The Everlasting Topic.

After all, there are few things quite as interesting as the question of dress. While clothes don't make the man, they afford a pretty good indication of their character after they are made. Time was when they told the story of their means, too; but that time is past. By confining your purchases to our store you can follow Shakespeare's advice, "Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy," without bankrupting your exchequer, for we have decided to continue the special during this week of a line of $12, $13.50, $14 and $15 Suits for $9.85. ### WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Karl Gschwendner, a native of Austria today took out his first citizens papers. We have just what you want in soft hats for spring. The New York Cash Store.

Great discount sale in pattern hats and bonnets at Mrs. Phillips' millinery parlors. 16a-2t.

Have you seen those $8.95 suits in Pease & Mays' window. They are record breakers.

The first wool of the 1900 clip arrived in town today, a six-horse load from Tom LaFollette & Co., of Prineville.

The American market had on sale today a lot of fine fat crabs, which had been shot in the Blalock neighborhood.

Subscriptions are being raised by the residents of Juniper Flat to extend the telephone line from Tygh to Wapinitia.

Just arrived—a new lot of neckwear for gentlemen. Latest designs and colors. Be sure and see them at the New York Cash Store.

Mrs. Phillips is closing out the entire line of children's head wear at less than 25 cents on the dollar. The greatest bargains ever known. 16a-2t

Have you seen those "ewell" shirts at the New York Cash Store? All styles, stiff and soft bosoms, just received. Come early and get your pick.

Mr. Dalrymple, on the Floyd place, reports an increase of over one thousand lambs from a band of less than a thousand ewes, including a small percentage that had no lambs.

Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, leader and founder of the Christian Science church in this country, is reported seriously ill at her home in Concord, N. H., with a cancerous trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch McLeod are in the city from Kingsley. Mr. McLeod says no fruit has been injured in his immediate vicinity, for the sufficient reason that the buds on the trees had not advanced far enough.

Williams & Co. prophesied a nice day Easter Sunday, and those of their customers who bought an Easter suit on their recommendation were not disappointed, for in truth we enjoyed as nice a day yesterday as the most friendly weather man, with the best intentions could possibly have furnished.

A. E. Crosby, for many years the efficient pharmacist in the employ of D. J. Fry, Salem's pioneer druggist, has accepted a position with Blakeley & Houghton, wholesale and retail druggists of The Dalles. Mr. Crosby expects to leave for The Dalles about May 10th and will shortly thereafter be followed by his family.—Statesman.

Yesterday morning the Regulator attempted to climb the rapids below the big eddy, so as to land a cargo of ties for the portage road, but failed. One attempt was sufficient to convince Captain Alden that the thing was impossible at the present stage of the river. The ties will have to be taken across the river some other way.

The Oregonian tells of a naturalized citizen who wanted to register, but had not seen his citizen papers since forty years ago when he sent them to Washington when making final proof on land. Binger Hermann was asked to hunt up the papers and did so promptly. There is a pointer here for men who are in any measure similarly situated.

Frank Slocum and wife were passengers on the Regulator this morning bound for Collins' Landing, where their son, Frank, awaits their arrival. They arrived here yesterday from Minnesota, bringing with them thirty-two head of dairy cattle and six head of work horses, besides some household and other effects. They will make their future home in Skamania county.

THE CHRONICLE publishes a market report in each Saturday's semi-weekly. It includes the leading staples handled here. It will be enlarged as circumstances may require and every effort will be made to make it correct and reliable. It will be carefully corrected each week just before going to press. It ought to be worth to the farmers of Wasco county the whole price of the paper.

The committee in charge of the Easter entertainment and sale, to be held at the Baldwin on next Thursday evening, has been especially fortunate in securing

Mr. John Hampshire, who will appear in an original comedy sketch, assisted by some of our best local talent. The sale tables will be loaded with articles, both useful and ornamental, from blue Monday's clothes pins and bluing tags to Saturday's baking.

Everybody in Oregon knows how intensely President McKinley is hated by the editor of the Oregonian. Mr. Scott, strangely enough, was a delegate to the Republican state convention. A Dalles delegate tells that at one time when somebody in the convention was reading a resolution indorsing the administration of Mr. McKinley, Mr. Scott, to the great amusement of the convention, made a rush for the door as if the very mischief was after him.

Arthur Hodges, who was nominated by the Crook county Republicans for county clerk, has been in that office as deputy and clerk for eighteen years. Uncle Frank Nichols, the Republican nominee for treasurer, has been holding that office since a while after Noah left the ark, and the Crook county Democrats have got so used to Uncle Frank's election every two years that most of the time they cannot get a man to run against him.

Among the productions to be seen here tonight is "Have You Seen Smith," a farce comedy somewhat in advance of the old familiar style so much in vogue for the past few seasons. It was produced last season and achieved an instantaneous success. The list of artists engaged in the presentation is particularly strong individually and collectively, and embraces such entertainers as Lew Carroll, Harry Earl, Edwards & Kernell, Nick Judel, Grace Leonard, Maud Aiston, Mabel Williams, Adelaide Starr and others equally well known.

