WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

Since the Republicans of this county will be called upon next June to vote for a number of joint legislators who are strangers to many of them, and whose acquaintance only a fraction of the voters will have an opportunity of making, the following extracts from the home papers of one of them will be appreciated.

The nomination of R. A. Emmitt, of Keno, for representative, accords deserved recognition to this county and bestows honor on a man who is eminently worthy and well fitted to take an active part in the deliberations of the next legislature.

The Ashland Tidings, which is not in this district, contributes the following voluntary testimony to Mr. Emmitt:

The Republicans have named R. A. Emmitt of Keno, Klamath county, as their candidate for joint representative. He is a successful farmer and stock raiser, a man of remarkable executive ability, and is well posted on the wants of the section he represents in the line of state legislation.

The Lake County Examiner has this to say of Mr. Emmitt:

Robert A. Emmitt, of Klamath county, the Republican nominee for representative for Klamath, Lake, Crook and Wasco counties, has long and faithfully served the Republican party of Klamath county. He has been a member of the state board of equalization and is a successful farmer and stockman of Klamath county. There is no doubt of his election.

"Strange isn't it, that it has taken the Democratic party thirty-five years to recognize the superior political virtues in Abraham Lincoln." Not so strange after all, says the Plaineader. It usually takes Democracy about that period of time to get anything rational through its head. In about 1935 they will be "pointing with pride" to the political wisdom and virtue of Wm. McKinley.

Caught a Dreadful Cold.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Rev. W. E. Steiner, W. Canton, N. Y., writes, "I have dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat.
