Remember the public dance tonight at the Baldwin opera house.

Sluggo Jeffries defeated Sluggo Corbett yesterday at Coney Island, putting him to sleep in the 234 round.

A small purse was left at Pease & Mays' store on Saturday last. Owner can have the same by calling at their office.

Smith Bros. have received another lot of work horses from Sherman county, which they have for sale at their ranch south of town.

Fred Benzer and Phillip Willig, former subjects of the German Empire, were this morning admitted to full citizenship before Judge Mays.

Mrs. Phillips is offering the greatest bargains in millinery ever known. Patterns, hats, street hats, children's hats and bonnets all at cost prices. Call at once while the assortment is complete.

Voting booths for the Antelope precinct, to take the place of those burned in the fire at that town a year or so ago and for the new precinct on Dutch Flat were received today at the court house.

Yesterday's daily river bulletin says the Columbia river will continue to slowly rise for several days. The Snake river is now rising, and it will also continue to rise during the remainder of the week.

Ned Wicke, of Mill creek, was in town today for the first time in three months. Ned is almost blind from cataract in both eyes that refuses to ripen so that it could be safely removed by the surgeon's knife.

Miss Ella Donaldson, of Kingsley, was a passenger on the Reliance this morning for Portland, where she goes to resume her work as nurse in St. Vincent's hospital after a week's vacation spent at her old home.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold a religious service in the Christian church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, to which all are invited, but especially the young men of the city. Subject for discussion, "The Habit of Friendliness."

The Indian war and scalp dance at the Vogt opera house last night was not a howling success, from a financial standpoint. After the warriors and scalpers had paid the hall rent and other expenses they had just fifteen cents left.

Hereafter the forest rangers must pass an examination, but it will be as to their fitness for the position in connection with their knowledge of the country, ability to ride and take care of a horse, etc., and they won't have to have a knowledge of Latin and trigonometry.

T. S. Hamilton, of Upper Trout, has raised 123 per cent of lambs this spring and like reports come from all over the county. This is accounted for by the unusually favorable winter and spring and the consequent fact that a large per cent of ewes have raised twin lambs.—Creek County Journal.

At 4 o'clock this morning the fire bell rang out one clear, hard tap. Three or four of the fire boys jumped out of bed and put for the engine house, where they found Engineer Brown poking among the glass jars trying to find out the cause of the alarm. Some defect in one of the jars had caused the fall of the bell hammer.

The Spokane Chronicle of last Wednesday has the following personal, which will be real news to us Dalles folks, for Dr. Logan has so carefully concealed his connection with the hardware business that nobody here ever suspected it: "H. Logan, a prominent hardware merchant from The Dalles, is registered at the Grand with his wife."

Wesley Wachake, a young buck of 19, from the Yakima reservation, who came over here yesterday with the horses for the Linnton cannery, got full of fire water last night and found himself in the Hotel de Hughes this morning with a bill of $5 charged up against him. His Indian companions paid the fine, and he was discharged, a soberer, if not a wiser Siwash.

John Doe does not believe this is a free country any more. Full of something a good deal stronger than "Nebraska wind" he insisted last night in making his boondoor in the middle of the railroad track on Front street; but an imperialistic nightwatchman compelled him to make his couch on a pine bench in the city bastille and the imperialistic clerk of that institution fined him $5 this morning for the accommodation.

At 1:30 this afternoon a boy was seen setting a lighted match to a box of rubbish in the alley near the CHRONICLE office. In a few minutes the blaze attracting the attention of the employees in Maier & Benton's tin shop. The fire had extended to other rubbish and the boy had carelessly fled. An alarm was turned in, but a couple of small streams from the tin shop rendered the services of the fire department unnecessary.

An exchange lays down the following code of morals by saying: Let your motto be, "Lie, Steal, Drink and Swear." When you lie, let it be down to pleasant dreams. When you drink, let it be nothing but pure, cold water. When you steal, let it be away from immoral associates. When you swear, swear that you will patronize your home paper, pay your subscription and not send your job work away from home.

The officers of the Y. M. C. A. are particularly anxious that all who have signed the roll of membership should be present at the meeting announced for next Monday night at the council chambers. Negotiations have been entered into for rooms for place of meeting, for the gymnasium, reading room and so forth, and it is important that the committees having these matters in charge should be able to close the negotiations so that the association may get down to real work.

A freak of nature in the shape of an apple tree one year old bearing fruit this year is reported from White Salmon. Capt. H. C. Cook informed the editor of the Glacier last Saturday that among the seedling apple trees he budded last August is one that bloomed this spring and now has one well-formed and good-sized apple upon it. He planted the seed in the spring of 1899, and in August of the same year budded the tree with a tion from the Bismark apple, a variety noted for bearing early and which originated in Australia.

The Crook County Journal rallies the faithful against the forces of Bryanism and bankruptcy thusly: "All voters of Crook county who believe in Hananiam, Algerism, Imperialism, coming under the head of McKinleyism or any other 'ism,' that showers the blessings of unbounded prosperity upon all the people of these United States, are requested to meet at their places of voting on every election day as long as time shall last and cast your votes against starvation and depression, such as prevailed four years ago under perverted democracy, which is another name for bond issue for revenue only."

The unconscious humor of the Irishman still lives. Last week, says a correspondent of the London Daily News, a friend of mine was sitting in Phoenix park, when to him appeared a ragged old chap, most gloriously intoxicated. "God save the queen, sor!" said he to my friend. "Certainly," was the reply. "God save Queen Victoria!" reiterated the old fellow. "By all means. Send her victorious, happy and glorious!" "That's right, sor! I wish she came to Dublin every year, every month, every day, sor! Think of what she has done for the country; think of all the good she does to people. Why look at me; here am I, as drunk as blazes, and never paid a penny for it!"
