well-known sheepman to the writer today: "I expect to make more money this year off my sheep than I have ever done in my life." That man will vote his whole band of sheep twice this year to let well enough alone.

A shepherd, whose name is withheld out of deference to his desire at this writing to keep in the cool, sequestered shade, fell into the hands of the nightwatchman last night after a superabundance of Irish disturbance had fallen into him. Two dollars settled his bill this morning with Recorder Gates.

Charles G. Roberts, the well-known wool buyer for the Theodore Bernheim Co., of Portland, stopped over today on his way up the road. Mr. Roberts would not venture to name the price he expected wool to reach during the coming season, but he was fully convinced it would be high enough to make this a very profitable year for the sheepmen.

Professor Gilbert left on the afternoon train for Hood River to attend the First Annual Commencement Exercises of the Eighth Grade, Barrett school, to be held tonight at the Valley Christian church. Sixteen graduates will receive diplomas. State Superintendent Ackerman will deliver an address and Superintendent Gilbert will present the diplomas to the graduates.

The well for the scouring mill is down 50 feet and the work of laying concrete foundations for the machinery and sills, for the immense building goes on apace. If you doubt we are going to have a scouring mill take a walk one of these fine days to the corner of First and Federal. Not that you will be needed there for the job has generally a full force of overseers.

About seventy pocket knives were stolen from a case in the front end of W. A. Johnston's store Monday night. The thief must have been a boy as he obtained access to the store through a small aperture in a back window. Seven of the knives were accidentally found on the railroad track near Peters' mill. No trace of the thief has yet been found. That he was an amateur is evidenced by the fact that a case of razors, much more valuable than the knives, lay close by but were left untouched.

Archie Gilhousen, son of W. D. Gilhousen formerly a photographer of this city, now a resident of Kahoka, Mo., arrived in the city last night. Archie spent his young boyhood days here and went to school with boys and girls, who are now men and women, hardly one of whom knows him when they meet him. He says his father and mother would come back here in a minute did not property interests detain them at Kahoka, and they still hope to come back some day. Archie is a professional singer. He studied music in Boston and has just returned from a professional trip to England where he sang in London and many of the leading towns. He is looking after his father's property on the bluff with a view to selling it.

R. D. Chunley, a well known mining man from the Greenhorn districts tells the Baker City Republican that "the people of The Dalles are doing the best work of any in the Greenhorn district. They seem to be mining in a systematic and thorough manner and they have reason to be encouraged from the way the Golden Eagle is looking at present. The mine is showing stopes of ore which guarantee continual running of the mill for the next twelve months. The company at present have a large force of men at work on the property, and further than this, they are about to commence developments on an extensive scale on Dick Kelly's famous property, the Imperial in Quartz gulch. The company has acquired a controlling interest in this large ledge and is going to commence work at once and put it on its feet."
