The republican party believes that every foot of Spanish soil on which the American flag was planted by American valor, in a war provoked by Spanish despotism in Cuba and the cruel and murderous blowing up of the Maine, should be held as the permanent possession of the United States. It believes that the nation will repudiate any party that would basely surrender the priceless benefits of national expansion, and any candidate for the presidency whose utterances inspire and strengthen the murderous insurgents in the Philippines to make causeless war against their own liberties and sacrifice of the lives of our brave soldiers.

Last Thursday the steamship Ponce landed in the port of New York from Porto Rico 1,093 hogsheads and 9,990 bags of sugar and 2,131 bales of tobacco, the first of shipments that may be doubled or quadrupled within a few weeks. This confirms the contention of administration republicans that large quantities of sugar and tobacco, owned by the sugar and tobacco trusts, were awaiting shipment from Porto Rico, while the Porto Rico bill was pending; and that their free admission into the United States was the very thing the trusts wanted.

The average price of Oregon wool in 1896, the last year of the Cleveland administration, was 8 cents a pound and hundreds of clips did not bring 6 cents. In 1897, the first year of the McKinley administration, it rose to 10 1/2. In 1898 the average was 13 cents, and in 1899, 13 1/2. During the last three years, on a clip of 15,000,000 pounds, there has been an average gain of half a million dollars to the wool growers of Oregon every year. It is on exhibits such as this that the republican party asks to be retained in power.

Pinned to a blanket recently presented to Mr. Bryan in New Mexico, was the following note: "Under the republican administration the wool in this blanket sells for 22 cents a pound. Under the democratic administration it sold for 5 cents. Please tell this to your constituents." At last advices Mr. Bryan had not read this campaign tip at any of his meetings.

The per capita crept up another peg in April, and now stands at $26.58, the highest in all our history.

And what is of still greater importance, the per "pockets" keeps pace with the per capita. The world has no parallel to the commercial and financial prosperity of this country during the past three years. To vote for a change would be to repeat the madness of '92.

The democratic party has come to a pretty pass. It must either accept the candidates of a populist nationalist convention and a platform made by such political paranoics as Allen Pettigrew, Toerne, Weaver, Sockless Jerry, Tornado Jones and Cyclone Davis, or else throw Bryan overboard and go it alone.

Exports of American manufactures will pass the $400,000,000 mark for the fiscal year ending with next month. In 1895 they only amounted to $188,595,743. And yet there are a few people who are still opposing protection and commercial expansion.

The finances of Wasco county were never in better or safer hands than those of Treasurer C. L. Phillips, and the voters of the county can do no better than leave them there for two years more.

The Globe-Democrat says it is proposed by the Goebelites to amend the Kentucky election law so that a man who votes the republican ticket can have his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life.
