General Otis has been formally relieved of the command of the United States forces in the Philippines and of the Eighth Army corps, and is coming home.

The ladies of the M. E. church will have on sale pie, cakes and other sweetmeats in the vacant store east of A. M. Williams & Co.'s Saturday next, the day before Easter.

The Portland university will go out of existence June 1st, and all the alumni of the Portland institution will be enrolled on the records of the Willamette university at Salem.

Heavy steel rails, wide embankments, stone or heavy gravel ballasted tracks await the coming of the North Coast Limited on the Northern Pacific April 29th, with its big engine in front and observation car at the rear of the train.

The senate having got rid of the Puerto Rican bill for a time, will now plunge into the Philippine question in earnest. It is the intention of Senator Lodge, chairman of the Philippine committee, to press the Spooner bill to an early vote.

The Puerto Rican bill passed by the Senate provides that the silver of the island shall be exchanged on the basis of sixty cents in United States money. As the sixty cents will buy more of what the world has to sell than 100 cents in foreign silver Puerto Rico is in luck again.

A scientist says: "If the earth were flattened out the sea would be two miles deep all over the world." After meditating, a Kansas editor gives out the following: "If any man is caught flattening out the earth shoot him on the spot, and don't be too blamed particular what spot. Most of us can't swim."

B. B. Smalley, Democratic national committeeman from Vermont, and formerly secretary of the Democratic national committee, in an interview on Admiral Dewey's candidacy for the presidency, said that the delegates from Vermont—Dewey's home state—will be for W. J. Bryan.

William Riddell, jr., son of William Riddell, living near Monmouth, was caught under a falling tree while working in the timber and was held fast until his brother, working with him, cut the tree away and extricated him in an unconscious condition. His injuries, while serious, are not thought to be fatal.

Freight for the interior is beginning to move at a lively rate and without diminution as to quantity when compared with other years. At the Wasco warehouse this morning two four-horse teams were loaded for Antelope and three for Prineville, while yesterday three teams were loaded for Prineville and three for John Day.

For one week only—April 9th to 14th, inclusive—we are offering special bargains in ladies' and children's muslin underwear. These are new, fresh goods, just received from the East, and consist of the latest patterns and designs in lace and embroidery trimmed garments. See our west window for display. Remember the bargains last but one week at the New York Cash Store.

McAllister, the fellow who was arrested here for collecting money for an alleged orphan asylum at Cascade Locks, was discharged yesterday, no one appearing against him. He promised to leave town and probably did so. He expressed himself to the county officials as having received great spiritual benefit from his sojourn in the county bastille. McAllister is the "alikeest" customer that has struck this town in many a day.

J. C. Meins received notice today from the commissioner of pensions that a certificate for an original pension had been issued in favor of Isaac P. Joles, of this city, for $6 a month, with back pay from date of application, amounting to about $218. Mr. Joles is a very worthy and honored citizen of this place. He entered the army as a member of an Illinois regiment at the beginning of the war and served all through it, being mustered out at its close.

The cold of the past two nights has been such as to create some uneasiness about the fruit interests. People living near town, with whom we have conversed, are of opinion that no serious damage has been done. A Hood River man said he thought his valley was safe as yet. A resident of Dutch Flat thought the early fruit would be found seriously injured in his section, while a Wamieite said the peaches and cherries were killed in his section beyond redemption. The great fruit belt of the county is believed to be all right so far.

Self-denial week with the Salvation Army ended here Friday night. The net cash result is $65 which is quite gratifying to Captain Simpson, who desires THE CHRONICLE to thank for him the many friends who contributed to bring about this result. The subscriptions ranged all the way from $5 down to five cents, and it need not be said that there were more of the latter than the former. A poor old widow in the country who could not come herself, sent the Captain five cents, which, given out of her poverty, was probably the most generous donation of all.

The features of the week in the house, says a Washington dispatch, will be the closing fight on the Puerto Rican tariff bill. The Republican managers will carry out the program agreed upon in caucus Wednesday, when a special rule will be presented, which will bring the motion in the senate amendments to a vote after several hours of debate. Both sides are laboring earnestly to poll their full strength, but the Republicans appear to be confident that the motion will carry by a safe margin. They assert that the Republican opposition will not be over seven votes, the number who voted against the original bill.

About twenty-five men are at work on the scouring mill. A force of tanners are at work on the roof of the main building and its sides will be inclosed with corrugated iron by tomorrow forenoon. The floor of the building is laid and the brick wall, separating the building from the engine room is almost finished. Work will be commenced tomorrow on the floor and roof of the brick building, formerly the Fitzgerald warehouse. The engine has been put in place, the well is being rimmed to admit of sixty feet of casing and the work all round seems to be rushing about as fast as men and money can do it.

William M. Blakeley, sheriff of Umatilla county, who was appointed on the committee on memorials by the Oregon Historical Society, will go to Walla Walla in a few days there to meet James McAuliff, for the purpose of selecting the place where a temporary monument is to be erected to commemorate the battle fought by the pioneer regiment under the command of Colonel Kelly against Pen-mox-mox and his Indian warriors in 1855. The battle took place just south of the state line, within Oregon, and consequently comes within the field of operation of the Oregon Historical Society. It was a general running fight, covering quite a scope of territory.

