

Gentlemen!

'Tis to your interest to visit our Clothing Department before buying your Spring Suit or Overcoat.

Tailor Suits.

Our first invoice of these nobby garments has arrived and is now on sale. We invite your presence to pass judgment upon these goods, as they are the latest cut, style and finish that the leading suit house of New York City has been able to turn out. They were somewhat delayed, owing to the fact that these garments were made to our order and could not be turned out hurriedly; besides their workmanship will stand the most rigid inspection.

Separate Skirts

Are also among this shipment, and are in perfect keeping with the suits in style and workmanship. One of these garments worn with our late shirt waists is just the thing during these delightful spring days.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

For sweet, juicy hams go to J. H. Cross.

There will be a regular adjourned meeting of the common council tonight.

Don't wear shabby hats. Don't fail to see the new styles just received at Pease & Mays.

A. J. Brigham, of Dufur, is now a full-fledged Democrat. That's what comes of monkeying with the free silver lunacy.

The postoffice at DeMoss Springs will be discontinued after the 14th of April. The citizens of that place will receive their mail at Moro.

Henry McGreer and sons, of Antelope, have sold to John Little their mutton sheep at $3.00 per hundred pounds to be delivered at Shaniko on the 10th of May.

Mormon meeting. The Latter Day Saints will hold meetings in the small K. of P. hall tomorrow at 2 and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Hats. Headquarters for all kinds of hats and caps. The latest styles, and only the latest at Pease & Mays.

Died, Friday night, April 6th, on Five-Mile, of consumption, Laura Bullock, aged 19 years. The funeral will take place at Sunset cemetery tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m.

There will be work in the second and third rank at the K. of P. lodge Monday night, to be followed by a smoker, to which all Knights, especially visiting brethren, are invited.

The Sentinel says President E. E. Lyle has announced that as soon as the grading is finished on the Columbia Southern the entire force of graders will be put to work on the Lyle and Goldendale road.

Hats! Hats! Hats! Just received a large consignment of the very latest and newest styles at Pease & Mays.

The "Old Rooster" who edits the Moro Observer announces that "young hens will be taken on account" at the Observer office. Is Brother Ireland going to start a harem or a chicken ranch? Which?

At the M. E. church tomorrow the pastor, Rev. U. F. Hawk, will occupy the pulpit morning and evening. In connection with the morning service the holy sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. Subject for the evening sermon, "What is the Higher Criticism?"

If a darkey waiter should drop a platter of turkey, what four great calamities would befall the earth? Answer—The downfall of Turkey; the overthrow of Greece; the breaking up of China and the surprise of Africa.

The Goldendale Sentinel says the long distance telephone is being extended from Goldendale to Blockhouse and Camas Prairie. A line will also be built across the Simcoe mountains through the reservation to North Yakima, following the old military road.

Messrs. Howard S. and Stanley S. Soule, of the firm of Soule Bros., piano tuners of Portland, will arrive at The Dalles Monday, April 9th. Orders may be left at either Jacobsen's or Nickelsen's music store and will receive prompt and careful attention.

C. Lorensen, who claimed to be a laborer on his way from Portland to Spokane, stopped over here yesterday, fell by the wayside and was duly hauled up by Marshal Hughes this morning before his Honor Judge Gates and fined $3, which he paid and went his way.

Charles Hicke, who had made arrangements to start the Shaniko Lilihee, has changed his mind and bought out the Arlington Advocate. The Moro Leader has been purchased by Sheriff William Holder who will take the plant to Shaniko and establish a paper there.

The Telegram suggests the following ticket for the next national campaign: "For president, Mrs. George Dewey; for first assistant president, Arthur P. Gorman; for second and third assistants, John R. McLean and Richard Croker; for parade exhibition, Admiral Dewey."

Willie Hale, the latest importation from the London Alhambra Theater, is the most wonderful performer in his line in existence. He performs some of the most remarkable feats of club juggling while running on a rolling globe. He is one of the features with the Barlow Minstrels.

Zella, the "Human Ophidian" as he is termed, is the most remarkable contortionist in existence. His performance at the Olympic theater last night was the feature of the already strong bill. He works like lightning and must be seen to be appreciated.—Chico go Herald. Zella is with the Barlow Minstrels.

The Grass Valley Journal is responsible for the story that upon the return home of the Wasco delegates to the late Republican county convention at Moro the city authorities of Wasco fined each of them $5.75 and placed them in quarantine till they were thoroughly fumigated. The story needs confirmation.

Seventy years ago there were twenty-six distilleries in Penn's Valley, Penn., and now only one remains. And yet neither Pennsylvania nor any of the neighboring states has had legal prohibition. The growth of temperance sentiment and practice is due to social and religious influence in the direction of higher morality and more enlightened civilization.

General John Bidwell, prohibition candidate for president in 1892, died at his home near Chico, Calif., Wednesday, from heart failure. General Bidwell was a pioneer of 1841 and the founder of Chico. He was eighty years of age and a native of Chautauque county, New York. He leaves an estate valued at $1,000,000.

Three tramps, or probably highwaymen, giving their names as John Strange, Joseph Scott and Wm. W. Skidmore, were arrested last night by Nightwatchmen Phirman and Alisky and today sentenced to twenty-five days each in the county jail for carrying concealed weapons. Each man carried a big six-shooter, with every chamber loaded, besides, scattered among them, a quantity of powder and cartridges. The men pleaded guilty.

