WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Girl wanted, to do general housework. Inquire at this office. mch20-1wk
Men's feather-weight silk sweat crashee hats are only $1.00 at New York Cash Store.

Late arrival of men's hats, all the latest, blocks and colors, at New York Cash Store.

To protect their crops from the ravages of the jack rabbit, Goose Lake ranchers, in Lake county, are obliged to build rabbit-proof fences.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will have pies and cakes for sale at Cross' store Saturday. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the church.

The returns from the Sherman county Republican primaries are not all in yet, but enough is known to place it beyond doubt that Sherman county will send a solid Moody delegation to the state convention.

The D. P. & A. N. Company's new boat will be ready for launching in a few days. The long shapely hull, says the Oregonian, rests upon the blocks for the plunge. At present work is in progress on the second cabin.

A dispatch received from Pendleton today gives the result of yesterday's primaries in Umatilla county, so far as they effect the fortunes of Congressman Moody, in these words: "Primaries all O. K. A Moody delegation assured."

Frank New, son of S. E. New of Kingsley, aged about thirty years, was buried yesterday afternoon in the Kingsley cemetery. The deceased succumbed to dropsy after a protracted illness. He formerly conducted a hotel at Kingsley and was highly respected by all who knew him.

Mrs. Edith Davidson, the young wife of B. Davidson, of Hood River, was buried at that place yesterday. The deceased was the youngest daughter of Capt. W. B. Potter, of Belmont. She died in Portland after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. She leaves a husband and one child born about six weeks ago.

W. E. Garretson—Dr. W. E. Garretson, by the way, and the doctor has the documents to prove it—exhibits in his west show window, a mother and four little babies of the pug persuasion, that all day long attract the attention of the passerby, who with tender gaze watches the frolics of the babies and the almost human tenderness of the mother.

Before going to a tailor for the selection of a spring suit or overcoat, step in here and try on a few of the high-grade garments we are showing. We guarantee you will be satisfied and the saving will be about half. Pease & Mays.

"Dad" Butts is playing a fine game. In view of running a fourth time for coroner he some time ago sent to Washington, and under a government frank, got two sacks of sugar beet seed. He is offering a pint of the seed to every man who votes for him in the convention. This is the only case of attempted bribery the Republicans of this county ever had.

The Astoria common council has passed an ordinance for the payment of a bounty of five cents a scalp on rats. The rats may be caught in traps, poisoned, shot or allured to their doom by the ancient and more diplomatic method of putting salt on their tails, or in any other old way. If the shot gun process is adopted the shooter will be fined $2 and the council will come out $1.95 ahead on each scalp.

Senator Simon is the father of a bill before the United States senate that will permit the cutting of timber upon all reserved mineral lands of California, Oregon and Washington. This bill provides that no one but citizens of the United States or bona fide residents of the states named or of other mineral districts will be permitted to cut such timber, and may only be taken for building, agricultural, mining or other domestic purposes.

From the Astoria News we learn that next Monday, 26th inst., is the date fixed for the Astoria excursion to The Dalles. The names of 50 excursionists had been secured on Tuesday and 100 persons are expected to make the trip. The News adds: "The Astorians who will go to The Dalles are assured of a pleasant visit as the people of the up-river are noted for their hospitality." Let us give our friends at the river's mouth such a reception as shall not disappoint their expectations.

Mrs. Whitten, mother-in-law of J. D. Whitten, of Kingsley, died at the residence of her son-in-law Tuesday, 20th instant, and was buried in the Kingsley cemetery yesterday. Mrs. Whitten was over 91 years old. She was a native of the North of Ireland and had been an earnest, devoted member of the Presbyterian church for 75 years. Her death resulted from old age. The candle of life had simply burned out and she went to rest as a child tired and weary goes into a pleasant sleep.

Announcement is made of the appointment of George J. Mohler as superintendent of construction of the Columbia Southern, at the hands of President Lytle, says the Oregonian. Mr. Mohler is a brother of President Mohler, of the O. E. & N. He was formerly general agent of the latter company at Chicago. When the office there and at Butte, Mont., were closed, owing to the close alliance of the Union Pacific and O. E. & N., Mr. Mohler came west and was subsequently given his present position.

A party last Sunday morning hired an iron-grey team of 900 pound horses—a mare and a gelding—a black-bodied buggy with red wheels, and a black calfskin robe with red lining, from Smith Bros., of Grass Valley. The outfit had not been returned at 8 o'clock last night and the Messers Smith fear there is something wrong. Any information on the subject would be gladly welcomed by Smith Bros., of Grass Valley. m22-2t

W. H. Moore, of Moro, tells the Leader that 100 persons are employed on different works in progress in the new town of Shaniko. They all board and sleep in tents. There is only one wooden building yet erected and that is a mere temporary shack which is used by Julius Wiley as a saloon. Men and materials are pouring into the new town every day and a large number of lots have been sold at good prices. A number of people have gone to Shaniko from here, chiefly mechanics and others employed on the works.

