A HANDSOME COMPLIMENT.

The Grass Valley Journal pays the following handsome compliment to one of our republican candidates for joint senator:

T. H. Johnston, republican nominee for joint senator in the 20th senatorial district, consisting of Sherman and Wasco counties, was born in the province of New Brunswick 47 years ago. Twenty-two of these years have been spent in Wasco county, using his energy and money in the development of her fisheries, farms, stock-raising and lumbering interests and without a failure to score against him during that period.

Mr. Johnston now stands at the head of one of the heaviest retail mercantile establishments in this district, (Johnston Bros., of Dufur) and is one of the most successful farmers and stock raisers in his county. A leader in all relating to the business or educational interests of his state, few men have had equal opportunity to know Eastern Oregon's need in the way of legislation. Always a republican, but for three terms almost the unanimous choice as councilman at his home city.

Mr. Johnston was nominated joint senator by acclamation in the late convention at Portland, and if there is a man who can, as a legislative candidate, obliterate party lines and go into office as the choice of the people, it is the genial, whole souled "Hues" Johnston. The energy and ability that has made Mr. Johnston a success in all his undertakings will make him a leader in the next state senate, and an honor to his party, his district and his state.

A MOST UNGENEROUS CRITIQUE.

The Oregonian's critique on Senator McBride's vote on the exclusion of Quay is worthy of comment even at this late hour. It is as follows:

"Simon could not vote for Quay, in the circumstances; and McBride, who undoubtedly would have been glad to vote for Quay, was precluded by his vote against Corbett, whom he opposed for personal and cheap political reasons. Beyond doubt the bitter pill that McBride has yet swallowed was this compulsory vote against Quay."

No generous mind could be guilty of such a criticism as that. The scurviest car that crawls at its master's feet is worthy of better treatment. The Oregonian overshoots its own mark. The ungenerous, not to say rank injustice, of such criticism will make friends for Mr. McBride instead of enemies. Dear Senator Simon votes to exclude Quay. He does it from motives of consistency and could not do otherwise. Poor McBride does the same thing, and does it from motives of consistency, too, and could not do otherwise. But there was a difference in the men voted against, and the old silurian, whose money debauched the legislature and whom Simon ultimately flimflammed out of the senatorship was the special pet of the Oregonian. And that's the reason that what was noble and patriotic in Simon was cheap and contemptible in McBride. The truth is Simon was once right when he voted to exclude Quay, but McBride was twice right when he voted to exclude both Corbett and Quay, and for substantially the same reason in both cases.

The populist national convention have nominated Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota, as running mate for W. J. Bryan, and the democrats will have to accept this prince of silver cranks and indorse the nomination or forfeit the support of the populist party. Towne is a free silver crank, pure and simple, and nothing else. The Telegram says he is bound to "bust" the party wide open and all that the democrats will have to do when the national convention indorses him is to bunch themselves together and await the shock.