The Oxygenator gives increased vitality to every organ in the body, destroys malignant germs, purifies the blood and assists nature in throwing off disease. There can be no distinction between forms of disease. The Oxygenator cures at one and the same time every form of disease with which we may be afflicted. All curable diseases are within its range of power. And can be applied while you sleep. No medicines; no doctors. Always ready and always reliable. Sold or rented by J. M. Filloon, The Dalles, Oregon. ap7-1wd&w

Johnston Bros. have put in a new wheel and pump for the purpose of forcing water from 15-Mile creek up to their farm a mile and a half from the creek. The pump is the invention of P. M. Wing, of Boyd, and is claimed to be the superior of any pump in existence; besides possessing superior pumping powers, its simplicity of construction prevents it from being continually out of order as is usual with most of the pumps. It is understood that the Dufur water company intend putting in one of these pumps in the near future.—Dufur Dispatch.

The Barlow Minstrels, which appeared here last night, opens up a new era in minstrelsy. The performance was devoid of boisterousness, and the usual rough and uncouth language, which is common with some of the so-called first-class companies, yet the vivid portrayal of the unique attributes and the violent humour of the genuine darkey, was charming in the extreme. The vocal numbers were all given in a manner that took the audience from the start, while the orchestra was all that was claimed for it. The Barlow Minstrels will always find a cordial welcome awaiting them here.—Salt Lake News.

Last night Cedar Circle had its third birthday and its members were out to help celebrate the occasion. After the session closed a program was given, followed by refreshments. After the inner man was satiated, Neighbor Brownhill spoke of the Women of Wood-craft, of which Cedar Circle is the local order. Mr. Brownhill gave a brief history of the order, and Mrs. Stephens spoke of "Our Woodmen" in her usual happy manner. All present said such pleasant gatherings serve to weld the bonds of fraternity stronger, and hoped to have such another evening soon.

Some months ago a cow belonging to Alvis C. Martin, of Victor, swallowed a butcher knife that was in a pan of sliced pumpkins that Mrs. Martin had abandoned for a moment in the yard near where the cow happened to be. The cow, which was a very valuable one, is still alive, notwithstanding that the knife has been in her intestines for over six months. The animal is very poor and the knife seems to be working its way out, as there is a festering lump on her side, through which the macerated food from her stomach is emitted when the animal coughs or is exposed to any unusual exertion.

WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING.

A Tale of the Cascade Locks Orphan Asylum.

The county jail got a new inmate last night who has all the earmarks of a sick customer. He had worked the town yesterday in the interest of an alleged orphan asylum at the Cascade Locks that, he claimed, contained, 300 children. He pretended that he belonged to "God's Regular Army," an offshoot from the Salvation Army. He had a letter-head bearing the written signature of "Rev. Wm. Brown, Major," and claimed this as his credentials. He says Brown has charge of the work at Seattle and that Brown recently ordered him to come to The Dalles and solicit contributions for the orphanage at the Locks. When asked if he did not know that there was no orphanage there he said he did not know and was only obeying the orders of his superior, who wrote him from Seattle that the orphanage had been started there about two weeks ago. From inquiries made by the sheriff and Deputy Sexton it appears the fellow actually collected money on this pretext, thin as it ought to have appeared to Dalles folks, from eight or ten persons whose names, if they appeared in print, would cause a good laugh among their friends. THE CHRONICLE man heard of the fellow's doings yesterday afternoon from one who had just heard of him soliciting subscription from a party in the postoffice.

The sheriff was notified and some time after dark Deputies Sexton and Alisky found this soldier of God's Regular Army in Font's saloon consuming forty-road lightning like a veritable Son of Belial and tucking the slot machine with the funds collected for the orphanage for all there was in it. He was placed under arrest, where he remains pending an inquiry being made by the Portland chief of police to see if he is not the same fellow that, according to a Telegram report, had been working Portland along the same lines a few days ago. The fellow gives his name as H. B. McAlister and claims to be a Scot by birth; but his speech betrays him, for he talks like an Englishman. However that may be, he is undoubtedly a fraud and it is to be hoped the law may be able to get a good grip on him and send him over the road.

It Has Never Failed

Mr. C. S. Peaslee, the well-known druggist of Morgan City, La., is highly thought of in his neighborhood because of his skill and care in filling prescriptions. The best physicians in the place send their patients to his store whenever they can. Anything which Mr. Peaslee may say can be depended upon absolutely. In a letter to W. H. Hooker & Co., New York City, proprietors of Acker's English Remedy, he says: "In all my many years' experience as a druggist, I have never handled a medicine of any nature that gave such complete satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I have sold hundreds of bottles, and have yet to learn of a single case where it failed to cure. In croup, it acts with a certainty that is really marvelous. My wife does not take much stock in medicine, but she has absolute faith in Acker's English Remedy, always having it at her elbow in case the children are attacked by croup at night. It is a positively harmless remedy, as I can personally testify. I know of a little girl who accidentally drank a whole bottle. She was, of course sick at her stomach for a short time, but the sickness passed away, and then the child was in better health than ever before. I can understand why Acker's English Remedy is so efficacious, because I am a druggist. It is not a mere expectorant, but a strengthening, invigorating tonic as well. While it heals the irritations of the mucous membrane, it also builds up the constitution and purifies the blood. I endorse it absolutely."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
