IMPORTANT TESTIMONY.

There is no man living who ought to have a better knowledge of the real condition of the people of Puerto Rico than Governor General Davis, and no man had greater influence with congress in the matter of formulating the policy that is embodied in the Puerto Rican bill. Here is a statement made by General Davis on March 31st while the bill was under discussion. It abundantly justifies the wisdom, not to say humanity, of the policy of the administration:

"If congress should adopt free trade the receipts of the custom houses would naturally cease. One million five hundred thousand dollars have been collected during the fiscal year, and with free trade this would fall off. What then will run the island? If free trade is adopted I cannot see how the necessary funds for conducting the affairs of the island are to be raised by myself or those who succeed me. Two million dollars are the present expenses and this amount will be needed annually. There is only a small revenue incoming from stamps, liquors, tobacco and mercantile licenses, and it is impossible to collect taxes because of the conditions."

The Republicans of Oregon are equal to any emergency, says Tony Noltner, the old Democratic war-horse of the Portland Dispatch. What appeared like an insurmountable obstacle a few weeks before the meeting of the convention and threatened the disruption of the party, was not sufficient importance to receive even a passing notice. When the Republican managers run up against a hard knot they let it alone and go around it. The Democrats, on the contrary, are always hunting up hard knots to run against. The latter has too many platform constructors—and a want of sense.

THE CHRONICLE, it need not be said, is not the organ of Senator McBride, or of anybody, but it cannot help rising to remark that as between Senator McBride, a clean, honorable, hard-working public servant, and Ex-Senator Corbett, a senile, old simpleton whose money debaunched an Oregon legislature and who allowed Simon to reap the usufruct after the latter had pulled the old man's leg for all there was in it. THE CHRONICLE is for McBride every day in the week. If McBride had as much money as Corbett and, to borrow the phrase of another, were as easily flimflammed out of it as that distinguished relic of a pre-historic age, the Oregonian and Telegram would speak of him as Oregon's distinguished senator and statesman.

The Democratic state platform condemns the "present Republican congress for obeying the demand of the trusts for a tariff upon goods imported to Puerto Rico," etc. This plank is the child of ignorance or mendacity. Whatever its parentage the statement bears on its face the evidence of its own absurdity. The world does not know of an instance where a trust has asked for protected raw materials. Democrats and recreant Republicans like Simon who voted for free trade with Puerto Rico, voted for the very thing the trusts wanted.

The first copy of the Shaniko Leader came to hand today. It is a clean, handsome eight-column sheet, well edited and full of bright, well-told paragraphs of local and personal happenings of the new town. There is no mistaking its politics. It is Republican to the core. Brother Halter probably could not straddle the fence if he tried to, and evidently does not want to even if he could. We welcome this new addition to the Republican journalism of Wasco county.

The chances are now a hundred to one that the neighborhood of The Dalles will this year have the largest fruit crop ever harvested here. Thousands of bushels of the finest fruit in the world will go to loss unless something is done, and done soon, to establish a fruit cannery. Here surely is an opportunity for a safe and profitable investment in a business that would increase in magnitude with each passing year.

The Silver Republicans of Minnesota have changed their name to Lincoln Republicans. Does not Shakespeare or somebody say that asafetida would smell just as bad if you called it attar of roses?

A Testimonial from Old England.
 "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinesdale, Ill., writes, "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases.