Wm. J. Landers, resident manager of the Lion and Imperial Fire Insurance Companies, wishes to announce to the patrons of these companies that owing to the sickness of Mr. C. E. Bayard and the resignation of Mr. Hugh Gourlay, their former agents, the agency for both companies for The Dalles and vicinity has been placed in the hands of Mr. Timothy Brownhill. Any business given to Mr. Brownhill will receive prompt attention and will be appreciated by the companies. Office in C. E. Bayard's old stand. No. 85 Washington street, The Dalles, Oregon. 16b-1m

Dr. Hudson, of this city, has received a letter from the asylum authorities at Salem saying that hopes are entertained that Dr. Hogan of Condon may be restored to health. It may be remembered that Dr. Hogan was sent to the asylum from here about a month ago with symptoms something like those of softening of the brain. The poor man's memory was a complete blank and the most pathetic thing about it was the fact that he knew his infirmity and touchingly begged his friend, Dr. Hudson, to have him sent to some place where he would be taken care of.

The Democrats nominated Judge A. S. Bennett for joint senator for Wasco, Crook, Klamath and Lake counties. Hon. E. B. Dufur is the nominee for joint senator of Wasco and Sherman. The nominees for representatives for Wasco, Crook, Klamath and Lake are: G. T. Baldwin of Klamath, G. Springer of Crook and S. P. Moss of Lake. For Wasco, Grant, Sherman and Gilliam: W. J. Edward of Gilliam, T. R. Coon of Wasco and Robt. Misener of Wheeler. No nomination was made for attorney for the Seventh Judicial District to oppose Frank Menefee, but one will probably be made by the central committee later on.

The day of the plain pink and baby blue has gone and the theatrical sou-brette has been obliged to discard her regulation "fluffy" short skirt and adorn herself in more pretentious gowns. The growing demands of the lady patrons of the theater for the display of more attractive dresses on the stage has been recognized by managers, and they are making a bid for feminine trade by expending considerable sums in the purchase of elaborate and costly dresses. Rumor has it that the female members of "Have You Seen Smith" company are setting a pace in the expensive wardrobe line. One exchange has gone so far as to mention them as "symphonic poems in bizarre confections."

John W. Minto, United States deputy collector of internal revenue, has been in the city for the past four or five days examining the records at the clerk's office. Mr. Minto compliments the county officials by saying that the records as a whole are among the best kept he has met with. He found only two or three violations of the internal revenue laws, where the lawyer who drew up the deed or mortgage forgot to put on the stamp required by law. In one case the omission was made by one of the oldest, ablest and best known members of the Portland bar. As these violations of the law were evidently unintentional, the parties will be notified to conform to the law. It may be well for parties to mortgages to remember that when a mortgage contains a copy of the note for which the mortgage is security, a copy of the mortgage must note on its face the fact that the note was stamped according to law.

Nothing can better attest the steady growth of The Dalles than the fact that at the end of the present postoffice fiscal year, June 30th, The Dalles will be entitled to free mail delivery. This is beyond any shadow of doubt. The gross postal receipts for the past nine months, which includes all receipts except those from the money order business, are such that receipts from stamps during the next three months, if only a little over half what they were for the corresponding months of last year, will make up the full amount required by law in order to be entitled to free delivery, namely $10,000. Postmaster Riddell is assured they will be little short of $11,000. When the year is up he will get up a petition to be sent to the department and have it placed in the hands of the congressman from this district, and there is every reasonable expectation that we will have free delivery before the summer is ended. The other towns in the state having free delivery are Portland, Salem, Astoria and Baker City.

The common council met Saturday night and passed the sewer ordinance. The vote stood five to four. Those voting for the ordinance were W. A. Johnston, S. S. Johns, Frank Gunning, Charles F. Stephens and Jas. L. Kelly. Those voting against it were Dr. Shackelford, Fred W. Wilson, Andrew Keller and J. M. Toomey. The ordinance contemplates the construction of a sewer system below the bluff at a maximum cost of $30,000. It is believed, however, that the actual cost will not exceed much more than two-thirds of that sum. The cost is to be met by taxing the property to be benefited and the payments are to be made in installments during the coming months of July, August and September. There is no doubt that the construction of a sewer system of such magnitude and at this particular time meets with strong opposition, and no one will be surprised if the opposition takes active shape. When a man has to go down in his pocket and pay $2,800, the amount of one property owner's assessment, which is mentioned only as a sample, it is not surprising that he should kick.

Progress Towards Organization.

The young men of the Students' Literary Club are making steady progress towards organizing either a branch of the Y. M. C. A. or a society or club that shall work along Y. M. C. A. lines. A committee appointed by the Students' Literary Club has conferred with the Commercial Club and with the leading religious organizations of the city. The result is the appointment of a committee from each of these bodies who will meet together some day—not yet fixed—this week and agree upon the character of the new organization. H. W. Stone, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Portland, will stop over on his way home from the East and give the meeting the benefit of his knowledge of the workings of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Stone promises to telegraph Mr. Brownhill when he will be here and a meeting of all the committees will then be called. The following are the committees of the several bodies, the whole of whom constitute what may be called a Committee on Organization:

Methodist church—Messrs. Will Condon, N. Wheaton, S. Bolton, Rev. U. F. Hawk.

D. C. & A. Club—Messrs. C. L. Phillips and E. Kurtz.

Episcopal church—Messrs. D. L. Vause, T. A. Hudson, J. F. Moore.

Congregational church—J. M. Huntington, Miss Nau Cooper, Mr. Merrell, Rev. D. V. Poling.

Baptist church—Messrs. Woodworth, Allaway, Johns, and Rev. Clifton.

Christian church—Messrs. Whetters, Egbert, O'Brien, and Rev. G. Rushing.

Salvation Army—Captain Simmons.

Students' Literary Club—Dr. Sanders, Clyde Riddell, Timothy Brownhill, Joseph McArthur.

W. C. T. U.—Messdames Barnett, Parkins, Lemison, Lonnell, Rushing.