Supplementary articles of incorporation of The Dalles Southern Railroad Co. were filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday, says the Oregonian. The corporation proposes, in addition to its original purposes, to construct and operate a railway and telegraph line between Burns, Or., and Prairie City; from a point near Canyon City to a point near Ontario; from a point in Oregon, near the mouth of the Deschutes river, and what is known as Free Bridge, up said river to a point at or near Crooked river. The incorporators are: E. E. Lytle, W. H. Moore and May Enright.

The O. E. & N. steam shovel and crew, that have been operating at Latourelle since the first of January, passed through town today on the way to Colfax, Wash. The crew consists of about 75 men, and while at Latourelle $12,000 were paid the men in wages, a large portion of which was spent in the town. A steam shovel and crew, that have been operating for some time in East Portland, will soon be placed on the road between here and Summit and will probably make The Dalles their headquarters for some months. These crews are doing fine work straightening the road bed and filling in bridges and trestles and doing other work along the line.

Harry Adams and Joe Smith, two veteran teamsters from Antelope and Prineville respectively, arrived in town yesterday. They came over the new grade that Mr. Shearer is building on the Deschutes hill, and they are very enthusiastic in its praise. The new grade goes around the worst part of the hill, namely that portion of it just above the old McAtee place. Messrs. Adams and Smith said their horses walked up the grade without turning a hair, in fact two horses would have pulled their wagons as easily as six did a while ago before the old grade had dried out. Mr. Smith says all the wool men in Crook county, with a possible exception of the Hay Creek Co., will have their wool hauled by team to The Dalles instead of by rail from Shaniko.

We are trying to make our business so broad, so good, so safe that whenever a Dallesite thinks of a place to buy his own or his boy's wearables our name'll pop right into his mind. How? By giving you the best goods made in the United States, by asking you the lowest prices consistent with the "highest quality" of wearables. All the weaves in spring fabrics are represented in this showing—imported plain and fancy chevots, English tweeds, homespuns and oxfords, the herringbone effects and an elaborate display of the always popular blue serges. There's an important feature about our blue serge suits. Our guarantee of fast colors goes with every one of them. They are all here on display that would be a credit to the largest establishment of any city in the United States. If you want quality in your clothes, if you want economy in your expenditure we can interest you. Pease & Mays.

Republican County Convention.

The delegates to the Republican county convention, to be held here tomorrow, are arriving hourly and most of them will probably be here before twilight. Then in the big billiard room of the Umatilla House, far into the night, the merits of the several candidates will be discussed and their respective fates in a large measure decided. There will be no lack of candidates for the various county offices, and Wasco county Republicans can always afford to chose the best for a Republican nomination is practically equal to an election.

We give below the names that are spoken of as candidates for the several offices. If any others are talked of The CHRONICLE has not heard of them. We have heard of no one definitely mentioned in connection with the county school superintendency although, as we are advised, Mr. Gilbert, the present incumbent, may have opposition. "Dad" Butts is the only one who has no rumored opponent. "Dad" has been coroner for three terms. The last two conventions gave him the nomination by acclamation and it looks as if it would be that way in the coming convention. "Dad," however, says if no one will run against him he will maybe get mad and resign, but he won't. It is far more likely that he will hold the office for life and then, dying, will it to his son.

The following are all the names THE CHRONICLE has heard mentioned up to the hour of going to press:

For Sheriff—Robert Kelly, T J Driver; for clerk—Simeon Bolton, A E Lake; for treasurer—C L Phillips, Charles Haight, Henry Darnelle, G J Farrelly, S S Johns, George Miller; for assessor—W H Whipple, C L Schmidt, Asa Stogsdale, F J Flemming; for surveyor—J B Golt, W E Campbell; for coroner—W H Butts; for school superintendent—C L Gilbert; for commissioner—P A Kirchner.

A New Anti-Satanic Party.

A prohibitionist politician this morning handed to a politician of the old, standard grade variety a card containing the following application for membership in the prohibition party, with space for applicant's name, precinct, county, street and post office address:

"I desire that you should enroll my name as in favor of the annihilation of the saloon business, and, therefore, as a member of the prohibition party."

The old liner filled the blank spaces on the card with his name, precinct and so forth, added two or three words, erased two or three and handed it to the prohibitionist who read:

"I desire that you should enroll my name as in favor of the annihilation of the devil, sin, death and hell, and, therefore as a member of the Anti-Satanic party."

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 59 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Did you ever hear how Mr. — of — street came to buy a wheel for his wife? Well, he came home one evening, and saw her sitting on the balustrade of the porch, as shown in the picture. He made up his mind then and there that she would look just too sweet for anything on a bicycle. And she does. But the kind of bicycle has a good deal to do with looking sweet. So if you want to look sweet, buy your wheel (as did Mr. —) of the agent for Sick Headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley & Houghton Druggist.
