STEUNENBURG RESPONSIBLE

Governor of Idaho Talked Straight From Shoulder.

RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ARRESTS

Did Not Know, However, That Any Were Made Outside State—Bull Pen Was a Necessity—It Was Not The Result of a Specific Order, But Was Due to Requirements of the Occasion.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Governor Steunenburg continued his testimony in the Coeur d'Alene investigation today, being cross-examined by F.C. Robertson, attorney for those prosecuting the case. The Governor stated that if any arrests were made prior to the issuance of his proclamation, it was with his authorization and approval, and because of his general authority as Chief Executive of the state. Before General Merriam went to the scene of disorder, the governor had a talk with him, and told him to take such steps as were necessary to maintain order. When further questioned as to just who was responsible for the arrests, Steunenburg said: "I assume the responsibility for every arrest in Shoshone county by General Merriam or any one else."

He was asked if he assumed this responsibility in the case of a man brought from Montana, and amounting, it was alleged, to "kidnapping." Steunenburg answered that if it amounted to that, he assumed responsibility for it. Chairman Hull at this point stated that he had received a letter from Adjutant-General Corbin saying that the war department was not in possession of the official roll of prisoners. The governor went on to testify that he assumed responsibility for any of the arrests made by a deputy outside the state, although he did not claim authority beyond the state. He did not know that his deputies made these arrests, but if they did, he was the responsible official.

Mr. Robertson asked if the regular prison in which the Federal prisoners were confined was not at Moscow, Idaho. The governor did not know of this. The use of the stockade or bull pen was not the result of any specific orders, but was due to the requirements of the occasion. A spirited controversy among the members of the committee occurred, when Mr. Cheney, an attorney for the defense, interposed an objection to one of Robertson's questions. Sulzer interposed a vigorous protest against objections from a private counsel. He asserted that it had become apparent that a majority of the committee, through an attorney, was trying to shift the responsibility. He declared that this was an "outrage on the minority."

Hull replied that he resented the insinuation that the majority represented one side or the other, and denied that the majority had taken any such attitude as that suggested by Sulzer.

KENTUCKIANS ARE ON TRIAL

Goebel Was Shot From Office of Secretary of State—First Shot Was From a Rifle, Others Seemed to Be Pistol Shots.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 23.—Seventy-five extra police officers and deputy sheriffs guarded the outer entrance to the courthouse today, while a file of soldiers stood at the doors and passed on the credentials of persons entering the room. The cause of this display of force was the opening of the preliminary hearing of the Goebel suspects. The general public was excluded. Lexington and Winchester militia companies, armed with Winchesters, were scattered through the various rooms.

Judge Moore convened court at 10 o'clock. The prisoners, the Republican secretary of state, Caleb Powers, W. H. Cullton and John Davis, were brought into the courtroom and took seats by their counsel. The commonwealth witnesses were called, numbering forty. The names of Sergeant Golden was not in the list. Ex-Governor Brown read the warrant against Powers, which charged Powers with being an accessory to the murder of Goebel. Brown asked for dismissal of the defendant on the ground that the warrant was defective in not stating that the crime was committed in Franklin county and did not show the offense to have been committed in Kentucky. Judge Moore overruled the objection to the form of the warrant.

Warden Lillard, of the Frankfort penitentiary, was the first witness sworn. He testified that he was with Goebel when the latter was shot. He walked ahead of Goebel and was just entering the state house when the shot was fired. He looked toward the executive building and saw that the second window of the corner room was slightly raised. This was the office of the secretary of state. He thought the shot had been fired from this room. There were several other shots, but he said they did not come from the same place. The first shot was evidently from a rifle, while the others seemed to be from pistols.

Remarkable Cures of Rheumatism.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

CAPTAIN MAHAN HAS PLEASSED CANADIANS

Naval Expert Believes United States and Great Britain Should Be Bound Together by the Ties of Warmest Friendship.

MONTREAL, March 23.—Captain Mahan is to have the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws entered upon him on April 30 by McGill university. Two interesting letters from Captain Mahan to Principal Paterson, are made public here. In one, he says:

"I am very glad to know that any utterance of mine has given satisfaction to the people of Canada. At this period of the world's history, whatever tends to draw closer the ties of kinship between the United States and the British Empire, whether in its whole or in its parts, is a matter for congratulation. The result of cordial mutual understanding is sure to be reached, provided those of us who realize the importance, can have the patience to bear with the extravagances of opponents on one side or the other."

In the second letter he makes the following observations on international arbitration:

"I do not greatly value arbitration, except in deciding pure matters of fact. As regards the relations of the two peoples, you do not dwell upon what to my mind is the crucial necessity, namely, patience on the part of those who think as we do with the volatile, prejudiced unthinking or malevolent parts of the community. In a way, Great Britain needs this more than we, because your comparatively homogeneous people find it hard to understand the violent utterances and professions of a nation which has not yet reached the stage even of being composite, but is simply heterogeneous with prejudices often akin to the soil. "In this the Irish are conspicuous, and even the Germans do not wholly escape, although, as Americans, they have a higher and more intelligent patriotism. But if it is hard for Great Britain to bear, what is to those of us who see the righteousness and policy of the state endangered by such folly and malevolence as has been shown here lately. There is but one thing—patience; faith as the elements of future understanding between the English-speaking peoples exist so they will progress to perfection if only we are patient in action and endurance."

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

Experience is the best Teacher. Use Acker's English Remedy in any case of coughs, cold or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded. 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, Milesburg, Pa., says, "As a speedy cure for coughs, colds, croup and sore throat One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled. It is pleasant for children to take. I heartily recommend it to mothers." It is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It cures bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and throat and lung diseases. It will prevent consumption.
