

TRUSTS BENEFIT RICH AND POOR

Any Aggregation of Capital Which Has Control of the Market to Consumers' Detriment for Its Object Will Fail, but Trusts, Properly Conducted, Will Be a Benefit to All Classes.

New York, April 27.—Andrew Carnegie in an essay on the May Century entitled "Popular Illusions About Trusts," advocates great aggregations of capital as of benefit both to rich and poor. He says:

"Every attempt to monopolize the manufacture of a staple article carries within its bosom seeds of failure. Long before we could legislate with much effect against trusts there would be no necessity for legislation. The past proves this, and the future is to confirm it. There should be nothing but encouragement for these vast aggregations of capital, for the manufacture of staple articles.

"As for the result being an increase of prices to the consumer, beyond a brief period, there need be no fear. On the contrary, the inevitable result of these aggregations is finally and permanently to give the consumer cheaper articles than would have been otherwise possible to obtain; for capital is stimulated by the high profits of the trust for a season, to embark against it. The result is very soon a capacity of production beyond the wants of the consumer, and as the new works erected are of the most improved pattern and capable of producing cheaper than the old works, the vulnerable trusts are compelled to buy and capitalize at two or three times their cost. There is thus no danger ahead to the community from trusts nor any cause for fear.

"Competition in all departments of human activity is not to be suppressed. Already the ghosts of numerous departed trusts which aimed at monopolies have marched across the stage of human affairs, each pointing to its fatal wound, inflicted by that great corrective—competition. The only people who have reason to fear trusts are those who trust them.

"We conclude that this overpowering, irresistible tendency toward aggregation of capital and increase of size in every branch of product cannot be arrested or even greatly impeded and that, instead of attempting to restrict either, we should hail every increase as something gained, not for the few rich, but for the millions of poor, seeing that the law is salutary, working for good and not for evil.

"Every enlargement is an improvement, step by step, upon what has preceded. It does not tend to make the rich poorer, but it does tend to make the poor richer in the possession of better things and greatly lessens the wide and deplorable gulf between the rich and the poor.

"Superficial politicians may for a time deceive the uninformed, but more and more will all this be clearly seen by those who are not led to regard aggregations as injurious."

Trouble in Swaziland.
LOURENCO MARQUES, April 27.—Swaziland runners report that the recent visit to the Queen of Swaziland by Sir Ellis Ashmead Bartlett has not checked the killing.

The Swazi Queen has placed the former king's brother on the throne, a boy of 18. She argues that as she will have to answer for the death of Sebege, she may as well continue killing, and she has given the chiefs permission to kill whom they please throughout the whole of Swaziland.

The commandos ordered to the front are obeying reluctantly. One burgher who has escaped injury in a number of battles admits that the Boers have fired upon the Red Cross frequently.

The sending of General Cronje to St. Helena has greatly enraged the Boers, who are said to be more than ever determined to fight to the death.

Loss of $17,000,000.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 27.—Over five square miles of territory burned over, more than 2000 buildings destroyed, seven lives lost, 7000 men, women and children homeless, and a property loss of $17,000,000, according to the latest estimate, insured for about half its value, are the results as viewed tonight of the destruction which swept this city and Hull yesterday and today. Although under control for many hours, the flames were not entirely extinguished until noon today.

Banks Fail of Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—According to the reports of the savings banks of the state to the bank commissioners of the condition of business on March 31st, there has been a material increase in business since November 30th. The gain in deposits of the forty-four banks outside of this city in four months amounted to about $1,500,000. The gain in the deposits of the city and the country savings banks, fifty-three in number, during that time was $4,742,000.

Money for the Sufferers.

OTTAWA, April 27.—The government, at a cabinet meeting today, decided to give $100,000 to relieve the sufferers of the Ottawa and Hull fire. The city council has decided to give $10,000.

MONTREAL, April 27.—The Bank of Montreal has telegraphed $100,000 to the Ottawa sufferers.

CHICAGO, April 27.—Mayor Harrison today opened a subscription for the Ottawa, Ont., fire sufferers.

BURGHERS NOT YET TIED UP.

French May Score Considerable Success in Isolating Straggling Bodies; But It is Not Believed He Can Intercept the Main Force.

LONDON, April 27.—2 p. m.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from Lord Roberts:

"Bloemfontein, April 27.—At the request of the high commissioner, General Warren has been appointed governor of Griqualand West, while that part of the country is in a disturbed condition."

This curious dispatch constitutes all the war news received up to this hour. The country is eagerly waiting to hear whether General French succeeded in cutting off the retreating Boers, but of his progress there is no word.

The military critics of the afternoon newspapers differ as to the chances of another Paardeberg, but they agree in considering the situation in the Free State as being eminently satisfactory. They argue that even if General French is unable to intercept the main Boer forces, he may score considerable success in a series of rear-guard actions, or the isolation of straggling bodies.

