

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

Is It Another Sample of Democratic Crookedness?

THE CHRONICLE has dropped on a card that appears to have been distributed freely around the city, which purports to be the third plank in the Democratic state platform. It styles itself "Railroad Plank in State Democratic Platform" and pretends to have been adopted by the Democratic state convention at the suggestion of railroad men. It is therefore evidently for railroad-men consumption. The plank is harmless enough, if we accept the first sentence, which is simply a repetition of the concession made to free riot in the Democratic national platform of four years ago. But the peculiar thing about it is that it did not appear in any copy of the platform that was published at the time of the convention, nor has it appeared in any of our exchanges save one, a semi-socialistic sheet published at Pendleton, and then only by itself and under the same suspicious circumstances that characterize its appearance here. If it is a new plank, by what authority is it pretended to be a part of the Democratic platform? If it was in the original platform, why was it that another raw and crude production was substituted for it? Is it possible that some timid souls have shrunk from the raw socialism of the original plank and, fearing its effect among a most intelligent class of voters, the railroad men of Oregon, have, without the authority of the convention, substituted this mild and harmless corrective?

THE CHRONICLE cannot answer these questions, but it gravely suspects crookedness somewhere. However, it publishes both planks in parallel columns that its readers may know what is going on:

ALLEGED RAILROAD PLANK.

"We are opposed to government by injunction, as applied to labor troubles and strikes, and the resulting deprivation of the right of trial by jury to men who are charged with criminal acts. We believe in the passage of an employer's liability act, applicable to railroad companies, similar to such acts now in force in other states, by which the doctrine of fellow service, and that an employer is not liable in case of injury by the negligence of another, shall be abolished. And we also believe that where the injury is caused by the negligence of the master, the mere fact the employee knew of the negligence and continued in employment, should not defeat his recovery. And we pledge our members of the legislature to favor legislation along these lines, and also opposing or extending the limit of recovery for the death of an employee."

"We further favor a reasonable supervision and limitation of the operation of railroad trains, and of the number of cars which may be hauled in a train; and a limitation of the hours which employes shall work without rest. We further believe the legislature should pass laws by which the books of a railroad corporation should be open to inspection by the proper officials of the state, so that a reasonable rate law may be established, and reasonable wages be secured for employes."

ORIGINAL PLANK.

"We oppose government by injunction and the black list and favor arbitration as a means of settling disputes between corporations and their employes, and recognizing the fact that a corporation is a creature of law, we believe in and favor a reasonable supervision by state inspection, of mines, machinery, manufactories and railways to the end that injury to employes be avoided and life rendered secure; we favor the passage of a reasonable employer's liability act similar to those enacted in other states."

Catarrh is Not Incurable

But it can not be cured by sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures which reach only the surface. The disease is in the blood, and can only be reached through the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which can have any effect upon Catarrh; it cures the disease permanently and forever rids the system of every trace of the vile complaint.

Miss Josie Owen, of Montpellier, Ohio, writes: "I was afflicted from infancy with Catarrh, and no one can know the suffering it produces better than I. The sprays and washes prescribed by the doctors relieved me only temporarily, and though I used them constantly for ten years, the disease had a firmer hold than ever. I tried a number of blood remedies, but their mineral ingredients settled in my bones and gave me rheumatism. I was in a lamentable condition, and after exhausting all treatment, was declared incurable. Seeing S. S. S. advertised as a cure for blood diseases, I decided to try it. As soon as my system was under the effect of the medicine, I began to improve, and after taking it for two months I was cured completely, the dreadful disease was eradicated from my system, and I have had no return of it."

Many have been taking local treatment for years, and find themselves worse now than ever. A trial of S. S. S. For the Blood will prove it to be the right remedy for Catarrh. It will cure the most obstinate case.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children
"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

Wm. J. Landers, resident manager of the Lion and Imperial Fire Insurance Companies, wishes to announce to the patrons of these companies that owing to the sickness of Mr. C. E.
