SPARROW KILLING.

It is Made a Profitable Business in One Section of the State of Illinois.

There is apparently no limit to the industries of the westernland. A unique pursuit is that which obtains in its greatest glory in Illinois. Near Nilwood, a small station north of Carlinville, the "sparrowist" operates with an enthusiasm entirely worthy of the dollars his occupation brings him.

The "sparrowist," be it understood, says the New York Herald, is any person of uncertain or uncertain age who by hook, crook or any other way may do to death one or more of the common or garden sparrows which are personae non gratae in the Nilwood neighborhood. Sometimes the "sparrowist" sprinkles lime in the places where the little birds are wont to congregate. Sometimes he lays traps and snares. Sometimes he takes his trusty shotgun in hand and lets go at the most promising numerous flock of what the county regards as pests. Every time a sparrow comes his way it means two cents to the slayer. Such is the bounty.

You wouldn't think that a man could get riotously rich off sparrow killing, would you? Well, he doesn't. But sometimes he takes more money out of the county treasury than the fund custodian likes to see go for this purpose. So it was recently, when the county clerk was confronted with sparrow orders calling for the payment of $500 of the good legal tender of the land. The county clerk gasped awhile. He'd never heard of a Nilwood bird bill of that extent, and he'd been around some himself, but there was the "O. K." of the town clerk. And the "sparrowists" were paid. The investigation which followed resulted in the arrest of the town clerk, and it is believed that the bills won't be so heavy in the future. The county authorities say they are heartily in favor of the extermination, but when it comes to a claim of killing off 25,000 within a comparatively limited time they get their doubting caps on. Meanwhile, the vicinity of Nilwood, Ill., is highly unfavorable to the health of the sparrow tribe.

Boers in Other Lands.

It is stated that President Kruger has issued a proclamation commanding all the citizens of the republic resident abroad. The penalty for non-compliance is a fine of from $500 to $2,500 and one to five years' imprisonment, with loss of franchise and confiscation of property.

From a G. A. R. Man

"My attack of miller's Asthma was very bad. I was afraid to lie down at night for fear of smothering. I couldn't get my breath. No matter if all the doors and windows in the house were open, it seemed as if there was no air and that I must surely smother to death. Mr. W. B. Long, of this city, called my attention to Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I thought little of it but bought a bottle in the hopes that it might help me a little. It gave me wonderful relief, and the second bottle cured me completely. My recovery is permanent, too, for ever since I have not had the slightest return of my old enemy. I consider Acker's English Remedy by long odds the best medicine in the world for hacking coughs, asthma and bronchitis. It completely masters those stubborn diseases that many people wrongly suppose to be incurable. If sufferers will just try a single bottle, it will prove every word I have said, and more too." (Signed.)

Commander John Megarrah Post, No. 132, Portland, Mich.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2s, 3s, 4s, 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.