Lord Roberts' reference to Sir Alfred Milner, over Warren's appointment, lends itself to the inference that the commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa scarcely approves of it, and that the previous report that Warren had been recalled was correct, but that he was saved from coming home by the action of the British high commissioner.

The work of entrenching Pretoria is proceeding.

Spanish News from Cuba.
MADRID, April 27.—A commercial house here has received a dispatch from Cuba saying that Jesus Rabi, the Cuban leader, has headed an "insurrectionary" movement in the Province of Santiago, which the sender of the dispatch "believes to be supported by the chief towns of the province."

A TRICK FOR HALLOWEEN.

It is Called "Clairvoyance" and Will Mystify and Entertain.

A game that is not entirely new and yet especially appropriate for Halloween is known as "clairvoyance." It is especially enjoyable for an evening of mystery, because it always proves mystifying to the uninitiated. Take some particular person who understands the game to play the role of medium, send her from the room, an empty chair being reserved for her next to the person who is in collusion with her. When she leaves the room some word is determined upon by the rest of the party, for instance "horse," and when the medium returns her task is to tell what the word is without any questions. She is summoned, sit down next to her friend, and while all present are seated in a circle, with joined hands, the one who was in the room, and hence knows the word, spells it to the medium by tapping with a finger upon the palm of her hand, the number of taps being equal to the number of letters in the alphabet. For instance, eight taps for H, then quite a pause; 15 taps for O, etc. When the medium announces the word successfully, those not knowing the secret cannot understand it at all, and it is even more mystifying when it is explained that it is based upon some peculiar mental action.—Phebe Westcott Humphreys, in Woman's Home Companion.

New Millinery.

Picturesque hats in Tuscan straw, with high crowns and turned-up brims, borrowed from the empire period, are among the most select fashions of the moment, which have not become general, and so the more commend themselves to the notice of the well-dressed. Many of the brims are covered with puckered black tulle, a little jet here and there; long ostrich plumes lying on either side of the brim falling on the hair at the back, starting from a paste ornament. Two or three shades of straw mingle in the same hats, especially in greens and mauves, and there are many new colors; a pink that tones into brown, a blue with a close affinity to green and a mauve that might be magenta. Lavender and slate color are mingled, and wings are placed under the brims as much as over. Black is worked in white chenille and silver, and the wings and aigrettes are covered with jet, but a pink rose finds its way somewhere in most millinery models.—Washington Star.

Macaroni with Mutton.

Remove fat and skin from cold roast mutton, cut the meat into small, thin slices, season with salt and pepper. Butter a dish, put in a layer of meat, then cold boiled macaroni and moisten with tomato sauce; so continue until all is used. Cover with crumbs and bits of butter and brown in the oven. To be served as soon as it is done, or it will be dry. French macaroni may also be used, after it has been boiled in salted water until tender. When it will cut easily it is done. It takes about 20 minutes.—Ladies' World.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinsdale, Ill., writes, "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases.

RHEUMATISM

Is due to an acid poison which gains access to the blood through failure of the proper organs to carry off and keep the system clear of all morbid, effete matter. This poison through the general circulation is deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the most intense pain.

Rheumatism may attack with such suddenness and severity as to make within a few days a healthy, active person helpless and bed-ridden, with distorted limbs and shattered nerves; or it may be slow in developing, with slight wandering pains, just severe enough to make one feel uncomfortable; the tendency in such cases is to grow worse, and finally become chronic.

Like other blood diseases, Rheumatism is often inherited, and exposure to damp or cold, want of proper food, insufficient clothing, or anything calculated to impair the health, will frequently cause it to develop in early life, but more often not until middle age or later. In whatever form, whether acute or chronic, acquired or inherited, Rheumatism is strictly a Blood Disease, and no liniment or other external treatment can reach the trouble. Neither do the preparations of potash and mercury, and the various mineral salts, which the doctors always prescribe, cure Rheumatism, but ruin the digestion and break down the constitution.

A remedy which builds up the general health and at the same time rids the system of the poison is the only safe and certain cure for Rheumatism. S. S. S., made of roots, herbs and barks of wonderful solvent, purifying properties, attacks the disease in the right way, and in the right place—the blood—and quickly neutralizes the acid and dissolves all poisonous deposits, stimulates and reinforces the overworked, worn-out organs, and clears the system of all unhealthy accumulations. S. S. S. cures permanently and thoroughly, and keeps the blood in a pure, healthy state.

Mr. J. O. Malley, 123 W. 13th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eighteen months was so terribly afflicted with Rheumatism he was unable to feed or dress himself. Doctors said his case was hopeless. He had tried fifty-two prescriptions that friends had given him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a rheumatic pain since. This was five years ago.

We will send free our special book on Rheumatism, which should be in the hands of every sufferer from this torturing disease. Our physicians have made blood and skin diseases a life study, and will give you any information or advice wanted, so write them fully and freely about your case. We make no charge whatever for this service. Address, SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
