The house committee on judiciary has agreed upon an amendment to the constitution giving congress power to define, regulate, control, prohibit or dissolve trusts, monopolies or combinations, whether in the form of a corporation or otherwise. Every intelligent person knows that without some such amendment no effective blow can be struck at illegal and dangerous combinations that restrain trade or destroy competition, or unjustly harass or oppress labor. Unity of action among the several states is practically impossible, and without unity the laws of one state may shield a trust that would oppress all the others and leave them, under existing laws, powerless of redress. The CHRONICLE leaves it to demagogues and politicians to fret and fume over trusts and combinations of capital. Whatever is legitimate in them is as much the outgrowth of commercial development as the use of the power loom and the sewing machine, and, like them, has come to stay. Whatever is illegal and oppressive must be crushed, and a constitutional amendment is the only way to do it. Indiscriminate assaults on combinations of capital, the fashion of the times, are the tricks of demagogues and knaves. It is worthy of remark in this connection that every democratic member of the judiciary committee voted against submitting the amendment to the people.

The evidence accumulates, if more were needed, that Aguinaldo and his followers were alone responsible for the outbreak of hostilities between the Filipinos and the American troops at Manila. The president last Tuesday sent to the senate a letter received from General Otis transmitting a translation of a letter written by Aguinaldo to a friend in Manila warning him to leave that city. Aguinaldo's letter is dated Malolos January 17, 1899, and is addressed to Senor Bonito Legardo. In it Aguinaldo says: "I beg you to leave Manila with your family and to come here to Malolos, but not because I wish to frighten you. I merely wish to warn you for your protection, although it is not yet the day or week." General Otis states that this letter is one of a number written by Aguinaldo to his friends in Manila warning them to leave the city for their safety, and adds that many families left the city in consequence of this warning. Thus it is again brought home to this "Filipino George Washington" that he had fixed the day and hour for an indiscriminate massacre of our little American army of occupation as well as every foreign resident of Manila, and that only a mere accident which he could not foresee prevented it. But the Ancient Order of Anti-Expansion Paranoics will continue to worship their little saffron-hided deity just the same.

THE CHRONICLE cheerfully complies with the request of the executive committee of the Oregon State Equal Suffrage Association in placing before its readers, on another page, the plea of the equal suffragists for affirmative votes on the constitutional amendment granting the women of Oregon equal suffrage with the men. THE CHRONICLE does this as a matter of justice as well as courtesy. If the majority of the good, wifely, motherly women of Oregon want the ballot and believe they would better others and be bettered themselves by it, they ought to have it. There are none too many instruments of good in Oregon or anywhere else. Right here, however, THE CHRONICLE stands in doubt of its own judgment. But to show that it means to be fair and impartial the editor promises to submit the question to the little woman that has owned him for these thirty-six long years, and if she tells him she wants the ballot he'll vote for it, by jimmie, if it bursts a collar button.

The old issue that the republican party has managed the finances and created a surplus is about to be revived by the democrats, says the Union Republican. The people have learned that the best thing to do to get rid of the surplus is to turn the democratic mule into the inclosure.

Republican platforms coming from the different states show perfect harmony in the party on national issues. It is foregone, on the contrary, that the democratic national platform will be a mosaic, composed principally of ancient, heterogeneous junk.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN. All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies, but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
