THE DALLES, OREGON.

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY - - MARCH 28, 1900

Apropos of the coming of Bryan to Oregon, the Eugene Register makes the following sensible remarks: "The history of this country shows that no man who has been a persistent seeker after the presidency has ever been elected. This is one commendable feature of American common sense. If Bryan had exercised common judgment he would have settled down after the last campaign, stayed at home occasionally at least with his wife and family, studied economics, widened his vision, broadened his views and acquired a better knowledge of the ethics of statesmanship instead of skulking around over the country during the last four years, charging from $150 to $500 a night for speeches and growing rich off the contributions of the people."

Public opinion is undoubtedly against taxing Puerto Rican products even if every cent of the tax collected here and in the island shall be spent on the islanders. Yet this same public opinion would probably approve of the extension of the constitution to the island with its Dingley tariff and internal revenue tax on rum, tobacco and numerous business enterprises, which would be infinitely more oppressive. It is considerations like this that keep thoughtful, impartial minds from hasty conclusions on a subject that unquestionably has more than one side to it.

A country whose laborers strike to have their wages increased from 3 to 5 cents an hour is hardly an ideal place to take our constitution to—tariff laws internal revenue laws and all. And yet "public opinion," unreasoning and unreasonable as it often is, will not brook a mere tariff pitance of 15 per cent of existing rates—with no internal revenue at all—not even when it is backed by the proposition to give all the tax back and charge the Puerto Ricans nothing for collecting it!

It is due to Colonel Bryan to say that the faithful in Portland deny that the colonel is charging anything for his present services in lunting the octopus in Oregon. They explain that while it is customary for the colonel to claim compensation for his missionary labors, it would scarcely be a fault for him to make a charge as an avowed presidential candidate on a tour of education. The colonel's temporary self-denial deserves appreciation.

England has apologized for opening McCrum's mail. England has not apologized for opening McCrum's mail. This the very latest.

This country lent Russia $25,000,000 a few days ago. How much would we have had to lend if Windy Willie had been elected president?

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.
George W. Wait, of Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, Milesburg, Pa., says, "As a speedy cure for coughs, colds, croup and sore throat One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled. It is pleasant for children to take. I heartily recommend it to mothers." It is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It cures bronchitis, pneumonia, croup and throat and lung diseases. It will prevent consumption.

Did you ever hear how Mr. — of — street came to buy a wheel for his wife? Well, he came home one evening, and saw her sitting on the balustrade of the porch, as shown in the picture. He made up his mind then and there that she would look just too sweet for anything on a bicycle. And she does. But the kind of bicycle has a good deal to do with looking sweet. So if you want to look sweet, buy your wheel (as did Mr. —) of the agent for