Assessor Whipple is busy these days posting up his property ownership book so as to get ready for assessing the county. Valuations, both on real and personal property, will remain the same as last year; but the assessor says he will urge the county board to make a horizontal reduction of twenty per cent on real estate, as he thinks real estate is valued higher here than in most other counties. The following deputy assessors have been appointed. Asa Stogedill for the Wapinitia and Wamie countries; E. B. Wood for Mosier district; C. D. Heinrichs for Hood River valley; A. A. Bonney for the territory east of the Deschutes, and L. B. Thomas for the town of Dufur.

Four strangers, apparently working men, or possibly tramps, entered the brewery barroom about noon today and called for beer. After they had been served, the bartender, who was in attendance, stepped out for a moment to the front door. When he came back he found the till had been robbed and about $20 taken. The men were speedily corralled, but not till the one who had taken the money had hidden it on the outside. The marshal was sent for, and rushing there in Bob Hood's wagon, arrested the four men and carted them to the city jail, where they await the action of the district attorney. One of the men was armed with a horse pistol about a foot long. Shortly after the arrest the money was found at a place near the brewery, where the thief had hurriedly concealed it.

Archey Todd, who was arrested here a couple of days ago for having received money under false pretenses, was discharged from custody yesterday by the advice of the district attorney. Todd had just concluded a term in the Washington state penitentiary for forgery when he arrived here and succeeded in borrowing $5 from the barkeeper at the brewery, under the pretense that he was just waiting to receive $120 that was owing him by a well known resident of the city. Before the barkeeper had time to investigate Todd asked him for $15 more and when the barkeeper assayed to inquire over the 'phone if the money was coming to Todd, the fellow suspiciously skipped out. This confirmed the suspicion that the fellow was a fraud and the barkeeper had him arrested. The county attorney held that no case could be sustained against him and Todd was discharged after being in jail about thirty-six hours.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Unterrified Go Through the Form of Nominating Candidates.

The Democratic county convention of Wasco county met in the court house this forenoon and was called to order by John Gavin. On motion E. B. Dufur was elected temporary chairman and Harry Liebe and S. Stark secretaries. On motion the chair appointed a committee on credentials, one on platform and one on order of business. The convention then adjourned till 1:30 p. m.

At 1:30 the convention was called to order by Chairman Dufur.

On motion the temporary officers were made permanent. The committee on credentials reported 91 persons as being entitled to seats in the convention, and pursuant to the report of the committee, on order of business, the convention proceeded to nominate the candidates for the several county offices.

G. C. Blakeley and R. F. Gibbons were placed in nomination for county judge and Mr. Blakeley was chosen by a vote of 73 to 15.

Thos. A. Ward was nominated for sheriff by acclamation.

The nomination for county clerk was left in the hands of the central committee.

For treasurer, R. H. Weber, John F. Hampshire and H. C. Nielsen were placed in nomination. Mr. Hampshire received 47 votes to 20 for Mr. Weber and 20 for Mr. Nielsen, and was declared the nominee of the convention.

For commissioner, Thomas Bolton, W. J. Harriman and J. R. Cunningham were placed in nomination. Mr. Harriman was nominated by 45 votes, to 24 for Mr. Bolton and 18 for Mr. Cunningham.

For assessor, C. L. Copple and John Filloon were placed in nomination. The ballot resulted in 43 votes for Mr. Filloon and 42 for Mr. Copple, and Mr. Filloon was declared the nominee of the convention.

For school superintendent, T. M. B. Chastain was nominated by acclamation.

For surveyor, Chas. A. Schutz was nominated by acclamation, but the nomination was annulled as Mr. Schutz was a candidate for justice of the peace, W. E. Campbell, the prohibition nominee for surveyor, was indorsed by the convention.

A motion to indorse the Republican nominee for coroner was lost and George Williams was nominated for that office by acclamation.

At this stage John Filloon resigned the nomination for assessor, as it was understood there was some dissatisfaction over his nomination among the Hood River delegates. To appease the wrath of Hood River, C. L. Copple of that place was nominated for assessor and everything was lovely.

The delegates to the state convention and precinct nominations had not been made as we go to press.

JUSTIFIES HIS VOTE.

Senator McBride Not Disposed to Follow the Lead of the Democrats.

Last Wednesday's CHRONICLE contained the following:

Senator Simon says the overwhelming sentiment of his people compels him to vote against the Puerto Rican tariff bill. Malcolm A. Moody voted for the bill. Since then Republican conventions have been held in ten counties out of sixteen in his district, and if from these one single vote will go to the congressional convention against Mr. Moody, there is not a man in Oregon knows it. The senator had better put his ear to the ground again.

Referring to the above Senator McBride telegraphs as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Apr. 10, 1900.

HUGH GOURLAY, EDITOR CHRONICLE:

I am gratified to learn that Republicans of Eastern Oregon sustain the vote of an overwhelming majority of the Republican senators and Republican representatives in congress on the civil government and revenue bill for Puerto Rico. I voted for the bill because it is right. It removes 85 per cent of the duties now in force and empowers the Puerto Rican legislature to substitute its own system of revenue for the temporary measure provided in the bill. I cannot believe the people of Oregon desire me to vote against the only practicable measure of present relief for the distressed people of Puerto Rico nor to impose upon these impoverished people the burdens of our own internal revenue and war revenue taxes instead of the very low tariff left in effect by the bill supported by the Republican majority. I am not disposed to accept the advice nor to follow the leadership of the Democratic party either on constitutional or on economic questions.
