THURSDAY - - - - APRIL 12, 1900

The Oregonian correspondent's report of the late Democratic county convention says: "A motion to indorse the Republican nominee for coroner was lost by a few votes." It was lost by a few votes, sure enough. In fact it is doubtful if half a dozen of the ninety odd delegates voted against it. But it carried just the same. J. B. Crossen, whom somebody had nominated for the office, promptly declined the honor and while on his feet moved the indorsement of "Dad" Butts. Somebody among the crowd of spectators in the back part of the room, in wanton fun and mischief, shouted "No!" The rest of the crowd laughingly joined in the cry; the chairman laughingly said "The motion to indorse the Republican candidate is lost," and thus the honor of a Democratic indorsement was wrested from "Dad" by a crowd, every son of a gun of whom will vote for him on election day.

The Republicans of the First Congressional District who renominated Thomas H. Tongue for congressman Tuesday went farther in affirming their fealty to the gold standard than any convention that has ever met to date. They affirm their fealty to the gold standard as "the only unit of value" and instruct their delegates to the National Republican Convention "to support an unequivocal statement on this line as part of the national platform." And radical as the phrase "only unit of value" is the doctrine is pre-eminently sound. A silver unit of value may do for China but gold is "the only unit" that enlightened civilization has ever found to meet the requirements of a national as well as international standard.

The receipts of the government in excess of expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, are estimated by Secretary Gage at $70,000,000. He estimates a surplus of $82,000,000 for the year ending June 30, 1901. When our Democratic brethren meet in national convention they will "view with alarm" this convincing evidence of national prosperity and practical proof of the fiscal wisdom of Republican administration.

The nomination today of Frank Menefee for attorney of the Seventh judicial district is a fit recognition of a very worthy man and a sound and able lawyer. Mr. Menefee is a native son of Wasco county. He is the honored son of an honored parentage. He was a good boy when he sat at the feet of the writer of these lines and learned the elements of a common school education. He was an exemplary youth when he worked a farm on shares to acquire the means for obtaining a legal education. His matured manhood has not belied the promise of his youth. As lawyer, citizen, friend and neighbor he has won and kept the respect of all who know him. His election will follow as sure as the day follows the night.

The Oregonian pays a handsome and well-deserved compliment to the ability and usefulness of Congressman Tongue. It hopes to see him elected and says "there is no sign that Mr. Tongue will be astray on any great issue to be contended for by the Republican party." This tardy justice to a very able representative is in refreshing contrast with some things that are not yet entitled to be called ancient history.

Registration of Oregon voters closes May 15th. Are you on the list?

No Right to Ugliness.
The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore.
