THE PRESIDENT IS PLEASED

Moody is Congratulated on His Nomination—Hermann Favors a Bill to Allow Grazing in the Forest Reserves.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—Senator Simon called on the President today and showed a telegram he had received from the officers of the Republican State Convention, stating that the administration of the president had been indorsed. The president said very little except to express his gratification. The telegram also contained information to the effect that the Republicans were against the Puerto Rican bill, and the ship subsidy bill, but that the convention had not taken any action upon them.

Representative Moody was warmly congratulated today by his colleagues when it became known that he was renominated for congress by acclamation. Moody has developed into a strong member of the House, taking a stand that is appreciated by the men who are prominent in national affairs.

The secretary of the Interior today sent to congress the draft of a bill authorizing him to make such charge for the grazing of domestic animals within forest reservations as he may deem reasonable wherever such grazing is allowed, the revenue to be expended on the reserves. Commissioner Hermann says: "In some few of the reserves grazing can be permitted without injury to the reserves, where the lands are better adapted to grazing than for forest purposes." He points out that the secretary is permitted to sell timber products, it is equally rational to provide a charge for grazing. The bill is aimed directly at the Cascade reserve of Oregon, and the Rainier reserve of Washington. Although general in its provisions, it will meet much opposition, and its passage is very doubtful.

OPENING OF THE PARIS EXPOSITION

Supreme Effort Made This Morning to Give the Show a Finished Appearance—Few Exhibits Are Complete.

PARIS, April 14.—The Paris Exposition was opened at noon today. Paris was early astir, with people wending their way toward Elysee and in the direction of the exposition, in the hope of witnessing the Presidential procession at some part of its journey. All public buildings and numberless private houses were decorated with flags, chiefly tricolor. The neighborhood of the exposition was especially gay with bunting, while most of the pavilions themselves were surmounted with floating banners.

Within the grounds this morning all was bustle and animation, with a supreme effort to clear away all unsightly obstacles in order to leave an unobstructed road and an external appearance of completeness to the palaces for the Presidential party in its passage through the grounds. Finishing touches were hastily given to the magnificent Salle des Fetes.

The aspect of the exposition has materially improved, even from that of yesterday, and while the installation of exhibits has naturally undergone little advance, the external effect produced by the incessant labors of the past couple of days is already fine and decidedly picturesque.

Contrary to expectation, Premier M. Waldeck-Rousseau made no address at the opening of the exposition, M. M. Miller and Loubet being the only speakers.

Will Reach England Next Week.

LONDON, April 14.—Next week will doubtless be marked by scenes of enthusiasm over the arrival of Sir George White. Despite what was alleged to be his mistakes, it is doubtful if any British General except Lord Roberts is half so popular as is the defender of Ladysmith. Buckles bearing his photograph are already being generally worn; and in this connection it is interesting to note how the English papers once derided as the "American button fad" has come into popularity in England.

The Outlook relates that while Sir George White stood in the Market Place at Ladysmith immediately after the relief of that place, while cheering throngs surged around him and as the congratulatory message of the Queen was being read out, he said, with emotion "England is very kind to me, who has lost her two regiments." The simple pathos, readiness to accept blame and pluck of this man have touched the hearts of the people as deeply as if he had won a hundred battles. Moreover, he is the friend and pupil of the beloved idol, "Bobs."

Remarkable Cures of Rheumatism.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Spain Does Not Own Those Islands.

NEW YORK, April 14.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Secretary Hay has formally notified the Madrid government that the United States cannot accede to its claim that Sibutu Island and Cayayan Su'u, of the Philippine archipelago, belong to Spain. This action was taken in the light of information in the possession of the authorities, showing that Germany is taking a deep interest in the controversy. It is likely that the Spanish government will endeavor to answer the American note, and perhaps will go so far as to object to arbitration of the claims. It is altogether unlikely that the administration will consider any propositions of this character.

His Life Was Saved.
Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I could not even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore; every bottle guaranteed.

Stephen Crane Dying.
LONDON, April 14.—Poor Stephen Crane, who is lying at the point of death, has for the past year been occupying one of the oldest houses in England. It is situated in the loveliest part of Sussex, and is owned by Moreton Frewen. It is called Brede Place, and was built in 1400. In reality it is a miniature castle. There, with straw littered over the stoned floors, with huge old fireplaces burning brightly, and with everything as in the feudal times the man who wrote "The Red Badge of Courage" has been turning out books and magazine stories with an industry for which few who knew him in his younger days gave him credit.

Though perhaps the most American of all the Americans in England, no one in English literary circles is spoken of more lovingly and admiringly than the author whose career threatens to end before he reaches his 30th year. His wife is with him.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, and one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore.

Ore Worth $1200 to the Ton.

KALAMA, Wash., April 14.—Assays of ore from the newly discovered Darnell mine at a depth of thirty feet show values of $299 in gold, $8 in silver and $12.60 in copper. The people of this section are greatly excited. Messrs. Yack and Stevens, of Tacoma, who have obtained a half interest in the mine, are now pushing development work night and day, as former prospecting was done by drill. The present shaft is 5x8 feet, and 16 feet in depth, and assays $1200 a ton at this depth. This is the only tellurium ore discovered in this state, and experts declare it to equal if not exceed that of Cripple Creek.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Wait, of Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Welcome Dewey to Their Councils.

CHICAGO, April 14.—Bryan Democrats have decided to welcome Admiral Dewey into the Democratic party. Such is the position officially outlined in today's issue of the Democratic press bulletin.

"We may accept the Admiral's declaration of his political faith as indicating that he is with the Democratic party at least on an overwhelming majority of the issues it has taken up," runs the article, which is from the pen of Willis J. Abbott, head of the Democratic Literature Bureau. "This is a most gratifying fact. It indicates that should the Democratic party, after mature deliberation, deny the Admiral the nomination which he seeks, it may nevertheless count on his hearty co-operation and his influence in behalf of its efforts to end the evils of McKinleyism by ending the reign of Emperor William."

In commenting on the purpose of his article, Mr. Abbott said: "We are naturally delighted at the prospect of such a distinguished acquisition of our ranks as Admiral Dewey, but of course we expect the Admiral to 'play fair' and accept the good old Democratic doctrine and abide by the result of an honest Democratic convention."

MISUSE OF A WORD.

"Trust" Was Once Used to Convey the Idea of Trusteehip and is Now Misappropriated.

The name trust, which is popularly applied to all these large aggregations of capital, was somewhat accidental in its origin, writes President Hadley, of Yale, in Scribner's. It has, however, an appropriateness which few persons realize. The managers of every consolidated enterprise, whether based on a contract, a trust agreement or an actual consolidation, are exercising powers to benefit or injure the public which are analogous to those of a trustee. It has been said that all property is, in its wider sense, a trust in behalf of the consumer. But where competition is active, the power of using your business methods to impose high prices is so far limited that the chance for abuse of this trust is greatly lessened.

It is only in the case of large combinations, with their discretionary power for good or evil, that the character of the trust imposed by society in the directors of its business enterprise makes itself really and truly felt. With these trusts, as with every other trust that deserves the name, it is hard to provide legislative machinery which will absolutely secure its fulfillment. The ability to handle any trust is the result of a long process of legal and moral education. We cannot make a law which shall allow the right exercise of a discretionary power and prohibit its wrong exercise. But it is possible to modify the existing law in a great many directions, which will hasten instead of retard the educational process. Thus far most of our statutory regulations have been in the wrong direction. We have attempted to prohibit the inevitable and have simply favored the use of underhanded and short-sighted methods of doing things which must be done openly if they are to be done well.

NURSERY CARS.

Here is a Wait from a Bachelor Who is Particular About Traveling Companions.

The innovation of a nursery car upon our railways—or, at any rate, upon the long-distance trains—would be an institution hailed with delight by all men and most women, says the Cincinnati Enquirer.

How many men who do not themselves smoke invariably travel in a smoking carriage because there they feel more secure from an invasion of children and babies than in any other part of the train.

Babies form a class entirely by themselves in the category of unpleasant traveling companions, and there are probably few who at some time in their lives have not had experience of the noisy, sticky-fingered, peppermint-sucking, dear little children, who trample on your toes and deposit luscious, half-sucked gobs of taffy on your trousers in their endeavors to reach the window to put their heads out, whence they are promptly hauled back by anxious mothers or nurses, and cry; or the babies in arms who placidly assimilate milk from a bottle until jolt of the train makes them choke, having at that moment more nourishment than they can possibly deal with; or the inquiring child who plays with the hinges of the door until the guard slams it; or the child who is perpetually feeding, and throughout the journey sits in a semitorpid state sucking oranges, the all-pervading odor of which fills the carriage.

Babies are all very well, but a baby in a railway carriage, like a bull in a china shop, is out of place.

His Abruptness Won.

A charming incident occurred during the recent visit of the princess of Wales to the London hospital. A little blind boy in Mellish ward was sitting on a chair and the princess, seeing him, went up to him and spoke to him. The chairman of the hospital, thinking it would be nice for the lad to know who had been speaking to him, said to him: "That lady who has been speaking to you was the princess of Wales; would you like to come up and make your bow to her and speak to her?" The boy was delighted and jumped off his chair. He was led up to the princess and she was told of his wish, to which she very readily acceded. The bow was made, and then came the speech: "How are you, miss?" a speech which was hardly expected, but which was answered by five minutes' conversation, and the boy returned to his chair proud and happy.
